STUDENT BEING SUBDUED — Sheriff's deputies, following a struggle, pinned student Gary Stark of San Anselmo against a patrol car, then handcuffed him and took him to county jail. The student, booked on suspicion of battery and resisting arrest, was one of 38 persons arrested yesterday at the mass arrest in Kent Woodlands.

DeGaulle Backer Vows To Continue

PARIS (UPI) —Georges Pompidou, 57, announced today he will run for president to succeed Charles de Gaulle. He pledged to continue the Gaullist Fifth Republic — an indication he hoped to be a strong man president in the De Gaulle tradition.

Pompidou, the former premier, was fired by De Gaulle last summer but supported him in the Sunday referendum which De Gaulle lost.

Leftist and middle-of-the road politicians at once began hasty talks on candidates of their own to pit against Pompidou.

As the political infighting warmed up, fears of an immediate financial crisis eased although European banking circles forecast eventual devaluation of the franc.

The price of gold dropped from Monday's all-time record of $49.09 a fine ounce to $48.66. The U.S. price is $35.

The French franc, which slumped sharply yesterday, staged a small recovery. Financial sources said it was helped by buying of francs by the Bank of France and other central banks.

The price was 4.9710 for one U.S. dollar compared with 4.9735 yesterday.

Amid this more relaxed atmosphere the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (CGT), France's biggest labor organization, called for calm during the traditional May Day parades Thursday.

Pompidou was the first French politician to announce plans to run for the presidency. He pledged "stability" and continuation of the Gaullist Fifth Republic if elected.

Pompidou announced his candidacy in a brief statement from his Paris office. The steering committee of the group of Gaullist deputies in the National Assembly at once pledged unanimous support for Pompidou's bid.

Election Reform Plan Advances

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee approved 26 to 6 today a constitutional amendment that would provide for the direct, popular election of the president.

Before giving its support to the far-reaching change, the committee voted to delay its effective date until a year after ratification, making it unlikely to be in force by the 1972 election.

The amendment is the committee's response to widespread complaints about the current system touched off by the danger of an Electoral College deadlock in last year's election.

Sixteen Democrats and 12 Republicans provided the committee majority.

Aide Sees Victory For ABM

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spokesman for the Richard M. Nixon administration brushed aside today suggestions that the Safeguard antiballistic missile (ABM) program might be blocked by Senate opposition.

"The tide has turned," said Herbert G. Klein, the administration's director of communications. "The opposition has reached its peak, perhaps too early."

Klein said the administration has picked up support in the last few days and he predicted "a great victory for the President."

A poll of the Senate conducted by the Associated Press over the weekend showed 47 members opposed to the Safeguard program, 43 in favor and 10 uncommitted.

"We'll win easily in the House; it'll be a close vote in the Senate," Klein said.

Klein commented in an interview with the Columbia Broadcasting System.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford, of Michigan, said, meanwhile, that if all proposals advocated by critics of various military programs were adopted, the United States in effect would disarm itself.

Talking to newsmen at the White House following Nixon's weekly conference with GOP congressional leaders, Ford expressed concern about various calls by Congress members to scrap the antiballistic missile system, halt development of a new strategic bomber and end chemical and biological warfare programs.

If such ideas were put together in a package and adopted, the United States would find itself in the position it occupied before World War II when na-

Tamalpais Creek's Protectors Depart

THEY LIVE THERE

Two Are Against, Two Indifferent

Two of the four residents whose homes border the tiny, fought-over Tamalpais Creek in Kent Woodlands apparently are not opposed to the flood project at all.

"I think it's just as well to remain silent on these things," commented Mrs. John H. O'Neill of 10 Woodland Road yesterday. Then she shrugged her shoulders and said philosophically, "If it's to be here, it's here."

A woman who was walking into her home at 104 Goodhill Road, just a few feet from where the mass arrests took place yesterday, said she didn't wish her name to be used.

However, she said of the current demonstrations, "We're all very upset. It's not wise. It's not representative. I don't wish these pickets would come here or any of that . . . the settlement has been made . . . all these hippies, they don't belong in here."

The other two homeowners with property facing the creek oppose the project.

Mrs. Sam Hanzel of 100 Goodhill Road was one of those arrested yesterday and William R. Dixon of 25 Kent Avenue said, rather than a concrete ditch, he favors an underground drainage channel along Woodland Road.

There is no public access now to the controversial stretch of creek nor will there be when the project is complete, an Army Corps of Engineers spokesman said today.

Supervisors Vote Not To Halt Work

Marin County Board of Supervisors voted 3 to 2 this afternoon not to halt the concreting of Tamalpais Creek in Kent Woodlands, despite a last minute plea to save the creek.

Supervisor Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. moved for a one week's delay so that another public hearing could be held. He got a second from Supervisor Michael Wornum.

But the other three supervisors voted "no", because the contract for the flood control work is already let, and further delays could mean damage suits against the county.

County Administrator Alan Bruce warned that damages could amount to $175,000 on a short-term delay and could run into the millions with longer delay.

Panel Votes To Keep Job Centers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate poverty subcommittee approved today on a party line vote a resolution calling on the Richard M. Nixon administration to suspend its plans to close down 59 Job Corps Centers.

The resolution, proposed by Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., is to go before the full Labor Committee tomorrow.

It is assured of approval there since all 10 Democrats on the committee, comprising the majority, are sponsors of it.

Crewmen Busy On Army Job

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Peace returned to tiny Tamalpais Creek in Kent Woodlands today.

Work on the Army Corps of Engineers project was resumed at 8 a.m. when a water pump was turned on at the Goodhill Road bridge, on which were sitting three long-haired hippie type college students.

At the other end of the block-long stretch of creek workmen were preparing to start clearing trees, sawn yesterday.

OFFICIAL RELIEVED

"Work is going on," said Paul Vredenburg, construction operations chief of the engineers, who seemed quite relieved that the crowds of yesterday had disappeared.

Today's scene was a peaceful contrast to yesterday's when 38 Kent Woodlands residents and College of Marin students confronted workmen in the creek bed and halted all work for more than half the day.

Following the 30 arrests made by sheriff's deputies in the morning, officers arrested eight more in the afternoon — mostly College of Marin students.

TREE EPISODE

$30 Million Sale Of Building Bonds

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—State Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest today received an apparent low bid from a Bank of America syndicate on $30 million in state construction bonds.

The bid of 4.7820 per cent was the lowest of three submitted on the 15-year bonds, most of the proceeds of which are intended for college and university construction. Crocker - Citizens National Bank and Wells Fargo Bank were partners in the Bank of America syndicate.

Net interest cost to the state will be $12,696,315.

United California Bank submitted a bid of 4.78865 per cent, which would have cost the state $12,713,873, while the Banker's Trust Co. submitted a bid of 4.8355 per cent, or $12,838,293.

The three bids were in sharp contrast to the situation in March when $40 million in construction bonds went without bidders at the state's constitutional interest rate ceiling of five per cent.

Mrs. Priest said today's action "once again indicates the confidence and esteem in which California bonds are held. I'm very pleased to have these three fine bids. We're very pleased."

U.S. Launches Another Bomb Run Along Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command has launched another B52 bombing campaign to harass North Vietnamese troops in the jungles north of Saigon, military spokesmen reported today.

In a 24-hour period yesterday and today, 36 Stratofortresses dropped more than 1,000 tons of explosives on North Vietnamese bases in the enemy's War Zones C and D. The strikes ranged from 71 miles northwest of Saigon to 55 miles northeast of the capital. Some were within one and one-half miles of the Cambodian border.

Spokesmen said the bombing concentration in War Zone C is the heaviest of the war, with nearly 200 bombing raids flown along the Cambodian border in the past week.

The bulk of four North Vietnamese divisions is said to be concentrated in these two zones.

For the past four years, U.S. troops have battled enemy soldiers in the 2,000 uninhabited square miles of War Zone C, but all the fighting apparently has resolved nothing.

Two North Vietnamese divisions operating there have always been able to replace their losses from bases across the Cambodian border, using Zone C as a staging area for attacks into populated areas and allied bases to the southeast.

The Texas Democrat, chairman of the House Banking Committee, had accused Kennedy of conflict of interest because of the stock ownership and what Patman said were other financial ties with the bank.

Bucher Equates Student Rebels With Alien 'Haters Of America'

CHICAGO (UPI) — Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher called for Americans to exercise "reasoned love of America" to save the country from what he called "the haters of America."

Speaking yesterday before the Notre Dame Club, which presented him with an award honoring him as a "patriot, leader, and American," Bucher urged about 200 men to exercise leadership to counter the effects of agitators, particularly student demonstrators.

"It is a paradox that you who daily help to build this country have not always exercised your proper leadership in the rational type of patriotism that must save this country," he said.

"I have seen the haters of America, I have seen the enemy," Bucher said. "His idea of academic freedom is freedom of the academy to teach only his ideas."

"Our homegrown variety uses the same techniques. Force, not reason. They use intimidation. They instill the same fear. They can be stopped only by the positive patriotism of exemplary leadership that is willing to stand up and be counted," he said.

Bucher was steadfast in praise of his crew. "Every letter, every message, every photograph contained clues to the fact of our constant defiance. The crew retained their faith in their country and harassed their tormentors at every turn," he said.

He said last night he expects to remain in service even if reprimanded on the Pueblo seizure. (UPI Telephoto)

Pueblo Inquiry Raps Captive Conduct Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressmen probing the North Korean capture of the USS Pueblo say the code of conduct for captured American servicemen is really a code of confusion.

"Rather than stricter or looser the code should be clearer," said Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Armed Services Subcommittee investigating the capture of the Pueblo and its crewmen. "I certainly think the confusion yesterday made that manifest."

Pike referred to a parade of Pentagon officials who tried to explain the regulations governing the surrender of the Pueblo to the North Koreans and subsequent false confessions by crew members.

Committee members zeroed in on what they termed inconsistencies in the code's enforcement, vagueness on information the enemy can be supplied, and absence of guidelines for surrender of a ship.

Vice Adm. Charles K. Duncan, chief of naval personnel, described the code as a "professional and inspirational" guide that needs no revision at this time.

However, Rear Adm. Joseph B. McDevitt, the Navy's chief lawyer, said violators of the code technically can be prosecuted.

"But it is not the policy of the Navy to punish violation of the code," Duncan injected.

"On one hand they say the code is inspirational and professional," committee member G. William Whitehurst, R-Va., complained in an interview.

Senator Blasts Pentagon War Death Listing Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — An outspoken Senate critic of the Vietnam war says the Pentagon is hiding the real number of U.S. battle deaths from the public by claiming many are accidental.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, said many of the approximately 6,000 American deaths in Vietnam designated "accident or incident" should have been listed as battle fatalities.

Young, a member of the Armed Services Committee and an early critic of U.S. involvement in Vietnam, said concealing the true number of battle fatalities "is a clumsy effort to deceive the public about casualties in this most unpopular and undeclared war.

"The number of combat killed and wounded have become so great—only the world wars were more deadly in recent history—they are trying to hide it."

Young said he had found deaths often are termed "accidents" or "incidents" when they result from such things as the collision of helicopters during a firefight or when a truck driver loses control under fire and soldiers die in the wreck.

Water Receding

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The flooding Mississippi River began receding yesterday in the Quad City industrial complex of Illinois and Iowa where extensive preflood preparations held back the bulk of the swirling waters.

Residents of downriver communities waited as the crest rolled south at three miles per hour, spreading from just north of Burlington to south of Keokuk in Iowa.

Sightseers were posing a major problem for civil defense workers and National Guard units patrolling Iowa's riverfront in the Quad City area.

Hit Gun Ports

TIBERIAS, Israel (AP)—Israeli jets bombed and strafed gun posts inside Jordan today as ground forces exchanged mortar and artillery fire across the cease-fire line.

An army spokesman said two jets were sent to silence Arab gun positions after an Israeli army vehicle came under bazooka fire as it patrolled the frontier near the settlement of Maoz Haim. But more Arab mortar fire was reported and the army said five soldiers were wounded.

A Jordanian military spokesman in Aamman said the Israeli howitzers opened up on Jordanian military positions near Tal El Arbain and Zamalieh villages.

New Press Lid

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's new Communist bosses carried censorship farther today, telling journalists employed by the government what to write as well as what not to write.

A government announcement said the cabinet approved censorship measures already in effect and directed the press and information committee to work out principles "for more effective management of state communications media in such a way that their operation is full in harmony with the interests of internal and foreign policy."

Costly Rioting

TOKYO (AP) — Five thousand ultra-leftist students celebrated the 17th anniversary of the end of the U.S. occupation yesterday by battling police with rocks, wooden staves, lead pipes and Molotov cocktails. They were greeted by tear gas, and 967 landed in jail.

It was the most serious of 252 demonstrations throughout Japan demanding the return of Okinawa and abolition of the U.S.-Japan Security Treaty.

Scores of persons were injured; the Ginza, Tokyo's entertainment and shopping center, suffered $300,000 in property damage; traffic on the Ginza was tied up for five hours, and the national railways had to cancel 512 trains, delaying 800,000 commuters and losing $310,000 in revenue, officials said.

Draft Boss To Continue Tough Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Selective Service chief Gen. Lewis B. Hershey says antiwar protesters who throw away their draft cards will continue to lose their deferments and be reclassified for immediate induction until the courts order the procedure stopped.

Putting such protesters first in line for the draft "has nothing to do with punishment," the blunt, 75-year-old Hershey said in an interview. "I get riled up when they talk to me about serving your country being punishment."

COURT REVIEW

Hershey spoke after the Supreme Court yesterday agreed to hear arguments next fall by two antiwar protestors who charge their reclassification was unconstitutional.

One of the protesters, 22-year-old David Earl Gutknecht of Gaylord, Minn., is appealing a four-year prison sentence for refusing induction after he was reclassified for leaving his draft card on federal building steps during an antiwar demonstration in Minneapolis.

The other, 21-year-old Timothy J. Breen of Westport, Conn., sued against being drafted after he was reclassified for giving his draft card to a Boston clergyman to protest the war.

Both gave up their draft cards within weeks of Hershey's October 1967 memorandum authorizing draft boards to take away draft deferments for such "illegal activities" and declare the violators delinquents, which sends their names to the top of the draft list.

537 INVOLVED

American Civil Liberty Union attorneys for the two protesters say 537 students were stripped of deferments and put on 1-A delinquent status in 1968.

Legal Director Melvin L. Wulf said in New York the ACLU hopes the Gutknecht case "will be the central test of the power of Gen. Hershey to reclassify men as punishment for protesting the war in Vietnam."

Failure of a potential draftee to carry his draft card is a specific violation of the Military Selective Service Act. The issue before the court is whether a man can lose his deferment and be reclassified to high draft status for the violation.

An ostrich egg may weigh up to three pounds.

Nixon Reversal On Science Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Richard M. Nixon, in a major reversal of position, has offered an important administration appointment to a man originally vetoed by the White House for opposing the Safeguard missile defense system.

But the man involved, scientist Franklin A. Long, says no thanks.

Following criticism from congressmen and scientists for letting politics override qualifications in selecting the new director of the National Science Foundation, Nixon yesterday said the job would be picked on merit only.

The President also revealed to the members of the National Science Board and the National Academy of Sciences that after first approving Long's rejection he had asked the Cornell University vice president to take the job.

But presidential science adviser Lee A. DuBridge, who originally recommended Long for the job, said yesterday Long was no longer interested because he found "the political situation distasteful to him and he preferred not to have it reopened."

After DuBridge recommended Long several weeks ago, White House staff members protested that he had publicly opposed Nixon's missile defense proposals and should not get an administration appointment.

Nixon backed up his staff at his April 18 news conference, confirming that Long's opposition to the proposed Safeguard project "would be misunderstood."

Asked why the President changed his mind, DuBridge said Nixon had "looked at it more carefully."

In his meeting with the scientists, Nixon asked for suggestions for the NSF spot and promised that he would pick the new director from one of the names submitted, White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said.

Nixon also said he would support the independence of the foundation and assured them of his interest in science and in international scientific cooperation, Ziegler added.

DuBridge was asked how the fresh Nixon stance would affect the scientific community. "I'm sure it will be tremendously pleased and encouraged," he answered.

Ohio Prison Guards Strike; National Guard Stands In

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Guards struck at two state penal institutions today and were replaced where necessary by Ohio National Guardsmen.

Only 54 of 175 to 200 guards and supervisors reported at the state penitentiary in Columbus. A unit of 100 guardsmen augmented the guard force there.

About 80 guards reported at Mansfield Reformatory where 130 would normally be on duty. A unit of guardsmen from Akron was sent to Mansfield to stand by.

Atty. Gen. S. T. DelCorso said no national guardsmen were sent into the Mansfield reformatory immediately.

Maury Koblentz, chief of the Ohio Division of Correction, said guard situations were normal at penal institutions at Lebanon, London, Marysville, Marion and Chillicothe.

Spokesmen for the striking guards at the penitentiary said they are seeking a $1,500 annual across-the-board pay raise. Koblentz said wages currently start at $4,990 a year at all institutions except the penitentiary, where starting salary is $5,240 a year.

Bagley's Judicial Bill Lacks Votes

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A plan giving the judiciary veto power over a governor's appointments to the bench lay bottled up today in an Assembly committee.

The Judiciary Committee yesterday held up the legislative package proposed by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, as an alternate to the "j u d ge s' merit commission" backed by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Bagley's measures would set up judicial review commissions with authority to approve or reject a governor's appointment of a judge. The Constitution would be amended to require no judicial appoitnment is effective unless confirmed by the proper commission.

This review after appointment is in direct contrast to the Reagan-backed legislation which provides for a screening of potential nominees before the governor makes the appointment.

Bagley said his measure "assures judicial review" while "at the same time is not taking away power from the governor where it belongs."

He said it is "maintaining the power of the governor and the people but holding a veto power in reserve."

Assemblyman James A. Hayes, R-Long Beach, ordered the bill held for further study after a whispered conference with Bagley. Hayes said the committee would consider all plans for judicial appointment reform at the same time at a later date. But it was apparent Bagley did not have the votes yesterday to move his package to the floor.

The rival plan proposed by Reagan passed the Senate last year but was killed by the Assembly Judiciary which Bagley headed at the time.

Under Reagan's plan, commissions would review qualifications of potential nominees and present the governor with a list of three to five persons from which the chief executive would make the appointment.

It was reintroduced this year, again by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville. It already has been approved by the Senate Judiciary which Grunsky chairs.

Bagley said the Constitutional Review Commission had studied and rejected the nominating commissions proposed by Reagan as "placing too much power in a body not answerable to the people."

Assemblyman John Francis Foran, D-San Francisco, objected to Bagley's bills.

"I'm concerned about the judiciary appointing the judiciary or lawyers appointing the judiciary," Foran said.

"The only one who proposes a name is the governor," Bagley replied. "This provides a check on him so you won't get rash, crass political abuse.

Lawmakers To Solve Tax Riddle

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A special blue ribbon Assembly panel looked today for what one member called a "politically palatable" tax reform package acceptable to Democrats and Republicans in both houses.

Legislative sources disclosed that Assembly Speaker Robert T. Monagan had selected the six-member group to examine several tax reform proposals already submitted to the legislature.

The committee consists of three Republicans and three Democrats. One plan it is expected to study is the complex tax reform program backed by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

"Our job will be to pull together the most feasible and politically palatable parts of the various plans and put them together in what might be considered a committee bill," said Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San R a f a e l, a panel member.

"You don't just submit a bill and say 'take it or leave it,' " added Bagley, chairman of the tax-writing Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Bagley said none of the proposed tax reform plans could pass the legislature without major changes.

Sirhan Must Spend Time On Death Row

California prison officials had spent $2,700 on a special isolated cell complex for Sirhan at the California Medical Facility at Vacaville, Solano County.

But a special bill to allow the State Corrections Department to send Sirhan to Vacaville died in the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee yesterday afternoon for lack of votes.

No prisoner should receive special treatment, some committee members had argued earlier. Sirhan was convicted of murder in the death of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Prison officials later told newsmen it would be more difficult to protect Sirhan at San Quentin against other inmates who might want to avenge Kennedy's gunshot death in Los Angeles last June.

Sirhan was convicted last week of first-degree murder and ordered put to death by the jury. May 21 is set as a hearing date for possible motions and formal sentencing by the judge.

Sirhan would be turned over to the state authorities within 10 days after the formal death sentence.

Lawrence Wilson, deputy corrections director and former San Quentin warden, said Sirhan would be held in a "no man's land" with empty cells on both sides. His six-by-eight foot cell will be separated by a special screen from the rest of the sixth-floor Death Row, he said.

Wilson said there have been prison rumors about possible attempts to harm Sirhan but he said "they were nothing you could put your fingers on or could validate . . . just the institutional rumors that there could be some reprisals taken."

Bond Issue Education Drive Set In Petaluma

The Petaluma City Council and two civic groups last night planned a campaign to educate voters to the necessity of passing the five bond issues totaling $3,204,000 that will appear on the June 10 ballot.

With all c o u n c i l members pledging full support to speak widely on the issues, a committee of the chamber of commerce agreed to handle promotion of the issues. The committee is headed by former Mayors Arthur Parent and Norman Van Bebber.

Parent said the committee is already well organized and will supply teams to set up publicity, fund raising and a speakers bureau.

"Petaluma is at the crossroads of progress and we realize that all of the projects are worthwhile," Parent said.

Col. Mervin S. Waters, president of the East Petaluma Civic Association, o f f e r e d support from his group and said it would devote a portion of each newsletter to explaining the issues.

Several council members said the greatest problem will be helping the voters to understand what each issue will accomplish and how much it will cost the average taxpayer.

"Many people know a new bridge is on an issue, but they see the W a s h i n g t o n Street Bridge being built now and they're confused," Vice Mayor Kenneth J. Colin said. Measure E on the ballot includes a second lift bridge at D Street as well as an overcrossing of Highway 101 at Caulfield Lane and street widening to Petaluma Boulevard.

The other street project issue involves the widening and relocation of Petaluma Boulevard from D Street to Washington Street from Petaluma Boulevard to Keokuk Street.

Another issue would provide funds for construction of a new fire station on South McDowell Boulevard and an addition to the central fire station. An issue to provide funds for an addition to the police station will also appear on the ballot along with another for park development and land acquisition.

Candidate Night Set In Petaluma

The East Petaluma Civic Association will host candidates for mayor and city council in the June 10 election at a candidates' night today at 7:30 p.m. in the Bernard Eldredge School.

I n v i t e d to participate are mayoralty candidates Councilman Robert S. Lipman and incumbent Helen Putnam.

Organ Students To Give Recital

Army Holds The Field On Tamalpais Creek

One student, 24-year-old Herschel Ferguson got hold of a rope tied onto the belt of a tree trimmer who was sawing limbs and tried to pull the man down, Vredenburg said.

Job superintendent Jim Matheson, according to Vredenburg, "protected the man in the tree by getting this kid off the rope. Otherwise the man in the tree could have got injured and so could the kid if the saw had fallen."

Ferguson, who lives in San Francisco, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut right eyebrow and a neck injury.

A struggle between another student and a sheriff's deputy occurred on Goodhill Road at about 1:30 p.m. Officers were attempting to move the crowd of about 100 students to the edge of the road so that workmen would be unimpeded when Gary Stark and a deputy got into a pushing scuffle.

The deputy forced Stark up against a patrol car, put handcuffs on him and placed him under arrest.

POSTED BAIL

Stark, 21, of 37 Sequoia Avenue, San Anselmo, was booked on suspicion of battery and resisting arrest, made $625 bail and is to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 2 p.m., tomorrow.

Others arrested yesterday include Danuta Patricia Rylko, 20, of 11 Elaine Way, San Rafael; Melinda Dell Fitting, 21, of 65J Redhill Mesa, Tiburon; Michael Allen Conroy, 19, of 7 Corte Cayuga, Greenbrae; Paul Everett Kantz, 23, of 57 San Benito Way, Novato.

Ty Alexander Patterson, 22, of 70 Corte Cayuga, Greenbrae; Thomas Peter Brunsing, 20, of 345 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, and John Henry Weber, 19, of 152 Villa Avenue, San Rafael.

All were booked on suspicion of failure to disperse and trespassing.

LEADER CONCEDES

Looking rather subdued was Marty Kent Jones, secretary-treasurer of the Ad hoc Citizens Committee to Save Tamalpais Creek who when asked if she had conceded, nodded yes, adding, "on this stream."

"I would like to draw attention to the fact that we can still get better design on phase three of the (Corte Madera Creek) project. We want flood control but we want better design," she said.

She added that the people didn't know what was going on and that the problem is really communication. Mrs. Jones, who had been the last to be forced from the creek bed yesterday morning, said she would appear today before the county board of supervisors to continue her fight for better flood control design.

'WE'LL BE BACK'

"Our being here is outliving its usefulness," shouted student Ron Burk at about 2 p.m. and student Richard W. Beban urged all the students to line up in pairs and march back to the campus. They did, some hollering, "Save the trees! We'll be back!"

Col. Frank C. Boerger, San Francisco District Engineer, issued a statement yesterday saying he finds no justification for further delay on the Tamalpais Creek portion of the Corte Madera Creek flood control project.

Boerger said, "The project, including the Tamalpais Creek portion, is essential to flood protection for some 220 homes in the area and for expansion of the College of Marin."

CRANSTON'S VIEWS

He said, too, that Corte Madera Creek floods so regularly that the fire department keeps a rowboat in its garage.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., also issued a press statement saying that when leading members of the community are thrown into jail because of a confrontation with the Corps of Engineers, "there is obviously something wrong.

"And what is wrong is that the corps has completely failed to make a convincing case that flood control and community improvement would best be served by uprooting trees and laying a concrete ditch where the beautiful Tamalpais Creek once edged its way along the Marin hillside."

Reagan Suggests Exchanges Merge

In a speech prepared for a New York industrial luncheon, Reagan said his proposal was timely because California leads all other states in number of shareholders and mutual fund sales in the New York exchange.

The governor said about 12 per cent of each day's volume of the New York exchange involves California investors and many corporations listed on the exchange hold their annual meetings in California.

Auto Looted

Bob Rogers of 212 Belle Avenue, San Rafael, told sheriff's officers that while he was hiking on Olema Hill Sunday someone smashed the window of his car and stole a stereo set and the water and temperature gauge, deputies said today.

Commission On Redwood Park Named

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's office today announced appointment of a seven-member commission to advise on whether three existing north coast state parks should be included in the new Redwood National Park.

If the new Redwood Parks Special Study Commission recommends transfer, it also will consider the conditions under which the parks should be included. The posts are without salary.

Under federal legislation establishing the controversial park, inclusion of Jedediah Smith, Del Norte Coast and Prairie Creek Redwoods state parks were authorized for transfer but not made mandatory, Reagan said in a statement.

Thomas A. Black, Aptos Republican and chairman of the Santa Cruz County supervisors, was named chairman of the special commission. Others include Whitford B. Carter, Lancaster, a Democrat and chairman of the state Board of Forestry; Lawrence C. Merriam, Berkeley, former regional director of the National Park Service.

Guy E. Rusher, Orick, a Republican and Humboldt County supervisor; C. Russell Johnson, San Francisco, a Republican and president of the Union Lumber Co.; Richard M. Leonard, a Democrat, San Francisco attorney; and Harry E. Sokolov, Beverly Hills Republican and president of the state Parks and Recreation Commission.

State To Offer Drilling Land

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state Lands Commission, despite opposition from Contra Costa County, intends to offer 280 acres of tide and submerged lands in the Sacramento-San Joaquin area for additional oil and gas drilling.

Chairman Houston I. Flournoy said yesterday the commission only plans to offer the lease but it would not be awarded until after the state completes its review of drilling regulations to determine if they are strict enough.

Sen. John A. Nejedly, R-Walnut Creek, said Contra Costa supervisors were "seriously concerned" about the danger potential of the proposed lease on False River and Pipe Slough in their county.

Artist Released In Hippie Deaths

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Robert Jahmelik, 35, was released yesterday after four days of questioning about the slayings of three young hippies in the Haight-Ashbury District.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Walter Fiubini said there wasn't enough evidence against Jahmelik, a Negro artist who said he had been with the victims shortly before they were killed.

Killed were William J. Oswald Jr., 24, of Concord; Margaret J. Fochtman, 18, Bay Village, Ohio, and Cinda M. Taylor, 19, Daly City.

Police said the victims had needle marks on their arms and had reputations as "burn artists," or drug peddlers who sell worhtless or adulterated merchandise.

Houseboater Seeks Hook Up

At least one Sausalito houseboat dweller is ready to hook up to land-based sewers as directed by Marin County.

Miriam Tellis, who owns the Yellow Ferry at Gate 6, last night asked the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District board for permission to tie into district lines. The board referred her request to district engineers for drawings and specifications.

The board also agreed to ask bids for a building on its Fort Baker property to house chlorine and other chemicals. Bids will be opened at the May 26 meeting.

No Complaint In Marijuana Probe

No complaint was issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court pending further investigation by the district attorney's office against George Robert Schoenfeld, 18, of San Rafael, who was arrested Saturday.

Schoenfeld had been held on suspicion of possession of dangerous drugs, marijuana and narcotics paraphernalia and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

WAR

documents mention another enemy offensive in the summer-autumn months, but intelligence officers have been unable to determine any firm trend. The aim of the stepped up B52 raids is to prevent the North Vietnamese troops from getting organized.

The Communist command's spring offensive, now in its 10th week, has tapered off sharply to about a dozen rocket and mortar attacks each night and only scattered ground assaults. Many of these occur in the Third Military Corps area, the most critical in South Vietnam because it includes the seat of government, Saigon.

The U.S. Command announced that enemy gunners shot down three more American helicopters and an F4 Phantom fighter-bomber yesterday, killing two Americans and wounding five.

Seventeen U.S. helicopters have been reported shot down and destroyed during the past week. Several others have been lost in collisions and in enemy rocket, mortar and ground attacks, but the U.S. Command will not say how many.

Driver Dies In Car-Bus Crash

SACRAMENTO (API) — A Chicago man was killed and eight persons injured yesterday when a car and a city transit bus collided at a downtown intersection.

Richard McCallum, 52, Chicago, driver of the car, was killed. His wife, Vina, 48, was injured but is reported in satisfactory condition.

Air Pollution Curbs Outlined

PASADENA (UPI)—Dr. Sheldon K. Friedlander yesterday suggested several partial solutions which could help curb air pollution through the year 2000.

Included in the suggestions, contained in a lecture given at the California Institute of Technology, were rigid traffic control, efficient rapid mass transit, organized car pools, modification of fuels to change compression ratios and afterburners on auto exhausts.

Friedlander, a professor of chemistry, said an electrically-powered mass transit system would reduce current vehicular polfution by about 2.5 per cent.

Rates Urged For Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon has urged Congress to get out of the city council business and give the nation's capital city home rule and a representative on Capitol Hill.

In asking yesterday for local self-government for 850,000 Washington residents, Nixon said federal responsibility for the city does not require federal rule.

"The rights of the national government must be protected at the same time as the rights of the city's residents are secured," he said.

Sewer Connect Fees Raised

The Homestead Valley Sanitary District board last night voted 4-1 to raise connection fees for one-family homes from $160 to $250. It is the first raise in approximately 12 years, president James G. MacNichols said.

Sole vote against the increase was by Lewis G. Harding, while MacNichols, Gustaf F. Wolf, Kenyon Spalding and Medford J. Schqarz voted for it.

The increase will take effect in approximately 60 days, MacNichols said.

Wine, Liquor Taken

Edgar Ford of 762 Idylberry Road, Marinwood, reported to sheriff's officers Sunday that sometime during the preceding week someone had stolen two cases of wine, a case of whiskey, two bottles of creme de menthe and a bottle of Scotch from his garage, deputies said today.

The forget-me-not is Alaska's state flower.

Antismut Legislation By Clausen

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Legislation to inhibit the distribution of pornography to minors has been introduced by Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District.

The first of the two bills would require the consent of any high school or grammar school student whose name appeared on a mailing list to be sold or exchanged by list brokers. The second bill would prohibit mail order sales or advertising of obscene materials to school-age children.

It also would make the unsolicited mailing of "hard-core pornography" to children under the age of 16 a federal crime punishable by five years imprisonment and $5,000 fine. The penalty would be doubled for second offenders.

Clausen said in a press statement that his bills were based on a Supreme Court ruling last year "which held that the sale of pornography to minors may be much more restricted than to adults." The court ruling upheld a New York decision which prohibited the sale of pornography to persons under 17 years of age, he noted.

Teener Sought In Black Death

BERKELEY (UPI) — Berkeley police have issued a murder warrant for a 17-year-old Black Panther in connection with an April 5 gun battle near the party's national headquarters.

Homicide Inspector Jack Houston identified the suspect as Ronald Stevenson Jr., a former head of the Black Students Union at Berkeley High School. He is being sought for the gunshot death of Ronald Black, 31, two doors from the Panther headquarters.

Though police said they were not linking Black's killing with the militant party, a group of former Panthers charged shortly before the death that Black's "execution" had been ordered by Panther leaders.

Audubon Chief Decries Danger

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—The most dangerous animal on earth is man.

"Man is the only one which has achieved the power to destroy himself and all other life," the newly elected president of the National Audubon Society said yesterday.

Dr. Elvis J. Stahr, former president of Indiana University and secretary of the Army under President John F. Kennedy, told the society man not only has the power to destroy, "he is steadily engaged in doing it.

Alleged Attack Trio Released

No complaints were issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court pending further investigation by the district attorney's office against three men who were arrested Friday in connection with the alleged rape of a 15-year-old Santa Cruza runaway.

Released were Danial Barele Chavez, 21; Michael Joseph Russell, 24, and Henry Gerald Koch, 23, all of San Jose.

Two Men Admit To Weed In Car

Two East Bay men yesterday admitted in Marin Superior Court that they had marijuana in their car when arrested April. 8, 1968, by Novato police.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson set sentencing for Phillip James Butcher, 20, of Berkeley, for May 16 and Jesse Earl Boykin, 19, of Richmond for June 5.

tional defenses were weak, he said.

The Michigan Republican said the proposals perhaps were made in concert. When asked to elaborate on this, he said he had no facts to prove concerted assaults against military programs and "such was not the case."

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, of Illinois, was asked if he agreed with Ford's assessment.

"I don't agree, I don't disagree," Dirksen replied.

Dirksen said he believes the Senate will approve the ABM program "by a comfortable majority." Ford predicted adoption of the administration plan by a substantial margin in the House.

The leading Republican critic of the President's Safeguard program, Sen. John Sherman of Kentucky, said it is becoming harder to keep politics out of the dispute.

Funeral and burial will be held in Payson, Utah.

Youths Facing Cannon Charges

PACIFICA (UPI) — Two San Bruno teen-agers opened fire on the Pacific Ocean with a home-made cannon yesterday and got arrested by a startled California Highway Patrol officer.

"You could hear the racket all over," said Officer Milton Stark, who booked Robert Honan and Victor Lombardi, both 18, for illegal possession of a cannon.

The youths rammed a two-inch bore in an auto axle and packed it with black powder to fire molded-lead projectiles half a mile out to sea from Devil's Slide beach along Highway 1.

"It was crudely but effectively made," said Stark, who noted Honan was described as a "mechanical genius." The youth is a student at Capuchino High School. Lombardi is a student at the College of San Mateo.

The youths were taken to San Mateo County Jail on the cannon charge.

Novato Library Backers Elect

The recently organized Friends of the Novato Library has elected Marjorie Mowat, of 574 Midway Boulevard, as it president for the coming year.

Also elected were Mrs. Ray Huffman, 808 Tamalpais Avenue, first vice president; Ruth Mordecai, 440 Estado Way, second vice president; Wayne Hathaway, 75 Crescent Lane, treasurer; James McConnell, 653 McClay Road, secretary.

Officials of the group said it will incorporate and seek tax exempt status to make gifts for the library more attractive.

Teen To Spend Time In Jail

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court yesterday ordered David B. Denison, 19, of San Rafael, who had pleaded guilty to burglarizing a pet hospital, to spend four months in Marin County Jail.

He placed the youth on two years' probation.

Denison, who was caught by a police officer inside the Rafael Harbor Veterinary Hospital in San Rafael on Nov. 4, dropped a bottle of morphine at the time of his arrest, police said.

CAMERAMAN HURT — Stephen Pastzy, televisian cameraman for TV station KPIX-TV (Channel 5) in San Francisco is beaten to the ground by a mob in the Fillmore District where a clash yesterday afternoon between the police tac squad and Black Panthers touched off rioting.

THE UNREST SCENE

Tac Squad, Panther Clash Sparks Riot

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Hundreds of riot-ready police moved into the Fillmore District yesterday to quell a disturbance sparked by a confrontation between a tactical squad unit and members of the Black Panther Party.

Eleven persons were arrested and two were injured before the bottle-throwing crowd of about 600 Negroes began to disperse. Eight rifles, shotguns and pistols were confiscated.

Only two persons were injured — a television cameraman and a police officer. Cameraman Steve Pastzy of KPIX-TV (Channel 5) was hospitalized for head injuries suffered in an attack by a group of youths, and officer Jeremiah O'Brien was released after treatment of a scalp injury caused by a metal milk crate.

Witnesses said the incident began when a group of Panthers outside their headquarters used a loud speaker to yell insults at a passing police tactical squad unit and urged persons in the Negro neighborhood to take up arms against the authorities.

When police approached the group to make arrests for illegal use of the loud speaker, the Panthers went inside the office and reappeared at the doorway with weapons.

The tac unit called for help and several hundred policemen arrived, armed with riot sticks, shotguns and automatic weapons. Under a barrage of bottles and rocks, police blockaded the neighborhood.

Members of the tactical squad fired warning shots, lobbed tear gas into the building and then stormed the Black Panther headquarters. Eleven persons, including five women, were arrested as they attempted to flee through the back door. Nine of them were later released.

At Winston-Salen, N.C., snipers shot at firemen early today as they sought to put out a rash of trash fires set in the Negro section of the city.

No firemen were hurt in the bursts of gunfire about 3 a.m.

Police said the firemen were twice driven from a fire near a public housing development before they decided to let the fire burn out. Damage was minor.

Firemen said the gunshots appeared to come from an apartment complex in the housing development.

The incident occurred as Winston-Salem experienced its second night of unrest.

Police Lt. C. E. Cherry said police have not been able to establish the cause of the unrest but "Black Panthers, some of them from Greensboro, have been holding meetings."

In Cairo, Ill., fire bombings and sporadic gunfire flared in a third straight night of racial disturbance.

Cause of the outbreak of violence was not known. The city of 9,000 had been tense for more than a month since Negroes complained of harassment by a white vigilante group called the White Hats.

Fires broke out last night in two homes, a tavern and a grocery store located near Pyramid Courts, a predominantly Negro housing project which has been the scene of past disturbances.

Within two hours fires were reported in four more buildings and sporadic gunfire was heard from around Pyramid Courts.

U.S. Bond Sales

U.S. Savings Bonds sales totaled $481,997 in Marin for the first three months of this year, as compared to $489,210 during the same period last year, William P. Murray Jr., Marin County chairman, reported today.

ITT Plans Hit By U.S. Trust Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nixon administration trust-busters have made their second move in two weeks to short circuit the trend toward conglomerate mergers by filing suit against the giant International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

ITT was challenged yesterday in Chicago's U.S. District Court on acquisition three days earlier of Canteen Corp., a national food and vending company with 1967 revenue of $322 million.

The Justice Department complaint charged the acquisition might trigger other mergers, a tendency government antitrust chief Richard W. McLaren says he means to stop.

ITT, the country's 12th largest business, thus joined Ling-Temco-Vought Inc., the 14th largest, as a defendant in separate government lawsuits to slow the rate of economic concentration.

Justice filed suit two weeks ago to stop LTV's purchase of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp.

More than a year ago, on Jan. 1, 1968, ITT canceled plans to merge with American Broadcasting Co. because of long delays caused by Justice Department claims that ITT international interests might influence ABC news operations.

The new suit said ITT has 109,000 employes in its plants while Canteen is one of the top companies providing dining services in industrial plants, suggesting the two could increase the benefits if Canteen supplied vending and food services to ITT factories.

Canteen operates in 43 states. Its enterprises also include cigarette machines, concessions at sport facilities and management of restaurants.

ITT acquisitions in 1968 alone included Continental Baking Co., the nation's largest; Sheraton Corp., one of the two largest hotel chain, Levitt and Sons Inc., a major homebuilding firm; Avis Inc., No. 2 in car rentals; and Rayonier, a leading producer of chemical cellulose.

Injuries Minor In Two-Car Accident

Thomas W. Yarish, 25, of 1285 Yukon Way, Novato, suffered a cut lip and a bloody nose at 5:15 p.m. Saturday in a two-car collision on Atherton Avenue, near the Novato Thoroughbred Farm and Board Stables, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Yarish's car collided with one driven by Tommie Sue Holt, 17, of 708 Lamont Avenue, who was not hurt, officers reported.

Campus Scenes Run Gamut: Guns To A No-Strike Vote

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Some 75 black militants, armed with rifles, shotguns and knives, held the Voorhees College library-administration building today but the president of the South Carolina school refused to call police or set a time limit for the students to leave.

At Harvard University undergraduates voted not to renew a student strike to eliminate ROTC and win other demands, while at Radcliffe, Harvard's sister college, students twice invaded the administration building and shouted obscenities at President Mary Bunting.

The students at Voorhees appeared to be set for a long siege. They were fortified with an estimated $5,000 worth of food taken from the college cafeteria at gunpoint.

They plastered front windows of the administration building with newspaper pictures of black militant Malcolm X and a sign proclaiming the structure the "Liberated Malcolm X building." They distributed leaflets saying their weapons were "for defensive purposes only."

On other campuses:

Memphis State University—Police arrested 109 persons, mostly black, as they broke up a sit-in at Memphis State University.

St. Louis University—About 25 St. Louis University students led by members of the Association of Black Collegians left the administration building of the Roman Catholic institution today after administrators signed an agreement expressing "regret for any harassment" to which black students have been subject."

Queens College—Demonstrators took over the three top floors of the 12-story administration building in New York City demanding amnesty for 39 arrested in an earlier protest.

Cornell University—President James A. Perkins said his school gave in to demands of armed black students last week to avoid "what seemed at the time to be much too great a risk of bloodshed." He said he was "sickened" by the armed sit-in.

Sausalito School Board Poses Question On Kindergarten Fire

Only one fireman was on duty Sunday night when fire of an unknown origin destroyed the contents of a kindergarten classroom in Marin City. Neighbors had to help carry the hoses, it was reported by Rita Johnson last night to the Sausalito School District board.

She went on to say that the fire was burning 15 minutes before the fire department came. "The police were there. It wasn't the police department's fault but the fire department's fault."

Another resident, Gabe Jackson, said, however, there were other firemen at the $30,000 Manzanita School blaze but added, "This is a good example of what kinds of things go on."

Board president Bruce E. Woelfel commented: "I don't think we can establish too much this evening."

Trustee Nathaniel Johnson told the board the fire had burned for 15 minutes before the fireman got the alarm and Supt. P. W. Schneider said the possibility of arson is being investigated.

Jonathan Alper in the audience suggested the board make inquiry as to why it took so long to answer the fire call and why only one man was on duty. He also suggested use of laser beam type alarms instead of what he termed "bugging windows."

Asst. Supt. Joseph J. Amato, who said that the cement-walled room is covered by insurance, was also asked to find out why Sausalito Fire Department was not called to assist under the interlocking agreement between departments.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said today that it was unusual for only one fireman to be on duty, but that it "happens every once in a while."

(Bloom said that one man had been sick.

("We only have four men at the Marin City station," Bloom said, "During the summer months we always have three men on duty because the station's primary duties are with brush and grass fires. During the winter months, we normally have two men on, but sometimes only one."

(Bloom said he felt the one fireman —Capt. Arthur McKay — did a "tremendous job" in containing the fire to only one classroom.)

The Sausalito School District Board Also:

ARTS LEASE — Leased the old Bayside School building to the Sausalito Arts Association in return for payment of the building's insurance not to exceed $551 annually.

AUDIT — Hired Leader, Jarvis and Keigwin of San Rafael to make the 1968-69 audit not to exceed $1,000 cost.

RESIGNATIONS — Accepted resignations of Hazel M. Lynch, kindergarten teacher at Manzanita School, who is moving from the district; Carol Tucker, district speech therapist, who is getting married and Betty Brandon, psychologist, resigning due to other commitments.

EMPLOYED — Hired Gail Dobie at $8,500 annual salary, kindergarten teacher, and Mary Levinson, $10,400, psychologist.

NEWLY ELECTED — Invited trustee-elect C. Gerald Clear to sit at the table with the board and announced final results in the April 15 election as follows: Nathaniel Johnson, 1,233; Clear, 1,230; David E. Freedheim, 1,097; Kenneth Elkington, 709 and Martha Thomson, 632.

LIBRARY NEEDS — Heard from librarian Virginia Geddes that the proposed 1969-70 budget for the district's libararies is about $7,000, or the same as the current budget.

BURGLARY — Heard that a phonograph, two listening centers and a tape recorder were stolen over the week end by burglars who forced their way into a Bayside School portable classroom.

LITTLE LEAGUE FENCE — Voted unanimously to permit the Little League to install a fence on Bayside School playground provided school district maintenance men assist in its construction, that it be inspected for nails by Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato and that the board meet later to discuss what changes can be made regarding the fence next year.

SENATE BILL 28 — Heard from Marilyn Burns, Senate Bill 28 methematics program director, that, in event her program is not state-funded in 1969-70, the program will cost the district an added $26,256.

TENNIS COURT CENTER — Acknowledged interest in a tennis court center at Martin Luther King School on inquiry from John P. Vetromile, Sausalito Recreation Commission secretary, who said such a center is being investigated.

MEETINGS — Agreed to meet May 12 and 26 at 7:30 p.m. and, after holding a closed session on hiring personnel, agreed to also meet at 7:30 p.m., Monday, to consider hiring personnel. The board will also discuss salary negotiations for 1969-70 on Monday.

Hirohito Greets Well-Wishers

Police guards, on alert because of anti-American demonstrations throughout the weekend, kept close watch on the estimated 30,000 persons who entered the gates around the emperor's new $36 million palace, with its moat and swans.

Space Station Plans Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 12-man orbiting space station, supplied by space shuttle and serving as a platform for scientists and engineers, is being sought by the nation's space agency.

A target date of 1975 for development of the station was set yesterday by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in calling for design and planning studies.

The station would be the first element of a 50-man space base to be made up of modules assembled in earth orbit.

Of the studies submitted by aerospace firms, two will be selected for 11 months of detailed analysis at a cost of $4 million, NASA said.

Rohnert Park To Expand Rec Program

The Rohnert Park Recreation Commission last night approved plans for an expanded summer recreation program for youngsters.

Ronald E. Rasmussen, commission chairman, said the program will get under way at both Alicia and Benecia parks the week after school closes. Programs will include arts, crafts, sports programs and trips to baseball games and the San Francisco Zoo.

A gymnastics program will be offered for the first time in three years and include work on the trampoline, parallel bars, rings and horses. Swimming classes will be offered by the schools and Red Cross in the mornings at both pools with the afternoons open for recreational swimming.

Rasmussen said the commission is negotiating for the use of the Rancho Cotate High School gymnasium for programs in basketball, volleyball and other indoor sports.

Thomas West, recreation director, said sign-ups will begin soon for both adults and youngsters for baseball leagues.

The commission also approved the city's participation in a Boy Scout program to finance county Eagle Scout presentations for the year. Rasmussen said the Boy Scout plan is to have cities rotate sponsorship of the program on a yearly basis. The commission recommended that the city council approve $120 for the program.

Larkspur Teen-ager Denies Marijuana

Robert Andrew Enos, 18, of Larkspur pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to possessing marijuana in a car on April 14. A preliminary hearing was set for May 27.

Larkspur police arrested Enos after noticing a strong odor of marijuana coming from a car in which he was a passenger.

Irrigation Proposed For Lagunitas Field

A Woodacre resident has worked out a plan to irrigate the ballfield at Lagunitas School to enable wider community use in the San Geronimo Valley.

Marshall J. McCunniff, superintendent of the Lagunitas School District, said the district board was interested in the proposal at its meeting last night and asked the man who devised the plan, William E. McConnell, to tabulate annual maintenance costs.

The board said the possibility of obtaining county recreational funds to install the irrigational system should be investigated. According to McCunniff the system would maintain turf that would otherwise be destroyed by heavy nonschool use of the field.

McConnell has children in district schools and is maintenance supervisor for the Dixie School District.

Lagunitas School District Board Also:

WORKSHOP — Scheduled a meeting for 7:30 p.m. Monday at Lagunitas School to continue discussion of added credits to the teachers' salary schedule and to adopt an agreement enabling use of the old classroom building at Lagunitas School for a cultural center.

TEACHERS — After a closed meeting, voted to offer new contracts to all 24 regular classroom teachers. Instructors of educationally handicapped children were not offered contracts because the Legislature has not approved needed funds.

BILL — Took no action on a request from the county superintendent's office for support of AB 2293, which would add health and welfare benefits to the computation of funds spent for teachers by school districts.

STUDENTS — Heard that enrollment is 590.

AID — Voted to provide up to $25 in materials for use by kindergarten teacher Kathleen Dewing and a group of other teachers from around the county supporting passage of legislation to restore benefits for a 180-minute kindergarten session. McCunniff said the board felt the passage of such legislation would benefit the district.

PROGRAMS — Heard reports on the volunteer teacher aide and library programs. McCunniff said the board hoped to develop a stronger volunteer program this summer. Librarian Virginia Thomas said the district library had about 10,000 books after starting from scratch four years ago.

PAYMENT — Voted final payment of $7,230 to contractor E. H. Chapman and Co., builders of the San Geronimo Valley School, on recommendation of district architect J. Martin Rossi.

Envoy Presents His Credentials

LONDON (AP) — Walter H. Annenberg, the new U.S. ambassador to Great Britain, rode to Buckingham Palace in a horse-drawn carriage today and presented his credentials to Queen Elizabeth II.

In a 20-minute ceremony formally marking the start of his ambassadorship to the Court of St. James, Annenberg, former publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, was presented to the queen in the palace's 1844 Room, a white-and-gold decorated reception room looking onto the palace gardens.

The queen wore an aquamarine crepe dress as she received letters of accreditation from the new ambassador, who was dressed in white tie, tails, and top hat. Annenberg, 61, presented his wife, who wore a champagne coat and matching hat.

Marijuana Case Jury Trial Set

A jury trail in the case of Steven Elvin, 26, of San Francisco, accused of selling marijuana to an agent of the Marin County Drug Abuse Bureau, was scheduled to open today in Marin Superior Court.

Elvin, who was arrested in February 1968, in a countywide narcotics roundup, is also charged with possessing marijuana for sale in his yellow truck when it was parked near Gate 5, Sausalito.

The case is being tried by Judge Thomas F. Keating.

Exchanging Of Students To Continue

Mill Valley will continue its student exchange program with Sausalito, the Mill Valley School District board agreed last night.

The board ordered notes sent to parents of children in the fourth through sixth grades outlining the program and notifying them of a meeting at 8 p.m. May 19 in Martin Luther King School library in Sausalito to explain the program in detail. Parents will also be sent permission slips for their children to visit King school on a field trip to see how the exchange of fifth through eighth graders works.

The board also announced a "lend an ear" community relations workshop will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday in Park School auditorium when present board members and trustees-elect will hear comments and questions from the community. A discussion will follow on the June 3 election to raise the district tax limit 75 cents.

The Mill Valley School District board also:

RESIGNATION — Accepted resignation of Lillian Fong, kindergarten teacher at Park School, who is to marry and move from the area.

NEGOTIATIONS — Directed Supt. James A. Collins to meet with the negotiating council of the Mill Valley Teachers Association to discuss next year's teacher employment.

BONDS — Was told the latest installment of the district's $3.5 million bond issue, $415,000, was sold at 4.99 per cent to United Bank of California. The rate was just under the 5 per cent statutory limit on district bonds.

Kentfield School Board Approves Classroom Plan

An application for $195,000 to build the proposed hearing handicapped classrooms at the Adaline E. Kent School was approved last night by the Kentfield School district board.

The application will go to the state allocation board for funding of the project which is being done in cooperation with the Marin County Schools Department, Supt. Anthony G. Bacich said.

The board heard two curriculum presentations last night, by the foreign language and classroom music departments. About 150 students participated in the demonstrations which included a play, "Little Red Riding Hood" in Spanish, use of rhythm instruments and choral work accompanied by guitars. About 300 parents attended.

The board granted in-service credit to teachers who attend the Afro-American history and culture seminar at the Newman Center, sponsored by the Marin Committee for Fair Play, Bacich reported.

The resignation of Mrs. Tobi Rex Rosenstein, currently on maternity leave, was accepted.

Jewelry Stolen

Jewelry valued at $220 was taken from her home by a burglar Friday or Saturday, Helen Palubinskas of 85 Tamalpais Avenue told Mill Valley police. She reported the theft of jade earrings, two cameo brooches, a silver necklace and a turquoise ring.

Zelinsky Wins Nod On Rebuilding Plans

Tiburon City Council last night approved a precise plan for a new building at 7-11 Main Street to replace one destroyed by fire last September.

The plan submitted by property owner Fred G. Zelinsky calls for retail shops on the first floor and a restaurant on the second floor.

There was a prolonged discussion about whether Zelinsky, who owns three parking lots in downtown Tiburon, could meet the parking space requirements for the proposed 146-seat restaurant.

Councilmen approved the plan with the proviso that a building permit wouldn't be issued unless he could provide 73 parking spaces, including 36 for the restaurant, as indicated in the plan.

The vote to approve was 3-1 with Councilman Anne L. Ellinwood dissenting and Councilman Thomas E. Drohan absent.

At the start of the meeting, outgoing Mayor William R. Bremer appointed Albert Sennett of 26 Sutter Court, chairman of the Tiburon Peninsula Advisory Committee, to the city planning commission.

Sennett will succeed Joseph H. Bacheller III, who resigned because he was moving from the city, for the term ending June 24.

On the proposed countywide uniform animal control ordinance, the council recommended three changes.

They said they want the patrol staff increased by two persons rather than three, they want Marin County to bear the legal cost of prosecution and they want a "refined or modified" definition of what is meant by the requirement that a dog must be under direct control at all times.

Councilman Denis T. Rice said the definition on control was vague and Mayor Branwell D. Fanning didn't want it so broad that patrol officers could "take dogs wherever they saw them."

The Tiburon City Council Also:

DISABLED VETERANS — Adopted an ordinance which provides disabled veterans exemption from a business license tax, but prohibits them from door-to-door solicitation.

BICYCLE REGISTRATION — Referred to its public services committee a proposed ordinance requiring registration and licensing of bicycles.

TRESTLE GLEN — On the recommendation of Donald Loomis, parks and recreation commissioner, authorized City Engineer Ray W. Foreaker to include a sidewalk estimated to cost $7,000, in plans for resurfacing Trestle Glen Boulevard, and make it a separate unit when calling for bids.

SUBDIVISION PLAN — Was alerted by Councilman Ellinwood that plans for development of 23.6 acres of ridge land, adjacent to the city, a project known as Reed Ridge Unit 1, will be before the Marin County Planning Commission May 5, and said the city planning commission should study the proposed development.

CABLE WARNING — Received a warning from Mayor Fanning that a cable about six inches in diameter is being installed near the city, and if it is to go through the city all efforts should be made to have it placed underground through Tiburon.

STORAGE — Approved storage of an ark and garage on the parking lot near city hall for 60 days by a 3-1 vote with Councilman Denis T. Rice dissenting.

FILLING — Ask the city staff to investigate the reported filling of the water area near Safeway Market.

NEXT MEETING — Adjourned until 8 p.m. May 12 at City Hall.

LISBON (UPI)—Former Premier Antonio Oliveira Salazar' replaced when he nearly died of a stroke last fall, celebrated his 80th birthday today with his first broadcast to the nation since he was stricken. Salazar thanked those who had sent him messages of sympathy.

B.D. Fanning New Mayor For Tiburon

Branwell D. Fanning, a member of the Tiburon City Council since 1966, was elected mayor of Tiburon last night after Mayor William R. Bremer withdrew himself from consideration for a second term.

Fanning nominated Bremer for a second term, but Bremer said he had to decline because of business requirements.

"I loved being mayor of Tiburon, but I must decline a second term," Bremer said.

He then nominated Fanning for the post, and the councilmen present voted unanimously for Fanning. Councilman Thomas E. Drohan was absent.

Fanning has served as mayor pro tem since last April, and previously served two years as president of the Reedlands Property Owners Association and a year as chairman of the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council.

An executive with Compton Advertising Inc. in San Francisco, Fanning is a specialist in tourism marketing and development. He has been a consultant to the State Department on tourism in developing countries and has been active in development of Central America's tourism industry.

BRANWELL D. FANNING

Councilman Denis T. Rice was elected mayor pro tem.

Councilman Drohan and Bremer were named to the council's lands and development committee, Rice and Anne L. Ellinwood to the public services committee, and Fanning and Rice to the administration and finance committee.

Albert Sabin Will Take Israeli Post

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Dr. Albert Sabin, developer of the Sabin oral polio vaccine, will leave his post at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center to become president of the Weizmann Institute of Science in Rehovoth, Israel.

Sabin has been with the university for 30 years and is a professor and research pediatrician at the medical center. He developed his famous vaccine at Children's Hospital here.

Probation For Growing Weed

A former Fairfax couple, who now live in Mill Valley, yesterday were placed on probation by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court for growing marijuana in their home on March 27, 1969.

Mark Emerson Vincent, who pleaded guilty to the cultivation charge, was also ordered to serve 15 days in the Marin County Jail. His wife, Michael Elizabeth, who admitted being in a place where marijuana was used, was fined $150.

Judge Haley stayed the execution of the jail sentence until a probation officer can determine whether it will affect the young man's job with the post office.

Negro Describes Troubles In Presidio's Stockade

FORT ORD (UPI) — The defense called a surprise Negro witness yesterday in thet rial of 14 Army prisoners charged with mutiny for participating in a sit-down strike at the San Francisco Presidio stockade.

The witness, Joe Stephens, 20, of Berkeley, said he is now a civilian but was in the stockade when 27 white soldiers held the demonstration last Oct. 14.

Stephens charged that Negroes suffered from discrimination in the Army prison. He said blacks did the most work and stockade guards broke up any discussion among Negroes with comments like, "What's this? A Black Panther meeting?"

After telling of alleged racial discrimination at the stockade, Stephens was asked why neither he nor any other Negroes participated in the Oct. 14 demonstration.

"They (the Negroes) reasoned that since the demonstration was planned to be peaceful, they wanted it to stay that way," Stephens said. "If black people were involved, the guards might rough them up, might put them in a predicament where they would have to fight or get into violence."

Other witnesses at the court-martial proceedings yesterday were two defendants, Pvts. Richard Duncan, 20, of St. Helena, and Danny R. Seals, 22, Orangeville.

Duncan and Seals gave testimony similar to that of 10 previous defendants concerning alleged crowded and unsanitary conditions in the stockade.

Jury Trial Set

A jury trial for La Pierre Harvey, 21, of Marin City, who is accused of burglarizing a San Anselmo apartment July 29, 1968, was set yesterday for the week of July 21 in Marin Superior Court.

EARTHQUAKE AREA — Newsmap shows sparsely populated Borrego Springs-Salton Sea region in which a Richter magnitude 5.25 to 6 temblor centered. Scientists said yesterday's quake would have been dangerous in a populated area. It was felt in San Diego and Las Vegas. (UPI Telephoto)

Strong Temblor Jolts Southern Californians

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A sharp earthquake that jolted southern California yesterday caused only minor damage in the immediate area of the epicenter, but it swayed tall buildings as far as 200 miles away.

Seismologists said the temblor was centered in the mountains northwest of Borrego Springs, an earthquake-prone region about 40 miles north of the Mexican border and 125 miles southeast of Los Angeles.

Most of the remote area is unpopulated, but P. B. Harrison, manager of the Southern California First National Bank in Borrego Springs, reported large pieces of the ceiling fell and cracks appeared in the brick walls of the building.

About 30 bottles crashed to the floor in a Borrego Springs liquor store and a plate glass window was shattered at the Wood Food Center.

The temblor began at 4:21 p.m. and lasted more than half a minute. Most persons experienced the quake as a "long, rolling, rocking shake."

Estimates of the quake's magnitude ranged from 5.25 up to 6 on the open end Richter scale. The devastating San Francisco earthquake of 1906 had a magnitude of 8.3.

Yesterday's quake was centered in a remote area, but seismologists say if a magnitude 6 quake occurred in a densely populated section, major damage could result.

Terra Linda High Team First In Math Contest

A team from Terra Linda High School has placed first among 281 high schools in Northern California and Nevada which participated in the 20th annual Mathematics Association of America contest.

The three-man team — whose marks were highest out of 86 Terra Linda students who took an 80-minute test last month — is made up of seniors Victor Klebanoff and Marc Melon and junior Ed Jestadt.

The three compiled 270.25 points, half a point more than the runner-up team from Henry M. Gunn Junior High School in Palo Alto.

Klebanoff finished fourth in individual competition with 107.50 points, 37.50 points behind winner Quan K. Lum of Sacramento.

Drug Possession Count Dismissed

A marijuana possession charge against Alfred Laurence Rose, 27, of San Francisco, was dismissed yesterday in Marin Superior Court by Judge Harold J. Haley on the grounds that the evidence had been obtained illegally.

Rose was arrested Aug. 27, 1968, by Belvedere police who checked out his parked vehicle because it was a "hippie car" and out of place in Belvedere.

Street Light Planner Urged In Mill Valley

New street lighting for Miller Avenue may be a year away but the time should not be wasted, the Mill Valley Planning Commission said last night.

The commission recommended the council budget $1,500 in the 1969-70 budget to hire an electrical engineer to work out specifics of lighting not only for Miller Avenue but for the entire city.

The preliminary budget shows the city won't have money for new lighting on Miller this year. Hiring an engineer in the meantime could shave eventual costs, and the city would be ready to act when money is available, the commission suggested.

The commission also recommended the council accept a design for lighting on Sycamore Avenue Extension as recommended by the Architectural Advisory Committee, but recommended elimination of special machining on the fixtures to save $40 per pole. The commission also recommended using timers rather than photo-electric cells to save more money. The recommended lighting totals 12 poles, six on each of two traffic islands on Sycamore.

Mill Valley Planning Commission Also:

SIGN — Approved installation of a sign for 18 months at the top of Corte Madera Grade advertising lots for sale in Scott Valley subdivision Unit 5.

STRAWBERRY — Recommended the council back commercial-recreational zoning by Marin County for property owned by L. M. Fleischman on Strawberry Peninsula near Da Silva Island. Fleischman is asking the county for multiple-residential zoning instead of the present agricultural-residential. Commercial-recreational zoning would preserve public views of the bay, the commission said. The property is in an area Mill Valley may annex in the future.

BIKE TRAILS — Set a meeting of a joint subcommittee of the planning and parks and recreation commission for 8 p.m. May 8 to work out a proposal for the joint commission meeting of May 12 on bicycle trail plans. The meeting will be in Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon's office.

Judge To Hear Drug Arguments

The case of Francis Mitchell Orella, charged with selling marijuana to narcotics agents on Nov. 30, 1967, has been submitted to Judge E. Warren McGuire of Marin Superior Court on the basis of the transcript of the preliminary hearing.

Judge McGuire will hear arguments in the case tomorrow.

Teen Booked In Car Theft Probe

John G. Smith, 15, of 5 South Knoll Avenue, Apt. 7, Mill Valley, was booked into Marin Juveniel Hall yesterday on suspicion of car theft after he reportedly stopped near Redwood and Corte Madera Avenues in Larkspur at 11:15 p.m. driving a reportedly stolen car, police said today.

Auditorium Manager Is Selected

A manager for the new Veterans Memorial Auditorium was picked last night by the Fair-Marin board, but the name will not be released until his references are checked and an offer accepted, chairman Harold Stockstad announced today.

The manager will be offered $16,000 per year.

Stockstad explained that the directors agreed on the number one man but personal references have not been checked as yet.

"The reference check will take two or three days, and until then, we can't say anything because we might end up with the number two-man."

Eight finalists were interviewed by an oral board yesterday, and the top three were referred to the Fair-Marin directors last night at Civic Center.

HAVE A FAMLY MEMBER who requires a special diet? Ideas and recipes to meet diabetic and low sodium menu needs will be given at the three-part weekly series sponsored by the Marin County Heart Association. Here nutritionist Frances Dahl, left, tastes the diabetic strawberry cream puff recipe made up by dietitian Shirley Sichel and home economist Peggy Hopkins. The first class will be held tonight at 7:30 at the PG and E auditorium in San Rafael.

Preparing Low Sodium, Diabetic Menus

"One should eat to live . . . " according to Benjamin Franklin. And when the homemaker is faced with special diet requirements to meet diabetic or low sodium needs, she must ensure adequate nutrition for this segment of the family as well as other members of the group.

How to do it will be the subject of the Heart Association's three-part series of instruction starting tonight at 7:30 in the Pacific Gas and Electric Auditorium, San Rafael. Focus is on diabetic diets. The evening of May 6 will feature weight control while preparing foods for the entire family pattern. The final session May 13 will deal with attractive and tasty main dishes as well as desserts for the diabetic.

Among recipes featuring low sodium and to serve as exchange in fats and fruits for diabetics are the following favorites:

DIABETIC CREAM PUFFS

(Set oven for 375 degrees)

In saucepan, melt together: ¼ cup margarine and ½ cup boiling water.

Add, all at once: ½ cup flour. Stir hard until the dough forms a ball in the center of the pan. Remove from heat and let stand 5 minutes. Add one raw egg and beat until well blended. Add one more egg and beat as before. The mixutre should be very stiff. If not, let stand 10 minutes before shaping. Shape into 6 puffs on a cookie sheet. Bake until there are no more beads of moisture on the puffs. About 40 minutes at 375 degrees. Remove from oven and cool. (Each puff: exchange for 1 fruit exchange and 2 fat exchanges. Can be filled with ice cream, as allowed, or with fresh strawberries or raspberries.) Calories per puff: 125.

LOW SODIUM REFRIGERATOR CHEESE CAKE

(Makes 8 portions)

2 tablespoons gelatin
¼ cup milk
2 pounds dry curd cottage cheese
1¼ cups sugar
¼ cup chopped almonds
½ cup pineapple bits
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon almond flavoring

Soak the gelatin in ¼ cup milk until softened, then place over slow heat, stirring until dissolved. Press the cottage cheese through a sieve. Add rest of ingredients and stir until well mixed. Add the dissolved gelatin. Turn into a square pan, place in refrigerator until firm. Mix low sodium bread crumbs with sweet butter or use a portion of the above nut crumb crust to sprinkle over the top. Cut into squares to serve.

2" x 2" square: 400 calories, 23 mg. sodium.

LOW SODIUM SPANISH STEAK

(4 Servings)

1 lb. flank steak or round steak
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons oil
2 onions
1 green pepper
1 bay leaf
2 cups fresh or unsalted canned tomatoes
1 teaspoon sugar

Score steak on both sides, rub well with flour. Brown on both sides in hot fat. Add black pepper, cover with sliced onions, sliced green pepper, tomatoes, sugar and bay leaf. Cover pan and cook over low heat until tender. (About 2 hours).

3 oz. servings: 340 calories, 69 mg sodium.

The series presented by the Marin County Heart Assn. on consecutive Tuesday evenings will be two-hour instruction sessions conducted by Frances Dahl, nutritionist, Marin County Health Department; Peggy Hopkins, home economist, PG&E; and Shirley Sichel, consulting dietitian, Marin County Heart Assn.

Greeting Cards With New Soul

By IRA RIFKIN

BERKELEY (UPI) — A group of Berkeley Negro businessmen has entered the greeting card industry with a line of all-occasion "soul cards."

The venture, now four months old, has proved so successful the businessmen are planning a line of party decorations "to which the black community can relate."

Evans W. Cantrell, executive vice president of Goodie Products, named after Cleven Goodall, a black artist who designed the first "soul card," said the venture began with a line of Christmas cards "that went over so well we decided to come out with cards for all occasions."

Goodie Products began marketing the cards in the San Francisco Bay area but has since obtained outlets in Los Angeles, Philadelphia, New York, and Washington, D.C.

According to Cantrell, a 42-year-old former economic consultant to black-owned businesses, "soul cards" soon will be available in Chicago and Houston as well.

"WE'RE DOING better than $2,000 worth of business a week," he said. "The cards sell particularly well with younger people, who are more black oriented than their parents, and go well in ghetto areas but do not sell as fast in suburban locations."

The company recently received a $14,000 training grant from the Department of Labor's National Alliance of Businessmen and the University of California at Berkeley has agreed to undertake free of charge a market research survey to further enhance the firm's success, Cantrell said.

The market research project came about after some black militants were offended by some of the "soul cards."

"We found that various members of the black community reacted differently to the cards. A card that sells well in one area may disturb people in another," Cantrell said.

Some of the firm's cards, he explained, are no different from greeting cards picturing white persons except the caricatures have black skin. "Some militants thought a white company was making fun of blacks and they became angry," he said.

The black power birthday card, which contains the message "a salute to you on your birthday," sold extremely well" with younger persons, according to Cantrell.

"We discovered black communities in different areas think differently," Cantrell said. "As a result, we're pushing the market research project."

Cantrell said the company also has decided to expand advertising "so militants will know the company is black-owned and is not just a bunch of white men trying to capitalize on the emergence of black consciousness." The company's first ads were placed in trade magazines and will soon appear in leading commercial publications aimed at the Negro market.

THIS BLACK POWER birthday card sells well with the younger generation, says the group of Berkeley Negro businessmen who have entered the greeting card industry with a new "soul" line of cards. But it made middle class black uptight, says Evans W. Cantrell, executive vice president of the card firm.

Marin Women

Friendly Town Idea Brings City Children To Visit Marin Families

By JOAN LISETOR

Are you looking for a "Lady Bountiful" program during the summer to salve your conscience?

Or are you interested in a program set up to solve all of the human relations problems of today?

FRIENDLY TOWN is neither of these things; it is a down-to-earth project run by down-to-earth people.

Friendly Town is a program which allows children 8 to 14 years old from San Francisco to visit for 10 days with host families in Marin County. The program began in 1966 in the East Bay with an exchange of children from inner cities such as Oakland and Richmond to the suburban areas of Walnut Creek, Moraga and Orinda.

Last year Mrs. Richard Wilmington of San Anselmo heard about the success of the program in the East Bay and contacted the Rev. William Smith of Concord, project developer for Friendly Town, who is also a member of its board of director.

At his suggestion Sally Wilmington got a group of interested persons together to discuss a pilot program. Reverend Smith told them about the project. Word spread and by the application deadline last May, 45 families from Marin had applied.

The families were screened by volunteers.

EXPLAINS SALLY Wilmington, 'I asked the families why they wanted a child from the city to visit in their homes. Those who replied that they wanted to help a less fortunate child were quickly rejected. We only accepted families who admitted they were doing it for themselves.

"Friendly Town offers a mutual benefit; there is no 'poor kid what can we do for you' attitude."

In last year's Marin-San Francisco exchange the 35 inner city children were all residents of Yerba Buena Plaza. They and their families were screened by Mrs. Peggy Hawkins, who is also head of the recreation committee and a member of the housing authority for Yerba Buena, which has 386 units and approximately 500 children.

Mrs. Hawkins' main concern was placing the right child with the right host family. She was also responsible for arranging visits between the host family and the guest's family prior to the child's stay. Picnics have been the most successful meetings, she feels.

Mrs. Hawkins had the opportunity to talk to the city children after they have returned home from their suburban visits.

"THE CHILDREN didn't want to go home," she says. "They are all anxious to go back this summer and some want to go to the same families as last year."

Skeptics have expressed some doubt about Happy Town's effect on the city children. A black woman who lives in Marin and was reared in a ghetto in the East has described it as a cruel hoax — taking a child from a poor neighborhood, showing him a little affluence and then throwing him back into his old environment.

Mrs. Wilmington feels differnetly.

"The children all have television sets and they know a better life exists. They see television shows like Dick Van Dyke's, and they think every home looks like Rob Petrie's," she says.

"They know the life exists, but through Friendly Town they have actual contact with the people and see how they really live."

The children expressed surprise that every home did not have a swimming pool, but says Peggy Hawkins everyone has told his friends, "I had a good time, and you should have gone."

ONE BOY who told Mrs. Hawkins he had a good time was the thirteen-year-old guest of the James Drapers of Fairfax. The boy, who according to Mrs. Draper, was a tough product of the ghetto caused some problems during his visit.

During the city boy's visit the Drapers' 10-year-old nephew also stayed with them.

"The inter-action between my nephew, who is quiet, and our guest, who would fight first and then ask questions, was interesting," she says.

"The boy fought to survive because he didn't know how to handle situations or cope with problems or emotions. His strength was all he had, and he could not show his fears."

STEPHANIE DRAPER feels her family benefited from the experience. Her five-year-old son and three-year-old daughter have since commented that he was mean but they like him and have threatened their friends if they don't behave our friend will come and beat you up.

Despite the problems, the parties on both sides of the exchange felt it was a good expe-

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

She Likes The Cool, Calm, Collected Type Of Boy Friend

DEAR HELEN:

I'm 19 and have been going with a guy of 24 for two years. He knows I love him but he's the three c's type: cool, calm and collected. I got in trouble with the police, and he stood by me. So his fiancee left him, and he's been with me ever since. I even gave up other guys for him.

If he doesn't want to marry her, why doesn't he marry a girl who gives him everything —Me?—WILLING

DEAR WILLING:

Why should he, when he plays it cool, calm — and collects? As I've said before, if a rat can get the cheese outside of the trap, only a very dumb rat . . . etc. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Please tell us which letters in your column brought most response so far this year. — CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS:

The column on inter-racial dating brought greatest response from young people while their elders seemed most concerned with "Tim's" question: "If Adam and Eve had only sons, how did the world get populated?"

(Which just might be a capsule explanation for the generatio gap, right? — H.)

Other popular subejcts:

1. Ouija boards. (You'd be amazed how many people actually think they are instruments of the devil "Burn 'em!" they cry, "Before the demons of Hell take over your life!" And they offer all sorts of fascinating proof.
2. Teen-age spankings.
3. Sororities and fraternities — to join or not to join.
4. Children of divorce.
5. Married people fought the battle of sex quite thoroughly in the column but youth appeared more interested in discussing the modern three r's: race, riotin' and reform. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I am a teen-ager without any problems. What's wrong with me? — NORMAL NORMAN

DEAR NORM:

Unless you're unconscious — nothing. And congratulations. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

This is in response to Anne who wants to decide what to do about Bob and the big brother-sister friendship they share.

Well Helen, I had the same thing happen to me. His name was Larry; we went to grade and high school together, dated because it was convenient, and we were very good friends. I was his girl-type buddy, nothing more.

Then one day I tried what you suggested to Anne — a bit of unsisterly flirting. It worked.

You see, the brother-sister act had disguised our true feelings. We were in love all the time, but too naive to realize it.

Through our earlier relationship we learned to respect and trust one another. Shortly after our discovery we became engaged. I know we'll be very happy. Our pal days are marriage insurance. — FORMER "SISTER"

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Out-going superintendent H. Joe Edgington and in-coming superintendent Robert Gaw will speak at the public meeting.

SPRING-TIME increase in the number of visitors to Marin Art and Garden Center has led to the decision to open a second day of luncheon service to the public at the Magnolia Tea Room, on the center grounds in Ross.

Beginning this week luncheon will be served on Thursdays as well as on Tuesdays, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. This schedule will continue along with other special events affairs, until the end of May. At this time, the Center Path Finders, volunteers who operate the tea room as a benefit for the center, will take a summer hiatus.

Also open on luncheon days is the new Garden and Gift Shop, located in the old Bottle House, selling hand-crafted articles for garden and home decor, are offered for sale.

According to Path Finder president, Mrs. John Gentles, membership in the group is invited, and those interested are asked to call the center office, where reservations for luncheon or for special party events can be made.

Gordon Gaddy, All Saints Lutheran Church; Jerry Gransee, Good Shepherd Lutheran Church; Frank Well and Jack Nyulassie, St. Francisco Episcopal Church; and E. C. Leigon, Novato Presbyterian Church.

For home vegetable gardeners there will also be a selection of berry and herb plants. The herbs will also be available in unusual containers for a ktichen windowsill garden.

Club members have participated in weekly workshops for several months and each member is responsible for donating a minimum of 10 well-established, one-gallon size plants, Mrs. Barlow said.

The club has several city beautification projects including the quarterly re-planting at Cavallero Corner, the parkette at Highway 101 and Grant Avenue, and colorful annuals are also added regularly to the landscaping around the Novato Community House.

BOXHOLDERS NO LONGER LOCKED OUT

After a mixup, boxholders at the new Mission branch of the San Rafael Post Office again will be able to pick up their mail between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m. daily.

The remodeled building, which now houses other federal offices and is run by the General Services Administration, was shut most of the weekend to the dismay of boxholders.

Postmaster Hugh Cassidy complained to GSA and the old hours went back into effect today.

"The customers have room to complain," Cassidy said. "The post office must be open for their convenience."

BART Asked To Halt Building

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco supervisors unanimously asked Bay Area Rapid Transit District yesterday to delay all "non-essential construction" until its commitments to the city are met.

The board specifically named BART'S new $2.5 million administration building in Oakland as one of the non-essentials.

10 YEARS LATER

Marinite's Bottled Message Turns Up

Ten years ago, Terry J. Forsyth, then 16, wrote a note, sealed it in a big champagne bottle and threw it into the Pacific from the steamship Lurline.

On April 17, the bottle, with note intact, was found on a beach near Saipan in the Marinana Islands.

Forsyth, of 515 Pinewood Drive, San Rafael, was amazed that the bottle was found. "You're kidding," he said with delight as learned of the discovery.

C. B. Sturgell, father of the finder, Samila Sturgwll, 11, wrote of the discovery, addressing the letter to Forsyth's old address, 108 Coleman Drive, San Rafael, and also sent a copy to the Independent-Journal.

Forsyth said he never dreamed the bottle would be found, but had never forgotten tossing it overboard.

Sturgell, director of property and supply for the government of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, a U.N. Trusteeship administered by the United States, reported his daughter found the bottle on a beach called Old Man by the Sea.

"We found it extremely interesting that it took almost 10 years for this bottle to float the 4,000-odd miles, perhaps even more considering it probably came by a circuitous route, from Hawaii to Saipan," Sturgell commented.

A copy of the note was enclosed. It gave the location of the toss as "one-day from Honolulu." The note merely asked "Whoever finds this bottle please write to" and was signed with Forsyth's name, address, age and phone number.

Forsyth has since graduated from high school and college and served in the Army. A computer programmer for Standard Oil, he is married and has two sons. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Forsyth live at 2514 Mar East, Tiburon.

The effect is generally a permanent handicap (mental and/or physical) and often a life-long financial and psychological burden to the cerebral palsied person and his or her family. In California, about 3,000 infants per year are born with, or develop cerebral palsy.

Five Flee Blaze In Novato Home

A Novato couple and their three infant children escaped without injury from their flaming home, early today, two days after they moved into it.

Fire Chief Jack Kidder said the fire, which started in a storage box in the kitchen, caused $25,000 damage to the house at 739 Rowland Boulevard and $5,000 damage to its contents. The house is owned by Robert Stingle of Lakewood, N.J.

James Gillespie, who just moved into the house with his family, told firemen he was aroused by smoke about 1:33 a.m. The fire was already climbing the kitchen wall into the attic and eventually completely gutted the kitchen and burned the roof off most of the house.

Gillespie and his wife carried their two daughters, aged 3 and 2, and son, aged 8 months, to safety before the fire spread, Kidder said. It took Novato firemen about 20 minutes to put the fire out, he said.

Gillespie is employed by the Bechtel Corp. in San Francisco.

Hike In Water Rates Seen For Expansion

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Sonoma County supervisors agreed yesterday that increases in water rates will be necessary to finance future expansion of the aqueduct system, but spared users in the Petaluma and North Marin areas any boost.

Gordon W. Miller, chief engineer, said that rates charged to users of the Petaulma Aqueduct already reflects a charge for maintenance, depreciation and expansion. He said the Petaluma Aqueduct now has $124,000 available in capital reserves and an additional $225,000 in sold but unexpended bonds.

Miller said the aqueduct, however, will be the first to require expansion. He said the system is committed to supply 10.5 million gallons per day to Petaluma and North Marin and is already supplying 11.2 million gallons per day on peak days.

The board generally agreed to increases of $5.50 per acre-foot of water to other prime users in the county to build reserve funds for expansion.

Concerned that present users will be financing the water requirements of future users, the board agreed that the districts will receive credit for reserves when construction plans are made.

The Sonoma Board Of Supervisors Also:

BRIDGES — Approved plans for the construction of two bridges on Petaluma Hill Road, two miles north of East Cotati Avenue. Bids on the construction will be opened at 3 p.m. on May 27.

BOND SALE — Set June 3 at 3 p.m. for the sale of $50,000 in bonds for the Old Adobe School District, Petaluma.

DATA CENTER — Named Supervisors Ignazio A. Vella and Arthur R. Rounavaara to a joint committee with the Sonoma County Board of Education to study the possibility of constructing a mutual building for data processing.

Reed Choral Groups Win Top Honors

Each of the three choruses from the Reed Union School District was given a unanimous 1 (superior) rating by the three judges at the annual Bay Area Choral Festival held by the California Music Education Association Saturday at Sebastopol.

The 125-voice Reed District Elementary Chorus, directed by Mrs. Rosalind Wong and accompanied by Mrs. Louise Weirick was judged superior for the sixth year. For the Del Mar Choral Ensemble, directed by Dr. Hyman I. Krongard and accompanied by Mrs. Rowena Stokes, it was the fourth superior.

The 60-voice Del Mar chorus, also directed by Dr. Krongard and accompanied by Mrs. Stokes, was additionally honored by being invited by the judges to sing with other selected choruses from Northern California at a command performance concert on May 10.

GUS GOOSE HELPS DEDICATE

A Humane Society goose that prefers people or calves to other geese approves the new bronze plaque which marks the site of the first Humane Society animal shelter, Third Street and Grand Avenue, San Rafael. The plaque was dedicated today — in commemoration of the first shelter built in 1931 — by Mayor C. Paul Bettini and other city officials, along with the goose and other Humane Society representatives. Gus has been at the new animal shelter in Ignacio since being abandoned about six months ago, and has made friends with a calf which lies down when Gus nudges so Gus can sit on its head. Logging Picketed On Bolinas Ridge

About 25 conservationists showed up yesterday and today at the Righetti ranch on Bolinas Ridge to protest logging of redwood trees.

About 11 a.m. yesterday the sheriff's department was called by the logging foreman, Lynn A. (Jake) Flipcroft, who said that a stalled Volkswagen van was blocking the exit of logging trucks.

Pickets had removed a wheel from the van, which was up on a jack. Sgt. Robert F. Bertrand of the Marin sehriff's office helped change the tire and said picketing would be allowed if the protestors stayed off the ranch property.

Four persons who, Flipcroft said, were trespassing and "might get hurt" by the logging equipment left after being asked to do so.

The pickets continued their protest along the shoulder of Highway 1, and resumed picketing today.

The Marin Conservation League has asked the state department of parks and recreation to buy trees less than two feet in diameter on a 300-foot wide, two-mile-long strip across the ranch. The cost would be $35,000, according to Harold Gregg, president of the league.

Youths Win Draft Delay For Teacher

David Dwight, 24 ,psychology teacher and assistant track coach, will not have to report for the draft until the end of the semester, his Ingleside draft board has ruled on the heels of massive support from students, teachers and administrators.

Students learned last month that Dwight had passed his physical and probably would be inducted in April.

They launched a campaign to keep the teacher and collected more than 1,000 signatures on a petition. Twenty-five teachers also signed. Principal Frank Stocking and Supt. John F. Plank wrote letters urging that the teacher be deferred until the end of the year.

One student, worried the petition wouldn't be enough, sent telegrams to senators and representatives and at least one senator replied favorably.

Dwight, who is in charge of an Explorer Scout Troop and chaperones most school functions, will be officially inducted in May, but his actual reporting date will be after the semester ends in June.

Light Fixtures Design Approved

Design of light fixtures and poles for the underground street lighting project along Bolinas Road was agreed upon yesterday by the Fairfax Design Review Board.

Norman T. Gilroy, chairman of the board, described the appearance of the lights as "traditional" in character. The board viewed designs at the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. building in San Rafael.

ROBERT D. GOWAN
Ross superintendent resigns

Gowan Gives Resignation On Ross Job

Gowan, 41, of 74 Stanford Court, Novato, had been superintendent for the past three years after serving one year as vice principal of Ross School. Previously he was with the Reed School District.

Gowan said he had been offered an additional three-year contract in the Ross district but decided it was "time to make a change."

Gowan said he has not yet accepted another position.

The board accepted the resignation effective June 30, and agreed to set up a screening committee to interview applicants for the post.

Raises Requested By Ross Teachers

Ross School District teachers last night asked for raises averaging $1,000 each in addition to automatic step increases. The board agree it did not have the money tc pay such increases.

Supt. Robert D. Gowan said the salary package, raises and step increases, would cost the district $34,000 a year more. There are 28 teachers in the district.

The board did not indicate what it felt it could pay, but held the matter to the next meeting which will be at 7:30 p.m. May 12, when the budget will be discussed, instead of the regular time of May 19, Gowan said.

In other business last night, Gowan reported he presented plans for continuing the school's foreign language program on an expanded basis.

His recommendations included teaching French and Spanish to smaller groups in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades; making foreign language mandatory rather than elective, and, if the expanded program is desired, hiring an additional part-time Spanish teacher.

If the board approves the recommendations the hiring of the additional teacher will be considered in budget discussions.

A survey of parents and audience reaction last night was favorable to continuing on an expanded basis, Gowan said.

The Ross School District Board Also:

SURVEY — Approved a staff satisfaction survey to determine feelings on policy. The cost will be shared by the teachers organization and the district.

RETIREMENT — Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Dorothy Murphy, second grade teacher who is retiring. The board gave special commendation to Mrs. Murphy who has been with the district for 20 years.

PERSONNEL — Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Deborah Golitz of Tiburon, a second grade teacher, and hired Miss Joyce Ramacciotti as a primary teacher at a salary to be determined.

Linda G. Afentakis, 20, of 51 Straub Lane, Petaluma, was injured at 12:25 a.m. yesterday in a one-car accident on Petaluma Boulevard North, near Gossage Avenue, north of Petaluma.

Mrs. Afentakis was reported in good condition today at Petaluma General Hospital with cuts of the face and hands. The California Highway Patrol said he car left the roadway on a curve and struck the center divider.

Novatan Injured In One-Car Wreck

A Novato girl was injured at 9:45 a.m. yesterday in a one-car accident on I Street extension, four miles west of Petaluma.

Kathleen T. Fleming, 18, of 1415 West Court Street, was reported in good condition at Hillcrest Hospital with cuts of the scalp and face. The California Highway Patrol said the car rolled over and pinned Miss Fleming inside for a short time.

Talks Tonight On Animal Ordinance

League Storage Shed Is Looted

Novato police today were investigating the burglary of a storage shed at the Little League Baseball Field near Marion School in which several youths apparently were involved.

One 16-year-old, who was seen climbing into the shed, already has admitted taking baseballs and other items from the shed at 10 Tiden Drive, police said. Several other youngsters, all under 16, also apparently participated in the theft, police said.

Police said $55 in baseballs, gum, candy and cigarettes were taken.

Guilty Plea To Credit Card Use

Jesse Jackson, 28, of Vallejo pleaded guilty Friday in Marin Superior Court to using another person's credit card at the Emporium to charge purchases totaling $54.59.

He was told to return to court May 15 for sentencing.

Hub Parks Session Postponed To Today

A meeting of the San Anselmo Parks and Recreation Commission scheduled for last night was postponed until 7:45 p.m. today due to lack of a quorum.

The meeting at the Robson-Harrington Park mansion, will include a discussion of furnishings for the mansion and an irrigation system for Memorial Park.

Car Wash Use Permit Hit Again

The Novato Planning Commission, splitting 3 to 3, last night declined to take further action on a use permit request from Cloudburst Car Wash, Inc., to build an automatic car wash and gas station in Novato.

The commission already has recommended denial of the request but the Novato City Council had returned the application to see if the commission would change its mind if the proposed gasoline pumps were eliminated.

By splitting on the application last night, the commission automatically returned the request to the council with no recommendation.

The Cloudburst company wants to build the car wash next to the Tijuana Taco restaurant now under constrcution on the east side of Seventh Street between Novato Creek and Grand Avenue.

Commissioners Lee C. Wise, Robert Lagle and Frank Valim voted for the permit last night while Eugene D. McGillicuddy, George S. Quesada and Wayne Sartain voted against. The Novato Planning Commission also:

ZONING — Approved amendments to the zoning ordinance to require use permits for residential uses in commercial districts and to limit commercial uses and eliminate residential uses in industrial districts.

PERMIT — Continued until May 26 consideration of a use permit request from Jack D. Kinney to construct a boarding home on a portion of a four-acre site to be used in conjunction with a convalescent home to be built at 1679 Hill Road.

VARIANCE — Granted a variance request to Robert E. Spratling to permit construction of a family room addition to his home at 28 Washington Street. The variance will allow the construction within 15 feet of the rear property line instead of the required 22 feet.

SHELL — Recommended that the board of supervisors grant a use permit application from Shell Oil Co. to build a service station at the southwest corner of Nave Drive and Bel Marin Keys Boulevard in Ignacio.

PETITIONS — Approved a request from Harold Fish to withdraw his petition to amend the zoning ordinance on property located at 1100 Olive Avenue and a request from Lloyd and Jocelyn Benson to withdraw a tentative map of the Benson subdivision located at the corner of Center Road and Eucalyptus Avenue.

UTILITIES — Continued consideration of an underground utilities ordinance for two weeks to give the commission and power companies more time to study it.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS — Approved curb and gutter widening projects near San Marin High School, Sinaloa Junior High and Pioneer Memorial Park.

Stolen Car Found

A 1965 Volkswagen reported stolen Sunday from Wayne C. Byrd of 262 Cecelia Way, Tiburon, was recovered at 1:30 a.m. today at Cole Drive and Drake Avenue in Marin City, sheriff's deputies reported.

Patrolman's Shadow Nets Loot Suspects

Two San Rafael youths — one of whom is already spending weekends in jail on a previous burglary conviction — were arrested early this morning on suspicion of burglary after a San Rafael policeman shadowed their car for nearly an hour.

Booked into Marin County Jail were Robert Charles Baldi, 19, of 11 B Taylor Street and Ricky Craig Rosser, 20, of Bermuda Palms Motel.

The two were arrested about 4 a.m. this morning after they drove up in front of Baldi's residence with their car's lights off.

In the trunk of Baldi's car — being driven by Rosser — the arresting officer found an auto stereo, a portable radio, several stereo tapes and a tachometer, police reported.

The arresting officer said that he first spotted the car about 3 a.m. on Grand Avenue but lost track of it. He said he spotted it again about 3:30 a.m., driving without lights, but lost it a second time.

Believing he recognized the car, the officer parked near Baldi's home about 3:50 a.m. and made the arrest 10 minutes later, police reports indicated.

The officer said that when he turned his spotlight on the car, both occupants appeared to be putting things hastily on the floorboard of the car. The officer reported finding two screwdrivers and a pair of pliers in the car and two pen flashlights on the youths.

Baldi was recently alleged to be a member of a gang which police linked to nearly 100 Marin County burglaries, but was released when witnesses failed to identify him.

He is now serving weekends in jail for another burglary conviction. No bail has been set for the two youths in the latest arrest.

Panel To Study 'Team Approach'

The Corte Madera Town Council will discuss emergency services proposals for the town at an adjourned meeting at 7:30 p.m., Thursday.

Under consideration is the proposed police and fire "team approach" recommended by Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher and a proposal by the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce. Urging a vastly-upgraded fire protection service based along the lines of a traditional department.

Other proposals will also be solicited, according to Mayor Edward W. Colthurst.

Youth Panel Sets Session

Organizers of the Marin County Youth Commission will meet at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center to begin working on a list of persons who will serve.

A spokesman for the organizers said representatives of all Marin high schools are being asked to attend to begin determining interest and qualifications.

3-Year-Old Boy Runs Into Auto

A 3-year-old Marinwood boy escaped with multiple scrapes Sunday when he ran into the side of a moving car near his home, the California Highway Patrol said yesterday.

Alan Laurlund, 3, of 1280 Idylberry Road, was treated at Marin General Hospital. The patrol said the accident occurred at 1:10 p.m. on Idylberry Road when he ran into a car driven by Gordon B. Fraser, 46, of 200 Emerystone Terrace, Marinwood.

Benefit Set Sunday At Hub Church

Marin members of the San Francisco alumnae chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, international music sorority, will present a public concert Sunday at 3 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo as a benefit for the California League of the Handicapped.

Special feature will be a performance by the blind San Francisco pianist Rose Resnick, executive director of the league.

Schubert's "Auf Dem Strom" will be performed by Meg Broughton, soprano; Philip Parker, French horn, and Trudi Sorensen, piano. "Der Hirt Auf Dem Felsen" by the same composer will be performed by Meg Broughton, Trudi Sorensen and Douglas Delaney, clarinet.

Concluding the program will be Mendelssohn's Quartet in D Minor, Opus 1, for piano and strings, performed by the Trubedon Trio, consisting of Trudi Sorensen, violinist Donna Lee Salarpi and cellist Betty Musser, and assisted by violist Ruth Jacobson.

Crash Victim's Condition Better

A 21-year-old Los Ranchitos man critically injured last Friday in a car accident in Mill Valley was reported in improved condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Hospital officials said that Paul Duane Hedemark, 30 Corrillo Drive, has been removed from the intensive care unit.

Hedemark was injured last Friday when he was riding in a car which crashed into a tree on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley, killing the driver of the vehicle, Elie Antoinne Olson, 23, of Mill Valley.

Home Looted Of Hi-Fi Equipment

Novato police today reported the theft of $310 worth of hi-fi equipment from the home of Norman M. Bertelsen at 86 Buena Vista, Novato.

Police said the burglary occurred sometime in the last two weeks while Bertelsen was away. The Burglars gained entry by cutting a screen and climbing through a window, police said.

Denial Made To Drug Possession

John Conners Apostoli, 28, of San Rafael yesterday denied in Marin Superior Court that he possessed marijuana Feb. 9 in Sausalitc. A jury trial was set for the week of June 16.

Apostoli was arrested when he refused to identify himself to police who questioned him while he was hitchpiking on Bridgeway.

Motorcycle Victim's Condition Improving

A 25-year-old San Francisco woman injured Saturday in a motorcycle accident on Highway 101 near Corte Madera was reported in satisfactory condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Hospital officials said that Duane Wanda Brunell was removed from the intensive care unit late yesterday. She sustained a fractured skull in the accident Saturday when the motorcycle on which she was a passenger overturned.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, April 29th, the 119th day of 1969 with 246 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn. The evening stars are Mercury and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1862 Union forces took New Orleans, gateway to the Mississippi and once a Confederate stronghold.

In 1945 the body of Italian dictator Benito Mussolini, executed by partisans, was hanged in a public square in Milan.

In 1965 an earthquake in the Pacific Northwest killed six persons and caused more than $12 million in damages.

Wrist Wrestle Tourney Friday

Petaluma will again assume its role as the "wrist wrestling capital of the world" at 7 p.m. Friday as contenders gather at the Petaluma Veterans Memorial Building to test their strength and courage.

One contestant will stand out in the crowd because of his long ears and wet nose. Snoopy, the pride of Petaluma, is scheduled to give the tournament national publicity again with his entry.

The 1968 champion, Duane (Tiny) Benedix of Livermore, will return to defend his heavyweight title against a score of competitors from across the country.

WINNING BRIDGE

Never Expect Good Results From An Unorthodox Bid

South didn't have the correct values for his opening bid in today's hand, played in the recent national team championship in Cleveland. South needed an unusually good result to pull the match out of the fire, but the actual result was just what you should expect when a player steps out of line against good opposition.

LEADS DEUCE

Dick Walsh, of the young Los Angeles team that won the championship, led the deuce of hearts from the West hand. South won with the queen of hearts and led the three of diamonds, hoping to conceal his strength in the red suits and thus somehow stall off a shift to clubs.

Walsh played the nine of diamonds without a flicker, and declarer tried a finesse with dummy's ten. It was an unfortunate guess on South's part, but he couldn't have gone wrong if Walsh had stepped up with the king of diamonds.

John Swanson won with the jack of diamonds and returned the deuce of clubs. West won with the queen of clubs and could comfortably return the three of clubs because an expert East would not lead a deuce (or any other very low card) in this position unless he could support a return lead.

TAKE FOUR CLUBS

The defenders rattled off their four clubs tricks, defeating the contract. So far, so good, but more was to come.

East won the fourth club trick and shifted back to hearts. South stepped up with the ace of hearts and led a spade to dummy's queen to resume the diamonds, still convinced that East had the king of diamonds.

CASHES KING

West won a trick with his unguarded king of diamonds and cashed the king of hearts. Since declarer had discarded a heart on the clubs, West's nine of hearts was now good and the defenders collected a penalty of 400 points for winning two hearts, two diamonds and four clubs.

DAILY QUESTION

♠ A 8 7 3
♥ A Q 6 4
♦ A 8 3
♣ 9 5.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one heart.

If partner can respond in spades, you will gladly raise; otherwise you will abandon the suit and rebid in no-trump. Some experts would open this awkward hand with one diamond, prepared to raise if partner can respond in either major suit.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Memory, like money, does not grow on trees; we must work hard to retain it. Many of our most successful people do not have excellent retentive powers.

They have learned to select relevant things and do not waste time on or clutter their minds with trivia. The absent-minded professor who is brilliant and an authority in his field may have difficulty once he leaves the classroom, laboratory or study.

CAN MEMORY be improved? Yes, but the individual must discover the medium through which he learns best. Is it easier to recall what has been seen, heard, or read? For the majority, sight is the best medium. Most of us remember faces but not names.

Recently, several reports have appeared linking RNA (ribonucleic acid) to memory. Some investigators believe that information is coded and stored in the RNA molecule. Most of this work has been done on laboratory animals.

Injections of an RNA extract are said to improve the learning ability and memory of rats. Vitamin B12 also increased the RNA of neurons within the brain.

THE MAIN OBJECTION to this research is that it is difficult to measure the retentive power of an animal.

Stuides have also been conducted on whether RNA improves the memory of oldsters with impairment of this faculty. Sex hormones also have been used. These people tend to perk up a bit and seem more interested in their surroundings when hormones are taken.

Again, we do not know what brain structures are involved in learning.

SOME PERSONS have amazing recall for trivia. They rattle off telephone numbers, zip codes, meaning of words, or ball players and their averages since the days of Ty Cobb. These incredible feats are not always related to intelligence; some of the dumbest people are able to recall the darndest things (idiot savant).

Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

When Spring Comes, It's Cleanup Time In Novato

COLLECTION CENTER—Trash bins were filled rapidly when Novato opened its spring cleanup drive, continuing through Sunday. Bill Olsen, 15, and Ken Wrosch, 16 (right), deposit a box of trimmings at one of the big trash bins located throughout the city. The campaign is sponsored by the Novato Beautification Committee. (Independent-Journal Photos by Roger Bockrath)

EVERYBODY WORKING — Philip Dickinson got into the spirit of spring cleanup by mowing the lawn at the Bethel Baptist Church at 1929 Novato Boulevard.

NEW FIRE TRUCK—Fireman William R. Tomrose of the Novato Fire Department invites Mayor Harley A. McAskill to take a ride in the department's new snorkel truck, in the parade to kick off the cleanup campaign.

TELEVISION IN REVIEW

Is There Really Too Much Violence?

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Is there really too much violent entertainment on television?

Or is it just possible that the basic problem is that there isn't enough real violence shown at all in the weekly melodramas?

What I mean is this:

When somebody is shot or stabbed or otherwise done in on a television show, it is usually such a neat and clean job of killing that the viewer feels little or no pain at seeing a death.

How can there be horror when the process of killing and dying is not merely repetitive — but virtually palatable in terms of real ugliness?

I think perhaps the numerous deaths on television have been no more responsible for killing feeling in viewers than the more pertinent fact that the slayings have not been particularly unpleasant.

My own feeling is that if you really want to generate a fear, a hatred and a horror of death on television —that is, take a positive instead of negative approach —then you should show killing as it genuinely is.

And I think there would be such a feeling of revulsion by the public that its requests for less violence would be steeped in much more real feeling —so much, in fact, that viewers would understand the correlation between the genuine deaths in the Vietnam news and the phoney ones in melodramas.

For example, what if a fellow on "Gunsmoke" — instead of merely getting shot in the arm or leg —was plugged in the groin? You don't see that sort of thing happen very often on television.

What if somebody on "The High Chaparral" —instead of getting a scalp wound or dying neatly —were shot right square in the eye, for all viewers to see?

What if a villain or a good guy in "Hawaii Five-O" had half his head blown off, in full view, before a nation of watchers settling down to watch some nice clean killing?

What if a woman in a melodrama had a breast shot to pieces? What if someone's mouth or ears were ripped off by a knife or gun wound?

Oh, you say, too horrible. Oh, you cringe, that's not the sort of stuff one should see on television. Oh, says a network executive, that would be tasteless.

I disagree. What is horrible and what is tasteless is to see antiseptic death, the way it hardly ever really happens. That is dishonest. That is immoral. That is the worst possible kind of lie. It glamorizes killing. It glamorizes the so-called romance of dying in a melodrama.

The truth could set a lot of people in television free.

Innocent Plea On Charges In Ross Burglary

Curtis Lynn Ross, 18, of San Rafael, yesterday pleaded innocent in Marin Superior Court to a charge of burglarizing a Ross home on April 7. A jury trial was set for the week of Aug. 25.

A co-defendant, Michael Vincent St. Martin, 18, also of San Rafael, has not yet entered a plea to the charge.

Sentencing for Ross on an earlier burglary charge was continued yesterday by Judge Harold J. Haley until May 12. The youth also is awaiting sentencing in municipal court on a narcotics charge stemming from his arrest at the time of the death of 16-year-old girl in a Corte Madera motel room on March 3.

Teens Elated By Response To Park Plea

A bake sale to raise money toward purchase of additional land for the Point Reyes National Seashore and to alert the public to the possibility the needed land being subdivided was a "fantastic success," according to co-organizer Tami Patterson of Inverness.

Miss Patterson and Newtza Cornelius of San Rafael, both juniors at San Rafael High School, head a group that wants to show how it feels about expansion of the national seashore.

Sunday, they held a bake sale in Inverness and made $141.62, Miss Patterson reported. She said they asked baked donations from friends, neighbors and complete strangers they thought would be interested and had an 80 per cent turnout.

Besides the money, the group got 400 signatures on a petition addressed to President Richard M. Nixon to let him know how strongly Marinites want the park expanded to its original projected size.

Phase two of the group's campaign will be Saturday — a second bake sale from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Co-op of Marin in Corte Madera, Miss Patterson said.

Money from the bake sales will go to the National Park Service to be used, if possible, toward adding to Point Reyes National Seashore.

Miss Patterson has also suggested that Marinites write Interior Secretary Wallace Hickel, urging that the Bureau of Land Management exchange land it owns in Northern California or Oregon for Lake Ranch, the area in West Marin that is up for sale to be subdivided.

Collection Of Taxes Up Slightly

The percentage of tax collection in Marin is slightly better this year than last, Tax Collector-Treasurer Stanley J. Fontez announced today.

A total of $53,061,161 was collected in 1968-69 taxes by the April 10 deadline. The total charge for the year is $55,489,904.

The tax collector said the delinquency rate this year is 4-and-one-half per cent, slightly less than last year's 4-and-five-eights per cent.

Those who did not pay their taxes by the April 10 deadline will be assessed a 6 per cent penalty plus $3 handling cost. The list of delinquencies will be published later this year.

Delinquent taxpayers have until the end of June to pay up before their properties are advertised and sold to the state, said Fontez. The property owner then has five years during which he may redeem the property by paying taxes plus penalty.

Bolivians Honor Dead President

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — President Rene Barrientos, the flamboyant air force general who survived several assassination attempts only to die in a helicopter crash, lay in state today in the cathedral near the presidential palace.

Thousands of Bolivians and the nation's civil and military leaders turned out in the streets here yesterday to give one of the biggest public tributes ever accorded a Bolivian president.

An armored car carried the flower-decked casket from the airport to the cathedral in a procession that lasted nearly five hours. Then a requiem mass was said for the 49-year old president and the two officers who died with him in the helicopter.

Child Expert Claims Boys Need Protection

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Little boys have a hard life, a female psychologist declared while urging the Boys' Clubs of America not to admit little girls.

Dr. E. Nora Ryan, whose child psychology practice is in Phoenix, was speaking yesterday at the organization's 63rd national convention.

Not only do little girls mature mentally faster than little boys, but the young males have to put up with a he-man concept on the part of their parents, she said.

They are told that they cannot be afraid of the dark, she continued, when they have a right to be afraid.

Urging that boys and girls be separated in school during the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, Dr. Ryan asserted the boys are severely handicapped there and not just because of the maturity gap.

"Most of the teachers are women and having been little girls, they understand little girls (or should). Not having been little boys, they are prone to think of them as little monsters," she continued.

The Boys' Clubs "provide an environment where a boy can be a boy without female dominence and interference," she concluded.

Planning Budget Is Due Discussion

The Marin County Planning Department budget will be discussed at a meeting of the Marin City-County Planning Council at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Civic Center.

The council will also review balanced transportation plans and elect officers.

Peninsula Bomb Plot Trial Put Off To June 30

REDWOOD CITY (UPI)—The trial of nine persons, arrested after a series of terrorist bombings on the San Francisco peninsula, was postponed yesterday because of a federal court order and the need for more time to argue pretrial motions.

Superior Court Judge Conrad Reisch granted the continuance until June 30 at the request of the prosecutor and with the agreement of eight defendants. Joseph Cooney, 49, a Menlo Park engineer who wanted to go on trial immediately, was overruled.

The suspects from the Palo Alto and Menlo Park areas were charged with 11 specific crimes in a 38-count grand jury indictment, including conspiracy and possession of explosives and weapons.

Dist. Atty. Walter Harrington said the delay was needed because of a federal court restraining order blocking prosecution for criminal syndicalism, one of the charges against the eight men and one woman.

The Twenty-second Amendment to the Constitution limits a president to two full terms or a total of 10 years, if he served part of another president's term.

Marin's Losing Quite A Swell Guy

I don't know about you guys, but I've got the feeling that we're running out of good guys around here. The white hatters seem to be getting fewer and fewer. The beads and the long hair and the sandals and all that garbage are becoming more and more prominent. Read the papers and you see words like pot and speed and grass more than homer or touchdown or basket. A picture of a broad in a double-breasted birthday suit gets an eight-column spread in staid ye olde I-J.

CAL RIEMCKE

And, looking at some of our schools I get the creepy feeling that the monkeys are taking over the zoo; the inmates are running the prisons.

Calvin Riemcke, as straight a shooter morally as you can find in the athletic world, has quit as head basketball coach at College of Marin to take a job at Spokane, Wash. Marin can't afford to lose men of his caliber. It's like Liberace losing a front tooth, a politician losing his larynx, a deflated Carol Doda. Imagine Willie Shoemaker without a horse, Willie McCovey sans bat.

And, being paid to be nosey, I asked him, simply, why coach, why?

'There Are Three Reasons'

"Well, there are three reasan," he said. "First, I have been offered this job at Whitworth which really interests me. It's a new and exciting challenge. I guess I have always harbored the desire to coach at a four-year school, to see how I could do with boys over four years rather than just two in junior college.

"My second reason is . . . well . . . I'd rather not make any comment for publication.

"Third, my family feels this is the right time for a move to a different environment. You know, the college atmosphere here isn't what it was four or five years ago. I wouldn't even consider the move I'm making now five years ago. Things have . . . well . . . they've just changed a lot. Heck, I'm no politician; I can't change the world. I'm a coach and I just want to teach young men the values of athletics."

Conditioned Like Marines

Riemcke will do well at Whitworth. Every inch of his angular frame is a winner. A strict disciplinarian, his teams are conditioned like combat Marines and often win games they should lose through sheer stamina.

In 12 years at Marin he has been through some brutal emotional gymnastics in championship competition yet has always retained his cool. In a profession that thinks composure is a song writer and where emotions run as wild as an Italian family reunion, Mr. Riemcke is Mr. Iceman. While some coaches chew towels, scream and do the Ghandi Dance along the sidelines, Riemcke sits there like he's watching the consolation semifinals of a Sausalito Patty-Cake Tournament. Yet, he admits to "dying inside."

Recalls His 'Best' Teams

Looking back over his 12 years here, Cal rates his first team of 1957-58 and the 1964-65 unit as perhaps his best quintets. That 57-58 team featured Stan Wells, Don and Dick Johnson, Larry Fulton and Claude Curley. The headliners in 1964-65 were Jay Johnson, Brad Busch, Jim Halm, Fred Arnold and Bill Brody.

"The team that did the most with the least," he recalled, "was the 1961 team that placed third in the state tournament. Our tallest player at 6-1 was Ron Blum."

Riemcke refused to single out any individual player as "best" because, he said, "I've had just too many."

I know his many friends and admirers here will sorely miss this truly outstanding coach. He is one of the few men in his profession I know who would rather send a young man to church than to the winner's circle, who places morals and ethics and good old-fashioned sportsmanship above almighty victory . . . yet has achieved all of those goals in a magnificent fulfillment of a coach's dream.

And so, the white hatters are getting scarcer and scarcer.

But then, there's always the monkeys . . . the inmates . . .

Riemcke Leaving College Of Marin

Cal Riemcke, head basketball coach at College of Marin for the past 12 years, has submitted his resignation to accept a similar position at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., it was announced today.

One of the most successful junior college coaches in California, Riemcke said he will assume his duties at Whitworth, a Presbyterian college, in September. Besides basketball, he will coach golf in the spring and serve as assistant professor in the physical education department.

WISH HIM WELL

Harry Pieper, director of athletics at Marin, said: "We accept Cal's resignation with reluctance because he has done an outstanding job of teaching the skills of basketball but, more important, has been a tremendous builder of fine young men. Marin County is losing a fine person and we wish him well at Whitworth." (For Reimcke's comments, see Jim Gilmartin's column.)

Pieper also announced the promotion of assistant basketball coach John Panagakis, 32, to succeed Riemcke. Panagakis, former Novato High School coach, has been Riemcke's assistant for the past three years.

At Whitworth, Riemcke will succeed Dick Kamm who has retired from coaching. Whitworth is a four-year school and a member of the Evergreen Conference.

199-136 RECORD

At Marin, Riemcke's teams won 199 games and lost 136 in competition against the toughest teams in the state. In 12 years Riemcke's Tars won seven Golden Valley Conference championships, winning two divisional titles and competing in the state playoffs six times. His 1961 team placed third in the state tournament.

He is currently president of the California Junior College Coaches Association. A graduate of University of California at Berkeley, Riemcke starred in basketball for the Bears and later for the Oakland Bittners in top-flight Amateur Athletic Union competition.

FROM OXNARD

Riemcke came to Marin in 1957 from a coachig job at Oxnard High in Ventura County where he had established that school as a basketball power.

Coming to Marin he succeeded Irwin "Red" Diamond who in 10 years as head of Tar cagers won one national junior college championship in 1948 (his first season), and five conference titles.

Big shoes to fill, but Riemcke was up to the task as his conference records indicate. The total of 136 losses is deceiving because Riemcke always scheduled the toughest non-conference foes possible to get his teams ready for league competition. None of his teams ever finished lower than third place in conference play.

Riemcke, 42, his wife, Eileen and their three daughters, Robin, 16, Karen, 12, and Sandra, 8, will remain at their San Anselmo home until they move to Spokane in August.

Tar Nine Defeats Leaders

College of Marin's baseball team moved to within a game of first place in the Camino Norte Conference by knocking off front-running DeAnza of Cupertino 11-9 at Albert Field in San Rafael yesterday.

The win gave the Tars a 12-5 record with three games left. They'll go after win No. 13 against Contra Costa of Richmond at Albert Field 8 o'clock tonight.

Mike Terry, who pitched out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam in the first inning, gave up just six hits but a seven-run DeAnza outburst, helped by four Tars' errors very nearly derailed him in the fourth inning.

4-0 LEAD

The Tars jumped off to a 4-0 lead in the first inning, with Dan Obrantz providing the big blow, a three-run double.

With DeAnza leading 8-7 in the sixth inning, Marin put it away with a four-run inning. Jeff Paquette and Steve Lebeck with run-scoring singles and Obrantz with a two-run single did the damage. Obrantz had five runs batted in for the game.

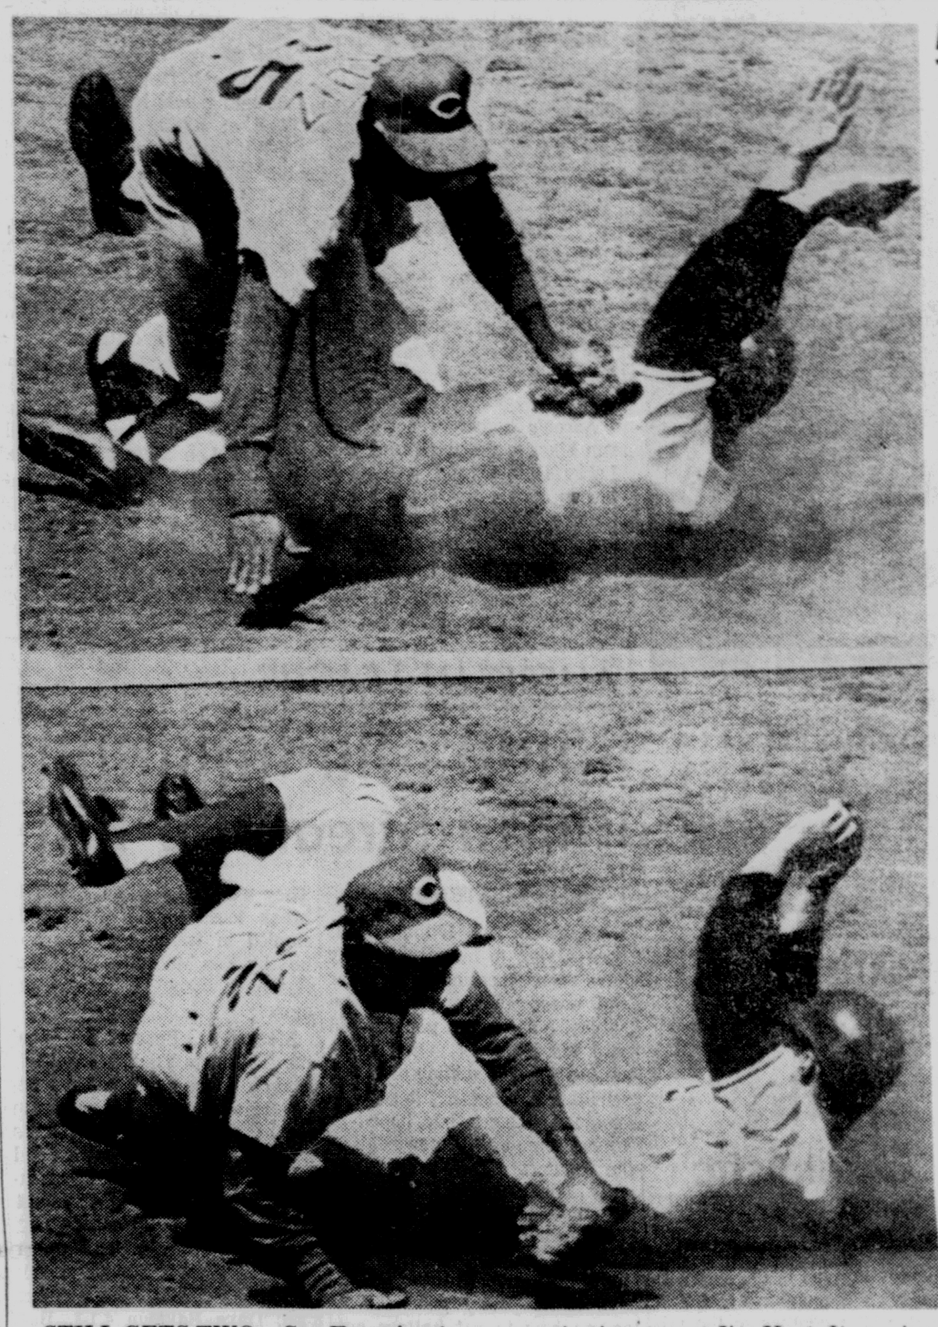
On Disabled List

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Southpaw Billy McCool's sore shoulder has forced the San Diego Padres' hurler to the disabled list.



STILL GETS TWO—San Francisco's Jack Hiatt upends Cincinnati's Chico Ruiz in an attempt to break up a double play, but Ruiz' throw to first was in time to get Jim Hart. It was in the third inning of yesterday's game, won by the Giant's, 4-3. (UPI Telephotos)

NFL ROOKIE AT 27

Staubach With Cowboys

DALLAS (AP) — Maybe 27 isn't the ideal age to start out as a National Football League rookie. But Roger Staubach says he's stronger than he was at the Naval Academy when he was running defensive backs crazy.

Staubach signed an option contract with the Dallas Cowboys in 1965 shortly after graduation. He served in Vietnam and currently is at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla. He gets his release from the Navy in July.

AT CAMP

The rifle-armed former Heisman Trophy winner is spending two weeks of leave at the Cowboys' quarterback camp with veterans Don Meredith and Craig Morton.

"I honestly feel in better shape right now than I did when I was in college," said Staubach after the day of drills.

"I feel I'm throwing stronger. I'm a little older and a little wiser. But mentally I have a lot of catching up to do."

Staubach worked out with Dallas last summer and Coach Tom Landry noted at the time, "He has NFL ability."

"I'm just thankful for a chance to compete," he said. "Dallas has fine quarterbacking. My big problem is just making the football team."

There seems little doubt Staubach will make the team. The Cowboys are expected to trade their third quarterback—Jerry Rhome.

Staubach said he didn't think he would have any trouble learning to be a drop-back passer although he had to do a good deal of scrambling and rolling out in college.

San Rafael, Terra Linda Golfers Win

Chris Cardinal fired a 38 to lead San Rafael High School to a 213-215 Marin County Athletic League victory over Redwood High in a league golf doubleheader at Meadow Club in Fairfax.

The second meet was a squeaker too as Terra Linda upped its record to 5-2 with a tight 231-233 victory over Marin Catholic.

LEADOFF STAR

Bonds Hits, Runs In Giant Victory

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Willie Mays no longer is batting in the leadoff spot, but the San Francisco Giants don't mind it a bit — thanks to the run-scoring prowess of Bobby Bonds.

As a leadoff batter, Mays has reached first 14 times in 26 tries. Yesterday, however, Bonds opened the game with a leadoff homer and scored two other runs as the Giants nipped Cincinnati, 4-3, for their seventh straight victory.

BOLIN'S TURN

Bonds' base running binge gave him 17 runs in 19 games. He also stole his seventh base in as many attempts. Bonds' run-scoring ability is no fluke. He scored 55 times in 81 games as a rookie last year .

And Mays doesn't seem to mind batting in his customary No. 3 spot. His run-scoring single in the second inning gave him the distinction of hitting safely in all 15 games he has started.

HART HURT

On the bright side, however, Hart's replacement, Dave Marshall, cracked an eighth-inning single to keep his average among the National League leaders at .367.

After Bonds' 430-foot leadoff blast, the Giants added a first-inning run on Ron Hunt's single and Jim Davenport's walk with the bases loaded off loser Tony Cloninger, 0-3.

BONDS SCORES

Bonds walked and moved to third on an abortive pickoff play, scoring on Mays' single in the second. Bonds was safe on an error in the fourth and scored on Hunt's single.

Winner Gaylord Perry, 4-2, had a two-hit shutout entering the seventh. Tony Perez belted a leadoff homer, John Bench singled and Darrell Chaney hit a run-scoring double.

Perry struck out six and was aided by two doubleplays.

Celtics-Lakers Series Resumes

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, tested pressure cooker playoff veterans, rule a slight favorite to defeat the Los Angeles Lakers and square their best-of-7 series for the National Basketball Association championship tonight.

The Celtics, bidding for their 11th NBA title in 13 years since player-Coach Bill Russell joined the team as a rookie, are determined to make their home court advantage stand up and even the series at two games apiece.

Horses Get Last Test For Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The money value was a mere $16,200, a pittance in the sport of thoroughbred racing, but the prize was more—much more.

Eight 3-year-olds were to go to the post today in the Derby Trial Stakes, last of the major tests for Saturday's 95th running of the Kentucky Derby. One, two or three of them might earn a stake in America's most famous race.

Heading the field was the Cain Hoy Stable entry of Ack Ack and Never Bow, with Fleet Allied, Polar Traffic, Jim's Geld C., Rae Jet, Shiek of Bagdad and Indian Emerald completing the field for the one-mile trial.

Five Trial winners have gone on to wear the roses that signify the champion of the 1¼-mile Derby four days later, but it has been 11 years since a single horse won both races.

Willie Mays Is Really Student Of The Game

Willie Mays stood beside the batting cage watching the Dodgers in pre-game practice. It was the first visit of the season by the Giants to Dodger Stadium. The captain of the Giants was the only member of his team watching the Dodgers.

Mays paid particular attention whenever one of the new Dodger rookies stepped into the batting cage. There was Bill Russell, a rookie rightfielder; Bill Sudakis, a rookie third baseman, and Ted Sizemore, a rookie shortstop. A fourth rookie, Bill Grabarkewitz, had just been summoned from the Spokane farm team of the Dodgers and would join them for the second game of the two-game series against the Giants.

"I'VE NEVER seen any of these fellows hit before,' said Mays. "I'm just getting a line on them. You know, to see how and where they hit."

It was typical of Mays, a man of many baseball skills. The fans are well aware of Mays' own batting ability and his defensive talent in covering vast areas of centerfield. But Mays seldom is portrayed as the baseball student he is, constantly acquiring all the knowledge he can about every major league ball players.

"IT'S MY JOB," said Mays who later directed Bobby Bonds in right field and Jim Ray Hart in left field how to defense the Dodger rookies when they came to bat.

Mays also studied Dodger Stadium and commented: "I thought they moved the fences in 10 feet. They still look the same to me."

The captain of the Giants knew very well that the fences had not been moved. He knew home run distances had been trimmed by 10 feet when the Dodgers moved home plate 10 feet closer to the fences.

MAYS WAS JUST testing the background knowledge of baseball writers to whom he was talking. One of the veteran writers knew what Willie was doing and said:

"They moved home plate out 10 feet. It's only 80 feet to first base now."

Mays roared at that. He enjoys baseball jokes but is very serious when studying rookie batters of the opposition. It's the same way Mays studies a rookie pitcher he will have to face.

"I'm still learning," said Willie who will celebrate his 38th birthday next week — May 6.

BOWLING TIPS

By MARION LADEWIG

A deliberate and coordinated pushaway pays off in a smooth delivery. In the four-step delivery, the bowler should push the ball away from her body as the first step, with the right foot, is taken. They both move in unison and set up the entire action.

Aaron Moves Up On Homer List

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Hank Aaron is two up on Babe Ruth this season but he's still 202 behind the Babe in lifetime homers.

Aaron cracked his third homer of the season last night in Atlanta's 12-1 victory over the Houston Astros to pass former teammate Eddie Mathews and move into sixth place on the all-time homer list with 513.

Ruth holds the lifetime mark but the Babe gained ont this season, increasing his lifetime total from the long recognized figure of 714 to 715. A special committee studying old statistics recently uncovered another homer which Ruth previously hadn't been given credit for and the record will be officially changed at the end of the season.

OTHER ACTION

Elsewhere in the National League, Chicago nipped Philadelphia, 2-1 in 10 innings, St. Louis drubbed Pittsburgh, 6-2, Los Angeles edged San Diego, 4-3, and San Francisco topped Cincinnati, 4-3.

Aaron's homer was a three-run blast in the third inning off Larry Dierker and he doubled to cap a four-run fourth inning. George Stone, 4-0, went seven innings to gain the victory.

Ron Santo Singled in a run in the 10th inning to give the Cubs the win over the Phils but the drama was packed into the last of the 10th when the Phils loaded the bases against Ted Abernathy with the help of a throwing error by Randy preserve the win.

BASES-LOADED SINGLE

Joe Torre's bases-loaded single highlighted a three-run first inning that sparked the erratic Cardinals past the Pirates. Abernathy then retired the side on three straight grounders to Steve Carlton pitched a four-hitter for the Cards. The Cards had 11 hits off loser Bob Moose and three other pitchers with Lou Brock, Curt Flood, Vada Pinson and Tim McCarver each collecting two. If they keep that kind of hitting up, the Cards won't have many problems in the future.

MISTAKE

Surprising Senators Hike Streak To Five

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Whatever Ted Williams has been saying to his hitters, they have been repeating loudly over and over again the past five games, but how do you explain how Washington's relief pitchers have been sounding off?

Williams, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, had hoped to impart some of his knowledge to the Senators' hitters and apparently has succeeded as they have spoken up by hammering 39 runs for five consecutive victories.

But Manager Williams must have some pretty good ideas, too, on how to get batters out because his bullpen has not allowed a run in the last 35 2-3 innings he has called on it.

WIN NO. 5

The lessons worked well again last night as the Senators rolled up No. 5 by pasting Detroit 6-1 with Hank Allen driving in three runs and Dick Bosman posting fourr scoreless innings in relief of winner Camilo Pascual.

While the Senators were sounding off again, the Boston Red Sox finally were silenced when Fritz Peterson of the New York Yankees stopped them on three hits for a 1-0 victory, the first time in 11 games the Sox haven't hit a homer.

Minnesota blanked Kansas City 4-0 as Jim Perry scattered seven hits in the only afternoon game in a schedule curtailed by rain. Baltimore's game at Cleveland and the California contest at Seattle were washed out at night.

TWO IN FIRST

The Senators, who had managed only 25 runs in 12 games before their victory streak, jumped on Earl Wilson for two runs in the first inning on Allen's run-scoring hit and a throwing error by Al Kaline. They waited until the eighth to break loose again when Allen singled in two more runs and hits by Ken McMullen and Paul Casanova brought home two more.

Meanwhile, Pascual had held the Tigers to Dick McAuliffe's lead-off homer in the first before leaving after five innings in the 43 degree weather. That's when Bosman took over and blanked Detroit the final four innings, giving him 8⅔ shutout innings in the bullpen spree.

Dennis Higgins has nien scoreless innings of the streak that began April 19, Casey Cox 3 2-3, Dave Baldwin 4 1-3, Bob Humphreys and Jim Miles two each and Joe Coleman one.

Twenty-three of those resounding 35 2-3 innings have come in the last five games, which have, lo and behold, lifted Washington's once shy violets of the American League over the .500 mark and ahead of the mighty Tigers into fourth place in the East Division, only 3½ games behind leading Baltimore.

RECORDS

The Red Sox had broken records with 26 homers in 10 consecutive games and 27 in 11 before running into Peterson, 3-2, who pitched the first complete game victory and the first shutout against them all season.

The run he needed came in the sixth with one out when Bobby Murcer lined the third hit off rookie Ray Jarvis, 1-1, making his first major league start, and Roy White doubled him home. The victory boosted the Yankees into second place, ahead of Boston and 2½ lengths back of the Orioles.

Perry, starting only because rookie Tom Hall was delayed returning from military reserve duty in North Carolina, also coasted in after Killebrew's sacrifice fly in the first inning and Rich Reese's three-run homer in the fourth. The victory gave the Twins a one game lead over Oakland in the West Division.

Esposito, who successfully escaped the tag as Bobby Hull's helper after coming to the Bruins two season ago, was one of four NHL stars honored yesterday for outstanding effort during the 1968-69 season.

NORRIS TROPHY

Bobby Orr, a teammate of Esposito's, was awarded the James Norris Trophy as the league's outstanding defenseman, Danny Grant of the Minnesota North Stars received the Calder Trophy as Rookie of the Year and Alex Delvecchio of the Detroit Red Wings won the Lady Byng Trophy for best combining sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct with a high standard of playing ability.

Jaycees Back To Losing Ways

The San Rafael Jaycees sunk back into their losing groove yesterday as the bowed to Cal's Steakhouse, 9-0, in a San Rafael Parks and Recreation 16-inch slow pitch softball game at Albert Field.

In other games Cliff's Chevron topped Wrights Richfield, 8-0, on John Reichard's two-hitter and three runs batted in. In a C-II game, it was Hiller's Men's Store, 10, Marin Supply 3, as Speedy Griggs had two triples and a single for the winners.

FISH AND GAME

By AL GIDDINGS

$10 Reward Offered For Capture Of Fish

The Department of Fish and Game has started the biggest striped bass tagging program ever undertaken in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, during the spawning runs there from April 1 through mid-June.

The primary purpose is to estimate size of the adult bass population and the total catch. Anglers who catch a tagged fish should tell the Department of Fish and Game where they caught the fish and whether they were fishing from a party boat, private boat or shore.

To help stimulate returns, the Department of Fish and Game is offering rewards from $2 to $10 for the return of 3,000 of these tags. Reward is $10 on 1,000 of the tags.

THE OTHER DAY Joe Mello caught a three-pound bass that was tagged so he gave me the tag. He didn't see the $2 reward sign. Easiest two bucks I ever made. Neither of us read the tag carefully and now 10 days later, I notice it reads $2 reward.

In court not long ago, two young fellows dressed with beads, ear rings, etc., were given their choice of $50 fines or five days working their sentences off for attempting to spear fish. As they came out of the court, they asked me if they could get eight other friends who they were living with to help them work it out, thereby finishing off their sentences in one day. This may be the meaning of true love from the hippie code.

THE CLAM quarantine is effective May 1 this year. I remember going clamming with a friend and we each dug a limit and took them home. I ate mine the first day, but my friend called me three days later and asked me over. I went and upon arrival, he wanted me to fix up his clams and fry them for lunch . Clams three days old didn't sound so good, but I fixed them and when he said they were fine, I ate some too.

A little later we drove to San Rafael. He went up to the court house and I went down to the Western Sport Shop. About a half hour later a deputy sheriff came running in and said that may friend had been taken to the hospital for clam poisoning. He asked if I felt sick? I began turning green remembering how much I had eaten and I knew I could also feel the pains. He rushed me to the hospital.

They were pumping my friends stomach, but the nurse gave me a box of salt and put me in the back room to drink warm water mixed with salt. This causes a cleansing action! After two hours I felt I would make it. About this time the nurse came over and said my friends had something else the matter; it wasn't the clams after all! So—eat fresh clams from an unpolluted area. Don't eat any black parts after cleaning and washing. Don't eat cockles. And you won't have to worry!

SCOTTY MENDOZA of Point Reyes came by today and said that she had caught two "great big" salmon. I asked her how big they were and she said they were both 22 inches long. I hope so! (The minimum size limit is 22 inches.)

Bill Christiansen of Point Reyes Station, Bill Marshall of Inverness and I were talking about black bass fishing. Christiansen was telling about his tackle box which contained about 20 black bass lures. A casual listener at the coffee shop came over and introduced himself as Larry Mayer the outdoor editor of the Asheville Citizen, a newspaper in North Carolina. He said he lived over 500 miles from salt water, so had to write most of his columns on black bass. To prove his point, he took us out to his car and showed us his tackle box. It had 390 compartments, each one with a black bass lure.

OVER THE WEEKEND at San Pablo Bay out of Bucks Landing, 16 boats had seven sturgeon. Manny and Maizie Martin have the new boat taking two of the prizes. One weighed 58 pounds and the other 45.

A few small bass and flounders were taken also. A few people have been fooled thinking they have a big sturegon on, and it turns out to be a stinger that weighs nearly 100 pounds. So don't get too happy until you've seen the whites of its eyes.

Down at the Marin Rod and Gun Club pier , nine bass or more were landed last week. Most were caught by trolling.

How does one troll a pier? You hike up and down with a bugeye or a spoon hung over the side of the pier in the water below along the pilings. Boy, when you get a hit here you know it!

Frank Spence of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, keeper of the pier, says to, "come down, it's not even crowded yet." Early in the mornings are best times.

Nicasio Lake good for bass or bluegill. I saw four women catch blue gills at the rate of one per minute. Salmon fishing in Sausalito perking along great if it's not windy.

Narco Is Good Buy At Present

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I am in a position to speculate with a few thousand dollars, the loss of which would be harmless. Have you any suggestions? — C.R.

A. Under these conditions, speculation is justified so long as it is based on knowledge. Jumping into a stock on a rumor is always poor business, and the odds are heavily stacked against you. Narco Scientific Industries is a particularly interesting situation with excellent upside potential. While these shares are perhaps less of a specualtion than you had in mind, they are backed by good earnings and a solid product line.

The company, formerly National Aeronautical Corp., has branched out from its original concentration on avionic products into medical electronics, marine electronics and controlled environment. Acquisitions have been largely responsible for Narco's expanded product base. The most recent acquisition, McKesson Co., manufactures a well-respected line of dental and hospital anesthetic and analgesic equipment and compressors.

Prior to this take-over, medical products accounted for 26 per cent of sales but may now increase to about 32 per cent. The company's Air Shields subsidiary is known throughout the world as the maker of Isolettes, miniature regulated environments for infants. A line of intensive-care equipment and systems for use in handling premature infants and cardiac patients has been introduced.

Narco Avionics marketed four major new products last year and an important navigational aid for the private airplane will soon be available at one-fourth the cost of an existing competitive product.

Wall Street Chalks Up Solid Advances

The UPI stock market indicator was up 0.58 per cent. Of the 1,577 issues on the tape, 876 advanced and 473 declined.

The news background lacked outstanding developments. The steady flow of generally improved first quarter corporate reports still was a major bright spot for traders.

Electonics showed scattered strength, with RCA, General Electric, Burroughs, IBM, Control Data, and Scientific Data among the point-plus gainers. Xerox, which hiked its dividend, also firmed.

General Motors was on the uptrack in its group although strikes at several GM assembly plants were expected to last for some time and possibly cut production schedules.

American Motors, which announced plans to add about 200 new dealerships over the next 12 months, also gained.

Pennzoil and Amerada were firmer oil issues, while a few airlines and aircrafts racked up point-sized advances for no new apparent reason.

Deadline Reset On Securities

The California Commissioner of Corporations has extended the deadline for qualifying securities for over-the-counter trading by securities brokers from May 1 to June 10.

Securities of foreign issuers (those organized outside the United States) are exempt from qualification until Aug. 28.

The new California securities law effective Jan. 2 requires that securities which are to be traded over-the-counter in California be qualified with the commissioner's office. The responsibility for qualifying is primarily that of the company issuing the securities but any securities broker or securities holder may qualify them by filing the required form.

ICC Declines Ruling In Goodyear Appeal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Interstate Commerce Commission has ruled itself out of the battle by B. F. Goodrich Co. to prevent a takeover by Northwest Industries Inc., a holding company which owns the Chicago and North Western Railway. The ICC said it had no power to rule on a petition by Goodrich that the commission approve any securities issued by Northwest in its tender offer for Goodrich. The ICC said Goodrich hadn't shown the securities would affect the ability of Northwest to keep up transportation service.

'Black Power' Success Creating New Schisms

It was bound to happen.

When black students began demanding separate departments of black studies, and black citizens insisted on special treatment based on race, humorists soon got into the act suggesting that there be separate departments of Irish studies, urging 'Italian power," etc. This was satire. But white minority groups have now begun in earnest to imitate the "black power" tactics, according to a story last Thursday in the Wall Street Journal.

It quoted John Pankuch, president of the 30,000-member National Slovak Society, as saying:

"Naturally, there's bitter feeling on the part of white ethnics toward Negroes. But perhaps if the ethnics begin to speak as one voice, maybe somebody will pay attention to us as well as them."

PANKUCH AND OTHERS who think the same way are seeking to amalgamate the efforts of the host of organizations of Americans of various national backgrounds, to win special representation — and federal money. According to the Wall Street Journal, the drive is being directed by the National Confederation of American Ethnic Groups, which claims 18.6 million members in 67 loosely affiliated organizations.

America, the "melting pot," has always had plenty of such organizations. Their members are good Americans, but also proud of their ancestral lands.

Twenty-five such associations are listed in the World Almanac, ranging from the Order of Ahepa through the Sons of Norway, the Order of Scottish Clans, and the Steuben Society.

Neither the 25 listed in the almanac nor the 67 affiliated with the national confederation make up a complete list. There are hundreds of clubs based on ancestral nationality. Locally we have the Sons of Italy and the Uniao Portuguesa en Estado da California, among others.

ALTHOUGH IT IS common for political candidates to seek endorsements from these groups, in the belief (probably mistaken) that the members vote as a bloc, seldom have Greek-Americans, Portuguese-Americans, Swedish-Americans or whatever attempted to win any special treatment based on ethnic background. They have considered themselves Americans. The ties to "the old country" have been ties of sentiment only.

That many of them would now seriously consider agitating for special treatment on the basis of their foreign backgrounds indicates how deeply and sadly the American nation has been wounded by the separatist black agitation and the well-intentioned but dangerous yielding to it by a conscience-nagged "establishment," particularly in the colleges and universities.

WE HAVE POINTED before in this column to the violation of American principles involved in separatism.

All such movements create schisms within our society which can be fatal to participatory democracy. And, according to the Wall Street Journal report, the current "ethnic" movements are being supported and promoted by the same leaders responsible for much of the current strife between blacks and whites: sociologists at university-supported research centers.

The Legislator As Lawyer: Interest Conflict For Bagley?

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

Legislators naturally give a broad interpretation to what would constitute a conflict of interest between their legislative and business roles, and Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is no exception.

According to information furnished us, Bagley attempted to influence several members of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission to approve an application for a fill permit that was filed by a firm represented by his law firm.

BAGLEY READILY acknowledged the information was correct, but said he saw no conflict of interest in his attempts. "I didn't lean on them or try to pressure them — I just said we were representing a client before them, and that we would be interested in a favorable action," he told us.

Of the five votes that were cast for the permit application, three appeared to have some possible relationship to Bagley. Asked how many commissioners he contacted, Bagley said three.

But the only one he was willing to identify was Edward J. Slevin of San Rafael, an appointee to the commission by the Senate Rules Committee. Slevin's proxy, Edward J. Charbonneau of Greenbrae, voted for the permit.

Asked who the other two were, Bagley said he would "hate to use the names of state guys." The two state officials who voted for tht permit were F. J. Hortig, executive officer of the State Lands Commission and proxy for Bagley's close friend Houston I. Flournoy, and Edmond C. Baume, proxy for State Planning Officer Robert L. Harkness.

IN ADDITION to the three commissioners Bagley conceded he had talked to, he said he also asked Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, for some help. The help almost came when McCarthy's legislative aide made a virtually unprecedented appearance at the commission's hearing on the permit the week before last, but only then did he find out that the legislative members of the commission have no vote.

"There was nothing untoward," Bagley said of his efforts. "All I did was represent a client."

But he conceded that "practically speaking" there was a difference between a state official being asked to do something by a legislator and being asked by an ordinary attorney who does not have the privilege of using his influence for personal benefit.

AS IT HAPPENED, Bagley's efforts were utterly futile, since the commission voted overwhelmingly to reject the permit, which was sought by Sausalito Associates for a $25 million high-rise development in Richardson Bay.

This all serves to demonstrate the ineffectiveness of the legislature's conflict of interest rule. And since the present meaningless rules prove so convenient to the legislators, the prospect of making it significantly tougher is more than remote.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Poisons Compound Own Problems

The picture of tent caterpillars in Tuesday's (April 22) I-J had below it, a caption, quite in tune with the stupidity of our times. Birds, which used to control such outbreaks, have been reduced in numbers by the use of sprays, and the unthinking man answers the unbalance which he has created by further damaging his environment.

Fortunately, the time is not too far off when we will eliminate ourselves, so any life that can survive our intentional and unintentional fouling of our planet, air, land and water may find living easy again in a few thousands years after the poisons all decay.

Unitarians Shun Dogmatic Belief

I am delighted that you publish articles on the different religious faiths on your Saturday church page, including the one on Unitarianism last Saturday. These articles can help, to some extent, to create more understanding between the different churches.

There is one statement in your article on Unitarianism, however, which is incorrect. It states that about two thirds of its members are atheists. This is not true. It is true that Unitarians have complete freedom of belief, and thus one has the freedom as a Unitarian to be an atheist, and some indeed are. The majority of the two thirds, however, would be better described as agnostics. An atheist denies the existence of God, which can be a pretty dogmatic belief. Most Unitarians shun any dogmatic belief, and thus they prefer to take the agnostic position which leaves the possibility of the existence of God open without claiming to have the final answer or understanding. This is what is characteristic of Unitarians: to seek the truth in freedom, but never to presume that the truths we know are necessarily the final or ultimate truths.

Teacher Takes Pessimistic View

Dear Student of 1970 in the Public Schools: You wonder why there are all new teachers this year? You wonder why you can no longer work at your own rate and level? You say it is boring sitting in these straight, crowded rows hour after hour? You say you think its like being in the army marching to and from the room? You are wondering why you have to sit and wait until everyone is finished before you can go on to the next lesson?

You think it isn't fair never to have a chance to share your ideas or feelings? You miss being treated like a human being? You don't know what the "F" means on your paper? Why that means that you have failed. But you tried to do your very best? Sorry, it is forbidden not to get all the test questions answered correctly. There must be a grade for the report card. It is forbidden not to know exactly where you are in your school work.

You wonder why the whole class of 35 is reading from the same basic reader at the same time? Why it is forbidden to read any other book because we must hurry and cover all the books from the planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum this year.

You are wondering why you have to work five pages of long division when you know how to divide when you tried it last year? Why, it is forbidden not to finish all the problems on all the pages in the planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum.

You are wondering why you cannot watch the experiment on television or see the film on the discovery of California? Sorry, they might be cartoons and cartoons are forbidden.

You don't see why we don't take any study tours anymore? Sorry, a study tour is not in the three R's curriculum.

You say you had an argument with your friend and you think you can solve the problem if you could only talk to him with the help of a teacher? Sorry, that's called sensitivity training and that is forbidden.

You wonder why there aren't any live animals in the school this year? Why, I heard that last year the fish had babies and that's called sex education and that is forbidden.

You wonder why you cannot use the tape recorder to practice on your reading and speech? Sorry, that is frivolius experimenting with education and it cannot be evaluated. It is forbidden.

You wonder why Lou Ann is 12 years old and still in the second grade? Well, she can't pass all the tests from the planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum and she must stay until she does.

You say you think the world is round? Be careful in that kind of thinking. You know it is forbidden. We may be allowed to learn about the automobile age if we are good this year. And just think, after a full week of our planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum you won't have to ask any more questions. See you tomorrow, little robot.

Bouquet Due For Students' Aid

I want to propose that you award one of the Independent-Journal's finest "'bouquets" to the students of Edna Maguire School for their selfless response to the need of the starving children of Biafra.

They put in much effort and many of their after-school hours selling enough candy bars to earn $12.00.

For others who may want to follow this good lead of the teen-agers, one minor correction should be noted if you will: the name of the relief agency for which I received half of the amount raised is Church World Service.

TVA, The Grand Experiment, Has Become Model For World

DECATUR, Ala. — A big piece of the excitement at the start of a new administration 33 years ago was the Tennessee Valley Authority, which under the tutelage of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Sen. George Norris began the rehabilitation of a region plagued by all the ills of poverty.

Today most Americans take TVA for granted as a piece of political archaeology out of the New Deal age, a job finished that can be put away in the files.

A tour of the region shows TVA to be very much alive and expanding, performing services for the seven states, with beneficial consequences for most of the rest of the country and with an impact on every part of the world. It is America's outstanding example of what can be done in a partnership between government and private enterprise, which is why each year some 600 foreign visitors come to study this successful adventure in planning for a whole region and its river system.

TVA, at its inception as a New Deal agency, was regarded by Republicans as a diabolical device to inflict socialism on the nation. They fought it tooth and toenail in Congress and the courts.

When Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower became President in 1953 he cherished the conviction that this experiment in socialism, as he saw it, must somehow be restrained. He appointed another retired general, Herbert D. Vogel, to be one of TVA's three directors. But Vogel, after a thorough examination of the authority and its works, became more Catholic than the pope — that is, more pro-TVA than some of the Democratic appointees to the board.

Now TVA is subject to the ministrations of a second Republican president. In the interval, however, a lot has changed. That was evident during Richard M. Nixon's campaign in Tennessee last September.

Nixon asked chairman A. J. Wagner of TVA's board this question:

"Do you think that TVA could be helpful in furthering the effort to control air and water pollution?"

WITH MORE extensive practical work as well as research on water pollution than any other agency in the country, and with extensive studies in air pollution growing out of TVA's own steam plants, this is just what TVA is doing today.

At the National Fertilizer Development Center in nearby Muscle Shoals the partnership between government and private enterprise is seen in its most flourishing form. Growing out of the original commitment to create nitrates for soil improvement, the center has developed new and far more potent fertilizers. Each new development is patented by TVA and then the process is made available to commercial companies free of charge.

TVA WOULD not be TVA without a lusty scrap in Congress relating to progress. The latest has been touched off by conservationists — preservationists might be a more accurate word — accusing the authority of spoiling the landscape for yet another dam.

No less an old-time New Dealer than Justice William O. Douglas has ridden into the lists to charge that, by building a dam on the Little Tennessee, TVA is ruining one of the nation's finest trout streams, desecrating the former hunting grounds of the Cherokee Indians, and blotting out a fine piece of scenery.

Chairman Wagner replies that the lake created will have its own beauty and, for more important, the development will provide employment and an attractive way of life for several thousand families who now have a marginal life.

"The work of TVA will never be over," John F. Kennedy said in a speech on TVA's 30th anniversary, only a few months before his assassination. "There will always be new frontiers for it to conquer in the minds of men the world over."

SEATO, Beset By Failure, Appears Headed For Doom

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization may be heading toward an early demise after 15 ineffective years.

SEATO had its birth on Sept. 8, 1954, in Manila, another link in a global chain being forged by the late Secy. of State John Foster Dulles to contain aggressive communism.

THE YEARS preceding had been turbulent ones.

Mao Tse-tung had taken over the Chinese mainland. There had been the war in Korea, the French defeat at Dien Bien Phu and a rising tide of Communist terrorism in the Philippines and Malaysia.

In the wake of these events the United States, Britain, France, Pakistan, the Philippines, New Zealand, Thailand and Australia joined in a defensive pact which was to extend the umbrella of its protection over the whole of Southeast Asia.

France never did participate actively in the pact and for the past two years has been boycotting the ministerial meetings. Pakistan has been sending an ambassador instead of its foreign minister as evidence of its displeasure over lack of support from its partners in its border war with India in 1966.

Britain is in the process of withdrawing its forces from east of Suez and can no longer be an effective member.

THIS YEAR'S council meeting, which Philippine Foreign Minister Carlos P. Romulo has described as "crucial" to its future is to be held in Bangkok May 20 and 21.

Next year's meeting is slated to be held in a western capital but none yet has offered to be host.

"Perhaps none wants to be the site of the funeral of SEATO," remarked one diplomat, more than half seriously.

The "unanimity" clause prevented SEATO action in Vietnam and the United States, Thailand, New Zealand, Australia and the Philippines went into it on their own.

MOST CONCERNED over SEATO's future and worried by increasing anti-war sentiment in the United States is Thailand.

UPI Correspondent Kim Willenson in Bangkok reports that when Secretary of State William P. Rogers arrives for the May meeting he will be greeted by what appears to be a twoheaded Thailand foreign policy.

The Thais did not favor the cessation of bombing over North Vietnam and will urge that it be resumed in a search for military victory.

The Thais never did believe in the workability of Laotian neutrality and have seen their fears amply justified in the flow of communist men and supplies down the Ho Chi Minh trail.

They fully believe they are the next Communist target.

BUT FEARS of the future course to be taken by the United States also have led them to look for alternatives.

Therefore Rogers may be told the Thais are thinking of increasing their relations and especially their trade with Russia and the East European Communist nations and also of exploring the possibilities of negotiating with Red China.

These are among the conflicts of interest which could or it could just fade away.

Generation Gap Short But Deep When You Visit Alma Mater

The idea that the so-called "generation gap" applies only to those past middle age is clearly a myth, most young adults would report after returning to their alma mater as shortly as four years after graduation.

Perhaps the old administration building stands as rigid and pigeon-splattered as usual and the kindly old dean who was your confidant still religiously keeps his office hours, but both the building and your favorite dean may well be under siege.

FOND MEMORIES of college years that involved such important matters as football games, fraternity parties and grade point averages cannot be rekindled by a return visit. Certainly, football games are still played and fraternities still go through the motions of rush and hell week, but the spirit that prevailed on campus not that long ago has all but vanished.

The new students, perhaps with good reason, contend that they are more concerned with problems of society and relevant matters than with self-centered activities.

Members of the Black Students Union roam the campus selling the latest edition of the Black Panther newspaper. "Buy a paper and help support the Panther free breakfast program," they say, in a manner which conveys the threat that if you don't come up with 25 cents you'll be labeled as a bigot.

In the old cafeteria, where something called microbiotic rice has replace the hamburger as the most popular menu item, students no longer care who is sitting with whom, but instead hear a poet dramatically recite his latest work.

The shiny new sports cars that were once the optimum in status symbols have been replaced by the grubbiest of buses. The expensive coats with labels that had to pass sorority standards have been replaced with army surplus stock. "No one cares what you look like — we just care what kind of person you are," they say piously.

THE PROUD alumnus returning to the campus to give the kids a look at where old dad went to school has vanished from the scene, along with the usual contribution to the alumni association. "Why should I donate my hard-earned money to support those good-for-nothings?" he says, totally unconvinced they have any worth.

One of the few characteristics shared by both present and former students is inflexibility. Neither will bend enough to understand the other.

Larkspur Police Chief Position Is Now Filled

Corte Madera police inspector Harold N. Hockett announced today that he has accepted the post of Lakeport police chief and will take over his new duties May 15.

Hockett has been with the Corte Madera police since 1956. He first worked as deputy chief of San Francisco City College campus police and, during that time, had a part-time job for seven months with the Larkspur police.

From there he started at Corte Madera as patrolman, became investigator in 1957 and was appointed inspector about two years later. Hockett is married and he and his wife, Loretta, have a duaghter, Nathalie, who is a student at San Jose State College.

Hockett will be in charge of a force of one sergeant and four patrolmen in the Lake County community. Presently earning $884 monthly, he would not disclose his new salary.

Driving Course To Begin Monday

A defensive driving course for older drivers will start next Monday at 10 a.m. at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael, 9 Ross Valley Drive.

The course to run for four consecutive Mondays is open to all persons 55 years of age and older and will be conducted by instructors certified by the National Safety Council.

The course is sponsored by San Rafael Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons. Those interested in enrolling may notify John C. Uhte of 51 Bothin Road, Fairfax.

To Study Budget

The Bolinas-Stinson School District board will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. today at Bolinas School to discuss the 1969-70 budget and use of school buildings. The district last week canceled a proposed bond election for expanding Bolinas School because of current high bond interest rates.

Innocent Plea On Drug Count

Leonard Gilbert Nathan, 25, of Berkeley pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court to a charge of possessing marijuana for sale. A jury trial was set for the week of Aug. 18.

Nathan was stopped Dec. 14 when a California Highway Patrol officer noticed his car going too slowly on Highway 101.

Nathan was arrested when he gave false information about his birthdate, and a search of the car allegedly turned up hashish, marijuana and papers indicating Nathan was in the process of making deliveries of the narcotics.

What If Revolution Arrives And Nobody Comes To Party?

WASHINGTON — There is some question as to what role the communications media are playing in student unrest. Most of us like to think we're just reporting the events on college campuses, but there is a gnawing suspicion that our role may be one of participant rather than observer.

Have you ever wondered what might happen if the press and TV didn't show up at a student demonstration?

"Who was supposed to alert the TV stations?"

"I did alert them. I said we were going to lock ourselves in at noon. They said they were covering the flower show at the coliseum and they didn't have any cameras available."

"THAT'S A HELL of a note. It's just like the bourgeois, racist, capitalistic TV media to ignore the revolution. What do we do now?"

"Let's take the building anyway."

"What good will it do? There are no press photographers or newspapermen here either."

"Where are they?"

"I called up the papers and told them what we were going to do and they said they were too busy to cover another student takeover of a building. They said it wasn't news any more."

"DID YOU tell them we were going to tar and feather the dean of the law school?"

"Yeah, and they said to send them a press release on it."

"Where's the reporter from the school newspaper?"

"The school newspaper said they didn't have any student to spare for our demonstration, but they'd get a fill-in later from one of us."

"Boy, this isn't much fun. Hey, here comes a guy with a camera. Up against the wall! Up against the wall! The university is a fascist cesspool."

"I beg your pardon?"

"WHO ARE YOU shooting the film for, man?"

"My cinema class. Would you mind doing that again?"

"Get out of here."

"Somebody's got to come. What about the radio stations?"

"No dice. They said we could call in on their telephone talk show if we wanted to, but they're not sending anyone over."

"There's got to be some law that the press has to cover a student riot."

"If I had known nobody was going to be here, I wouldn't have missed my lunch hour."

"I want to read my speech telling why we are taking over the law building."

"Who cares? You write it for the press. As long as they're not showing up, spare us."

"I SAY we should take over the law building anyway."

"What good will it do? Nobody will know we did it."

"It could keep us in practice."

"Why are you combing your hair?"

"Well, if nobody's going to take my picture, I might as well go to English class."

"Wait. Don't go. Let's make new demands to the administration."

"Such as?"

"It's the administration's responsibility to see that our student demonstrations are covered by the press and TV media, and if they don't provide adequate coverage the university has three hours to live."

"Let's hurry. I promised my parents I'd be on the Cronkite show tonight."

HOOKS SUITCASE IN BOMB SCARE

A member of the Toronto, Canada, bomb squad hooks a suitcase thought to contain a bomb at the Toronto-Dominion Center—a 54-story twin-tower unit in the downtown area. The suitcase, which weighed over 40 pounds, was found to contain only old clothes. The bomb scare began yesterday when a security guard picked it up and said he thought it was ticking. 14 Inmates Isolated As Stabbing Suspects

Fourteen San Quentin convicts have been placed in isolated segregation cells today as suspects in the three stabbing incidents at the prison in the last week.

Prison officials said that two whites are being held in connection with the fatal stabbing of a Negro, Jeff Cooper, 49, last Wednesday, that two Negroes are being held in connection with the stabbing of four white convicts last Friday and 10 whites are being held in connection with yesterday's fatal stabbing of two blacks, Calvin Bonner, 44, and Floyd Neal, 39.

Prison officials declined to release the names of the suspects.

At 8 a.m. this morning, prison officials, utilizing all available manpower, began an intensive cell-by-cell search for weapons. Prison officials said they hoped to have the search completed by late today.

In addition to security guards, personnel who usually work in the hospital, dental clinic and industrial areas are aiding the search.

"If they don't have any programs to run, they might as well be helping the guards," Associate Warden James L. Park said today.

Guards yesterday found more than half a dozen prison-made knives near the area where the two latest stabbing victims were found.

Park said that the 10 persons being held in connection with the latest stabbings "included anyone remotely connected to the case," noting that probably several would be released later as having nothing to do with the actual killings.

Planning Council Sets Election Of Officers

The City-County Planning Council of Marin will elect new officers Thursday night at its regular meeting at the Civic Center.

Chairman Douglas M. Merrill announced that the meeting is set for 8 o'clock in Room 426.

The council will try to determine how much pressure, if any, the county should exert in encouraging properties to be annexed to adjoining cities. The Novato City Council wants adjoining areas annexed before development plans are processed so that the city will have a voice in the planning of areas just outside the city limits.

Also on the agenda are a discussion of the planning department budget for 1969-70, the balanced transportation program, a committee to study tourism, the planning of housing programs for low-income and minority groups.

The city-county planning council is composed of representatives from the county board of supervisors, the county planning commission, and delegates from each city.

Innocent Plea To Cashing Of Checks

A jury trial was set for the week of Aug. 18 for Zola Mae Van Dolah, who was arrested Feb. 7 after she reportedly cashed a check stolen from the Atlas Paper Co. in San Francisco at the Emporium in Northgate.

Horse Care Class To Begin May 10

The Marin Humane Society will have its sixth annual horse care and instruction classes for six weeks starting May 10 at 9 a.m. at the society center, Bel Marin Keys Boulevard, Ignacio.

The classes, open to all interested persons at no charge, will continue on Saturdays through June 14. Registration can be through the society center office or at the beginning class.

UNCONSCIOUS STUDENT — Beverly Brian (left) tries to comfort unconscious College of Marin student Herschel Ferguson at Tamalpais Creek. Ferguson received a head cut yesterday when he was stopped by the job superintendent from pulling on a safety line attached to a tree trimmer high in a tree with a chain saw, and endangering the trimmer's life.

STUDENT BEING SUBDUED — Sheriff's deputies, following a struggle, pinned student Gary Stark of San Anselmo against a patrol car, then handcuffed him and took him to county jail. The student, booked on suspicion of battery and resisting arrest, was one of 38 persons arrested yesterday at the mass arrest in Kent Woodlands.

DeGaulle Backer Vows To Continue

PARIS (UPI) —Georges Pompidou, 57, announced today he will run for president to succeed Charles de Gaulle. He pledged to continue the Gaullist Fifth Republic — an indication he hoped to be a strong man president in the De Gaulle tradition.

Pompidou, the former premier, was fired by De Gaulle last summer but supported him in the Sunday referendum which De Gaulle lost.

Leftist and middle-of-the road politicians at once began hasty talks on candidates of their own to pit against Pompidou.

As the political infighting warmed up, fears of an immediate financial crisis eased although European banking circles forecast eventual devaluation of the franc.

The price of gold dropped from Monday's all-time record of $49.09 a fine ounce to $48.66. The U.S. price is $35.

The French franc, which slumped sharply yesterday, staged a small recovery. Financial sources said it was helped by buying of francs by the Bank of France and other central banks.

The price was 4.9710 for one U.S. dollar compared with 4.9735 yesterday.

Amid this more relaxed atmosphere the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (CGT), France's biggest labor organization, called for calm during the traditional May Day parades Thursday.

Pompidou was the first French politician to announce plans to run for the presidency. He pledged "stability" and continuation of the Gaullist Fifth Republic if elected.

Pompidou announced his candidacy in a brief statement from his Paris office. The steering committee of the group of Gaullist deputies in the National Assembly at once pledged unanimous support for Pompidou's bid.

Election Reform Plan Advances

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee approved 26 to 6 today a constitutional amendment that would provide for the direct, popular election of the president.

Before giving its support to the far-reaching change, the committee voted to delay its effective date until a year after ratification, making it unlikely to be in force by the 1972 election.

The amendment is the committee's response to widespread complaints about the current system touched off by the danger of an Electoral College deadlock in last year's election.

Sixteen Democrats and 12 Republicans provided the committee majority.

Aide Sees Victory For ABM

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spokesman for the Richard M. Nixon administration brushed aside today suggestions that the Safeguard antiballistic missile (ABM) program might be blocked by Senate opposition.

"The tide has turned," said Herbert G. Klein, the administration's director of communications. "The opposition has reached its peak, perhaps too early."

Klein said the administration has picked up support in the last few days and he predicted "a great victory for the President."

A poll of the Senate conducted by the Associated Press over the weekend showed 47 members opposed to the Safeguard program, 43 in favor and 10 uncommitted.

"We'll win easily in the House; it'll be a close vote in the Senate," Klein said.

Klein commented in an interview with the Columbia Broadcasting System.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford, of Michigan, said, meanwhile, that if all proposals advocated by critics of various military programs were adopted, the United States in effect would disarm itself.

Talking to newsmen at the White House following Nixon's weekly conference with GOP congressional leaders, Ford expressed concern about various calls by Congress members to scrap the antiballistic missile system, halt development of a new strategic bomber and end chemical and biological warfare programs.

If such ideas were put together in a package and adopted, the United States would find itself in the position it occupied before World War II when na-

Tamalpais Creek's Protectors Depart

THEY LIVE THERE

Two Are Against, Two Indifferent

Two of the four residents whose homes border the tiny, fought-over Tamalpais Creek in Kent Woodlands apparently are not opposed to the flood project at all.

"I think it's just as well to remain silent on these things," commented Mrs. John H. O'Neill of 10 Woodland Road yesterday. Then she shrugged her shoulders and said philosophically, "If it's to be here, it's here."

A woman who was walking into her home at 104 Goodhill Road, just a few feet from where the mass arrests took place yesterday, said she didn't wish her name to be used.

However, she said of the current demonstrations, "We're all very upset. It's not wise. It's not representative. I don't wish these pickets would come here or any of that . . . the settlement has been made . . . all these hippies, they don't belong in here."

The other two homeowners with property facing the creek oppose the project.

Mrs. Sam Hanzel of 100 Goodhill Road was one of those arrested yesterday and William R. Dixon of 25 Kent Avenue said, rather than a concrete ditch, he favors an underground drainage channel along Woodland Road.

There is no public access now to the controversial stretch of creek nor will there be when the project is complete, an Army Corps of Engineers spokesman said today.

Supervisors Vote Not To Halt Work

Marin County Board of Supervisors voted 3 to 2 this afternoon not to halt the concreting of Tamalpais Creek in Kent Woodlands, despite a last minute plea to save the creek.

Supervisor Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. moved for a one week's delay so that another public hearing could be held. He got a second from Supervisor Michael Wornum.

But the other three supervisors voted "no", because the contract for the flood control work is already let, and further delays could mean damage suits against the county.

County Administrator Alan Bruce warned that damages could amount to $175,000 on a short-term delay and could run into the millions with longer delay.

Crewmen Busy On Army Job

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Peace returned to tiny Tamalpais Creek in Kent Woodlands today.

Work on the Army Corps of Engineers project was resumed at 8 a.m. when a water pump was turned on at the Goodhill Road bridge, on which were sitting three long-haired hippie type college students.

At the other end of the block-long stretch of creek workmen were preparing to start clearing trees, sawn yesterday.

OFFICIAL RELIEVED

"Work is going on," said Paul Vredenburg, construction operations chief of the engineers, who seemed quite relieved that the crowds of yesterday had disappeared.

Today's scene was a peaceful contrast to yesterday's when 38 Kent Woodlands residents and College of Marin students confronted workmen in the creek bed and halted all work for more than half the day.

Following the 30 arrests made by sheriff's deputies in the morning, officers arrested eight more in the afternoon — mostly College of Marin students.

TREE EPISODE

Panel Votes To Keep Job Centers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate poverty subcommittee approved today on a party line vote a resolution calling on the Richard M. Nixon administration to suspend its plans to close down 59 Job Corps Centers.

The resolution, proposed by Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., is to go before the full Labor Committee tomorrow.

It is assured of approval there since all 10 Democrats on the committee, comprising the majority, are sponsors of it.

$30 Million Sale Of Building Bonds

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—State Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest today received an apparent low bid from a Bank of America syndicate on $30 million in state construction bonds.

The bid of 4.7820 per cent was the lowest of three submitted on the 15-year bonds, most of the proceeds of which are intended for college and university construction. Crocker - Citizens National Bank and Wells Fargo Bank were partners in the Bank of America syndicate.

Net interest cost to the state will be $12,696,315.

United California Bank submitted a bid of 4.78865 per cent, which would have cost the state $12,713,873, while the Banker's Trust Co. submitted a bid of 4.8355 per cent, or $12,838,293.

The three bids were in sharp contrast to the situation in March when $40 million in construction bonds went without bidders at the state's constitutional interest rate ceiling of five per cent.

Mrs. Priest said today's action "once again indicates the confidence and esteem in which California bonds are held. I'm very pleased to have these three fine bids. We're very pleased."

U.S. Launches Another Bomb Run Along Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command has launched another B52 bombing campaign to harass North Vietnamese troops in the jungles north of Saigon, military spokesmen reported today.

In a 24-hour period yesterday and today, 36 Stratofortresses dropped more than 1,000 tons of explosives on North Vietnamese bases in the enemy's War Zones C and D. The strikes ranged from 71 miles northwest of Saigon to 55 miles northeast of the capital. Some were within one and one-half miles of the Cambodian border.

Spokesmen said the bombing concentration in War Zone C is the heaviest of the war, with nearly 200 bombing raids flown along the Cambodian border in the past week.

The bulk of four North Vietnamese divisions is said to be concentrated in these two zones.

For the past four years, U.S. troops have battled enemy soldiers in the 2,000 uninhabited square miles of War Zone C, but all the fighting apparently has resolved nothing.

Two North Vietnamese divisions operating there have always been able to replace their losses from bases across the Cambodian border, using Zone C as a staging area for attacks into populated areas and allied bases to the southeast.

Sources said some captured

Treasury Chief Said Cutting Bank Ties

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wright Patman said today he is informed Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy has decided to divest himself of stock in the Continental Illinois Bank of Chicago.

The Texas Democrat, chairman of the House Banking Committee, had accused Kennedy of conflict of interest because of the stock ownership and what Patman said were other financial ties with the bank.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher called for Americans to exercise "reasoned love of America" to save the country from what he called "the haters of America."

Speaking yesterday before the Notre Dame Club, which presented him with an award honoring him as a "patriot, leader, and American," Bucher urged about 200 men to exercise leadership to counter the effects of agitators, particularly student demonstrators.

"It is a paradox that you who daily help to build this country have not always exercised your proper leadership in the rational type of patriotism that must save this country," he said.

"I have seen the haters of America, I have seen the enemy," Bucher said. "His idea of academic freedom is freedom of the academy to teach only his ideas."

"Our homegrown variety uses the same techniques. Force, not reason. They use intimidation. They instill the same fear. They can be stopped only by the positive patriotism of exemplary leadership that is willing to stand up and be counted," he said.

Bucher was steadfast in praise of his crew. "Every letter, every message, every photograph contained clues to the fact of our constant defiance. The crew retained their faith in their country and harassed their tormentors at every turn," he said.

NO LONGER STARVED — Pueblo skipper Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher, who has regained 40 pounds since being freed by the North Koreans, signs autographs in Chicago at a Notre Dame alumni dinner in his honor. He said last night he expects to remain in service even if reprimanded on the Pueblo seizure. (UPI Telephoto)

Pueblo Inquiry Raps Captive Conduct Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressmen probing the North Korean capture of the USS Pueblo say the code of conduct for captured American servicemen is really a code of confusion.

"Rather than stricter or looser the code should be clearer," said Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Armed Services Subcommittee investigating the capture of the Pueblo and its crewmen. "I certainly think the confusion yesterday made that manifest."

Pike referred to a parade of Pentagon officials who tried to explain the regulations governing the surrender of the Pueblo to the North Koreans and subsequent false confessions by crew members.

Committee members zeroed in on what they termed inconsistencies in the code's enforcement, vagueness on information the enemy can be supplied, and absence of guidelines for surrender of a ship.

Vice Adm. Charles K. Duncan, chief of naval personnel, described the code as a "professional and inspirational" guide that needs no revision at this time.

However, Rear Adm. Joseph B. McDevitt, the Navy's chief lawyer, said violators of the code technically can be prosecuted.

"But it is not the policy of the Navy to punish violation of the code," Duncan injected.

"On one hand they say the code is inspirational and professional," committee member G. William Whitehurst, R-Va., complained in an interview.

Senator Blasts Pentagon War Death Listing Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — An outspoken Senate critic of the Vietnam war says the Pentagon is hiding the real number of U.S. battle deaths from the public by claiming many are accidental.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, said many of the approximately 6,000 American deaths in Vietnam designated "accident or incident" should have been listed as battle fatalities.

Young, a member of the Armed Services Committee and an early critic of U.S. involvement in Vietnam, said concealing the true number of battle fatalities "is a clumsy effort to deceive the public about casualties in this most unpopular and undeclared war.

"The number of combat killed and wounded have become so great—only the world wars were more deadly in recent history—they are trying to hide it."

Young said he had found deaths often are termed "accidents" or "incidents" when they result from such things as the collision of helicopters during a firefight or when a truck driver loses control under fire and soldiers die in the wreck.

Water Receding

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The flooding Mississippi River began receding yesterday in the Quad City industrial complex of Illinois and Iowa where extensive preflood preparations held back the bulk of the swirling waters.

Residents of downriver communities waited as the crest rolled south at three miles per hour, spreading from just north of Burlington to south of Keokuk in Iowa.

Sightseers were posing a major problem for civil defense workers and National Guard units patrolling Iowa's riverfront in the Quad City area.

Hit Gun Ports

TIBERIAS, Israel (AP)—Israeli jets bombed and strafed gun posts inside Jordan today as ground forces exchanged mortar and artillery fire across the cease-fire line.

An army spokesman said two jets were sent to silence Arab gun positions after an Israeli army vehicle came under bazooka fire as it patrolled the frontier near the settlement of Maoz Haim. But more Arab mortar fire was reported and the army said five soldiers were wounded.

A Jordanian military spokesman in Aamman said the Israeli howitzers opened up on Jordanian military positions near Tal El Arbain and Zamalieh villages.

New Press Lid

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's new Communist bosses carried censorship farther today, telling journalists employed by the government what to write as well as what not to write.

A government announcement said the cabinet approved censorship measures already in effect and directed the press and information committee to work out principles "for more effective management of state communications media in such a way that their operation is full in harmony with the interests of internal and foreign policy."

Costly Rioting

TOKYO (AP) — Five thousand ultra-leftist students celebrated the 17th anniversary of the end of the U.S. occupation yesterday by battling police with rocks, wooden staves, lead pipes and Molotov cocktails. They were greeted by tear gas, and 967 landed in jail.

It was the most serious of 252 demonstrations throughout Japan demanding the return of Okinawa and abolition of the U.S.-Japan Security Treaty.

Scores of persons were injured; the Ginza, Tokyo's entertainment and shopping center, suffered $300,000 in property damage; traffic on the Ginza was tied up for five hours, and the national railways had to cancel 512 trains, delaying 800,000 commuters and losing $310,000 in revenue, officials said.

Draft Boss To Continue Tough Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Selective Service chief Gen. Lewis B. Hershey says antiwar protesters who throw away their draft cards will continue to lose their deferments and be reclassified for immediate induction until the courts order the procedure stopped.

Putting such protesters first in line for the draft "has nothing to do with punishment," the blunt, 75-year-old Hershey said in an interview. "I get riled up when they talk to me about serving your country being punishment."

COURT REVIEW

Hershey spoke after the Supreme Court yesterday agreed to hear arguments next fall by two antiwar protestors who charge their reclassification was unconstitutional.

One of the protesters, 22-year-old David Earl Gutknecht of Gaylord, Minn., is appealing a four-year prison sentence for refusing induction after he was reclassified for leaving his draft card on federal building steps during an antiwar demonstration in Minneapolis.

The other, 21-year-old Timothy J. Breen of Westport, Conn., sued against being drafted after he was reclassified for giving his draft card to a Boston clergyman to protest the war.

Both gave up their draft cards within weeks of Hershey's October 1967 memorandum authorizing draft boards to take away draft deferments for such "illegal activities" and declare the violators delinquents, which sends their names to the top of the draft list.

537 INVOLVED

American Civil Liberty Union attorneys for the two protesters say 537 students were stripped of deferments and put on 1-A delinquent status in 1968.

Legal Director Melvin L. Wulf said in New York the ACLU hopes the Gutknecht case "will be the central test of the power of Gen. Hershey to reclassify men as punishment for protesting the war in Vietnam."

Failure of a potential draftee to carry his draft card is a specific violation of the Military Selective Service Act. The issue before the court is whether a man can lose his deferment and be reclassified to high draft status for the violation.

Nixon Reversal On Science Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Richard M. Nixon, in a major reversal of position, has offered an important administration appointment to a man originally vetoed by the White House for opposing the Safeguard missile defense system.

But the man involved, scientist Franklin A. Long, says no thanks.

Following criticism from congressmen and scientists for letting politics override qualifications in selecting the new director of the National Science Foundation, Nixon yesterday said the job would be picked on merit only.

The President also revealed to the members of the National Science Board and the National Academy of Sciences that after first approving Long's rejection he had asked the Cornell University vice president to take the job.

But presidential science adviser Lee A. DuBridge, who originally recommended Long for the job, said yesterday Long was no longer interested because he found "the political situation distasteful to him and he preferred not to have it reopened."

After DuBridge recommended Long several weeks ago, White House staff members protested that he had publicly opposed Nixon's missile defense proposals and should not get an administration appointment.

Nixon backed up his staff at his April 18 news conference, confirming that Long's opposition to the proposed Safeguard project "would be misunderstood."

Asked why the President changed his mind, DuBridge said Nixon had "looked at it more carefully."

In his meeting with the scientists, Nixon asked for suggestions for the NSF spot and promised that he would pick the new director from one of the names submitted, White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said.

Nixon also said he would support the independence of the foundation and assured them of his interest in science and in international scientific cooperation, Ziegler added.

DuBridge was asked how the fresh Nixon stance would affect the scientific community. "I'm sure it will be tremendously pleased and encouraged," he answered.

Ohio Prison Guards Strike; National Guard Stands In

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Guards struck at two state penal institutions today and were replaced where necessary by Ohio National Guardsmen.

Only 54 of 175 to 200 guards and supervisors reported at the state penitentiary in Columbus. A unit of 100 guardsmen augmented the guard force there.

About 80 guards reported at Mansfield Reformatory where 130 would normally be on duty. A unit of guardsmen from Akron was sent to Mansfield to stand by.

Atty. Gen. S. T. DelCorso said no national guardsmen were sent into the Mansfield reformatory immediately.

Maury Koblentz, chief of the Ohio Division of Correction, said guard situations were normal at penal institutions at Lebanon, London, Marysville, Marion and Chillicothe.

Spokesmen for the striking guards at the penitentiary said they are seeking a $1,500 annual across-the-board pay raise. Koblentz said wages currently start at $4,990 a year at all institutions except the penitentiary, where starting salary is $5,240 a year.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers will visit India, Pakistan, Vietnam, Thailand and Iran in a 17-day trip next month.

The State Department announcement yesterday said that his appointments include sessions with Southeast Asia Treaty Organization representatives.

There will also be a visit with Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in New Delhi at her invitation, a spokesman said.

Bagley's Judicial Bill Lacks Votes

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A plan giving the judiciary veto power over a governor's appointments to the bench lay bottled up today in an Assembly committee.

The Judiciary Committee yesterday held up the legislative package proposed by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, as an alternate to the "judges' merit commission" backed by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Bagley's measures would set up judicial review commissions with authority to approve or reject a governor's appointment of a judge. The Constitution would be amended to require no judicial appoitnment is effective unless confirmed by the proper commission.

This review after appointment is in direct contrast to the Reagan-backed legislation which provides for a screening of potential nominees before the governor makes the appointment.

Bagley said his measure "assures judicial review" while "at the same time is not taking away power from the governor where it belongs."

He said it is "maintaining the power of the governor and the people but holding a veto power in reserve."

Assemblyman James A. Hayes, R-Long Beach, ordered the bill held for further study after a whispered conference with Bagley. Hayes said the committee would consider all plans for judicial appointment reform at the same time at a later date. But it was apparent Bagley did not have the votes yesterday to move his package to the floor.

The rival plan proposed by Reagan passed the Senate last year but was killed by the Assembly Judiciary which Bagley headed at the time.

Under Reagan's plan, commissions would review qualifications of potential nominees and present the governor with a list of three to five persons from which the chief executive would make the appointment.

It was reintroduced this year, again by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville. It already has been approved by the Senate Judiciary which Grunsky chairs.

Bagley said the Constitutional Review Commission had studied and rejected the nominating commissions proposed by Reagan as "placing too much power in a body not answerable to the people."

Assemblyman John Francis Foran, D-San Francisco, objected to Bagley's bills.

"I'm concerned about the judiciary appointing the judiciary or lawyers appointing the judiciary," Foran said.

"The only one who proposes a name is the governor," Bagley replied. "This provides a check on him so you won't get rash, crass political abuse.

Lawmakers To Solve Tax Riddle

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A special blue ribbon Assembly panel looked today for what one member called a "politically palatable" tax reform package acceptable to Democrats and Republicans in both houses.

Legislative sources disclosed that Assembly Speaker Robert T. Monagan had selected the six-member group to examine several tax reform proposals already submitted to the legislature.

The committee consists of three Republicans and three Democrats. One plan it is expected to study is the complex tax reform program backed by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

"Our job will be to pull together the most feasible and politically palatable parts of the various plans and put them together in what might be considered a committee bill," said Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, a panel member.

"You don't just submit a bill and say 'take it or leave it,'" added Bagley, chairman of the tax-writing Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Bagley said none of the proposed tax reform plans could pass the legislature without major changes.

Sirhan Must Spend Time On Death Row

California prison officials had spent $2,700 on a special isolated cell complex for Sirhan at the California Medical Facility at Vacaville, Solano County.

But a special bill to allow the State Corrections Department to send Sirhan to Vacaville died in the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee yesterday afternoon for lack of votes.

No prisoner should receive special treatment, some committee members had argued earlier. Sirhan was convicted of murder in the death of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Prison officials later told newsmen it would be more difficult to protect Sirhan at San Quentin against other inmates who might want to avenge Kennedy's gunshot death in Los Angeles last June.

Sirhan was convicted last week of first-degree murder and ordered put to death by the jury. May 21 is set as a hearing date for possible motions and formal sentencing by the judge.

Sirhan would be turned over to the state authorities within 10 days after the formal death sentence.

Lawrence Wilson, deputy corrections director and former San Quentin warden, said Sirhan would be held in a "no man's land" with empty cells on both sides. His six-by-eight foot cell will be separated by a special screen from the rest of the sixth-floor Death Row, he said.

Wilson said there have been prison rumors about possible attempts to harm Sirhan but he said "they were nothing you could put your fingers on or could validate . . . just the institutional rumors that there could be some reprisals taken."

Bond Issue Education Drive Set In Petaluma

The Petaluma City Council and two civic groups last night planned a campaign to educate voters to the necessity of passing the five bond issues totaling $3,204,000 that will appear on the June 10 ballot.

With all council members pledging full support to speak widely on the issues, a committee of the chamber of commerce agreed to handle promotion of the issues. The committee is headed by former Mayors Arthur Parent and Norman Van Bebber.

Parent said the committee is already well organized and will supply teams to set up publicity, fund raising and a speakers bureau.

"Petaluma is at the crossroads of progress and we realize that all of the projects are worthwhile," Parent said.

Col. Mervin S. Waters, president of the East Petaluma Civic Association, offered support from his group and said it would devote a portion of each newsletter to explaining the issues.

Several council members said the greatest problem will be helping the voters to understand what each issue will accomplish and how much it will cost the average taxpayer.

"Many people know a new bridge is on an issue, but they see the Washington Street Bridge being built now and they're confused," Vice Mayor Kenneth J. Colin said. Measure E on the ballot includes a second lift bridge at D Street as well as an overcrossing of Highway 101 at Caulfield Lane and street widening to Petaluma Boulevard.

The other street project issue involves the widening and relocation of Petaluma Boulevard from D Street to Washington Street from Petaluma Boulevard to Keokuk Street.

Another issue would provide funds for construction of a new fire station on South McDowell Boulevard and an addition to the central fire station. An issue to provide funds for an addition to the police station will also appear on the ballot along with another for park development and land acquisition.

Candidate Night Set In Petaluma

The East Petaluma Civic Association will host candidates for mayor and city council in the June 10 election at a candidates' night today at 7:30 p.m. in the Bernard Eldredge School.

Invited to participate are mayoralty candidates Councilman Robert S. Lipman and incumbent Helen Putnam.

Organ Students To Give Recital

Army Holds The Field On Tamalpais Creek

One student, 24-year-old Herschel Ferguson got hold of a rope tied onto the belt of a tree trimmer who was sawing limbs and tried to pull the man down, Vredenburg said.

Job superintendent Jim Matheson, according to Vredenburg, "protected the man in the tree by getting this kid off the rope. Otherwise the man in the tree could have got injured and so could the kid if the saw had fallen."

Ferguson, who lives in San Francisco, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut right eyebrow and a neck injury.

A struggle between another student and a sheriff's deputy occurred on Goodhill Road at about 1:30 p.m. Officers were attempting to move the crowd of about 100 students to the edge of the road so that workmen would be unimpeded when Gary Stark and a deputy got into a pushing scuffle.

The deputy forced Stark up against a patrol car, put handcuffs on him and placed him under arrest.

POSTED BAIL

Stark, 21, of 37 Sequoia Avenue, San Anselmo, was booked on suspicion of battery and resisting arrest, made $625 bail and is to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 2 p.m., tomorrow.

Others arrested yesterday include Danuta Patricia Rylko, 20, of 11 Elaine Way, San Rafael; Melinda Dell Fitting, 21, of 65J Redhill Mesa, Tiburon; Michael Allen Conroy, 19, of 7 Corte Cayuga, Greenbrae; Paul Everett Kantz, 23, of 57 San Benito Way, Novato.

Ty Alexander Patterson, 22, of 70 Corte Cayuga, Greenbrae; Thomas Peter Brunsing, 20, of 345 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, and John Henry Weber, 19, of 152 Villa Avenue, San Rafael.

All were booked on suspicion of failure to disperse and trespassing.

LEADER CONCEDES

Looking rather subdued was Marty Kent Jones, secretary-treasurer of the Ad hoc Citizens Committee to Save Tamalpais Creek who when asked if she had conceded, nodded yes, adding, "on this stream."

"I would like to draw attention to the fact that we can still get better design on phase three of the (Corte Madera Creek) project. We want flood control but we want better design," she said.

She added that the people didn't know what was going on and that the problem is really communication. Mrs. Jones, who had been the last to be forced from the creek bed yesterday morning, said she would appear today before the county board of supervisors to continue her fight for better flood control design.

'WE'LL BE BACK'

"Our being here is outliving its usefulness," shouted student Ron Burk at about 2 p.m. and student Richard W. Beban urged all the students to line up in pairs and march back to the campus. They did, some hollering, "Save the trees! We'll be back!"

Col. Frank C. Boerger, San Francisco District Engineer, issued a statement yesterday saying he finds no justification for further delay on the Tamalpais Creek portion of the Corte Madera Creek flood control project.

Boerger said, "The project, including the Tamalpais Creek portion, is essential to flood protection for some 220 homes in the area and for expansion of the College of Marin."

CRANSTON'S VIEWS

He said, too, that Corte Madera Creek floods so regularly that the fire department keeps a rowboat in its garage.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., also issued a press statement saying that when leading members of the community are thrown into jail because of a confrontation with the Corps of Engineers, "there is obviously something wrong.

"And what is wrong is that the corps has completely failed to make a convincing case that flood control and community improvement would best be served by uprooting trees and laying a concrete ditch where the beautiful Tamalpais Creek once edged its way along the Marin hillside."

Reagan Suggests Exchanges Merge

In a speech prepared for a New York industrial luncheon, Reagan said his proposal was timely because California leads all other states in number of shareholders and mutual fund sales in the New York exchange.

The governor said about 12 per cent of each day's volume of the New York exchange involves California investors and many corporations listed on the exchange hold their annual meetings in California.

Auto Looted

Bob Rogers of 212 Belle Avenue, San Rafael, told sheriff's officers that while he was hiking on Olema Hill Sunday someone smashed the window of his car and stole a stereo set and the water and temperature gauge, deputies said today.

Commission On Redwood Park Named

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's office today announced appointment of a seven-member commission to advise on whether three existing north coast state parks should be included in the new Redwood National Park.

If the new Redwood Parks Special Study Commission recommends transfer, it also will consider the conditions under which the parks should be included. The posts are without salary.

Under federal legislation establishing the controversial park, inclusion of Jedediah Smith, Del Norte Coast and Prairie Creek Redwoods state parks were authorized for transfer but not made mandatory, Reagan said in a statement.

Thomas A. Black, Aptos Republican and chairman of the Santa Cruz County supervisors, was named chairman of the special commission. Others include Whitford B. Carter, Lancaster, a Democrat and chairman of the state Board of Forestry; Lawrence C. Merriam, Berkeley, former regional director of the National Park Service.

Guy E. Rusher, Orick, a Republican and Humboldt County supervisor; C. Russell Johnson, San Francisco, a Republican and president of the Union Lumber Co.; Richard M. Leonard, a Democrat, San Francisco attorney; and Harry E. Sokolov, Beverly Hills Republican and president of the state Parks and Recreation Commission.

State To Offer Drilling Land

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state Lands Commission, despite opposition from Contra Costa County, intends to offer 280 acres of tide and submerged lands in the Sacramento-San Joaquin area for additional oil and gas drilling.

Chairman Houston I. Flournoy said yesterday the commission only plans to offer the lease but it would not be awarded until after the state completes its review of drilling regulations to determine if they are strict enough.

Sen. John A. Nejedly, R-Walnut Creek, said Contra Costa supervisors were "seriously concerned" about the danger potential of the proposed lease on False River and Pipe Slough in their county.

Artist Released In Hippie Deaths

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Robert Jahmelik, 35, was released yesterday after four days of questioning about the slayings of three young hippies in the Haight-Ashbury District.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Walter Fiubini said there wasn't enough evidence against Jahmelik, a Negro artist who said he had been with the victims shortly before they were killed.

Killed were William J. Oswald Jr., 24, of Concord; Margaret J. Fochtman, 18, Bay Village, Ohio, and Cinda M. Taylor, 19, Daly City.

Police said the victims had needle marks on their arms and had reputations as "burn artists," or drug peddlers who sell worhtless or adulterated merchandise.

Houseboater Seeks Hook Up

At least one Sausalito houseboat dweller is ready to hook up to land-based sewers as directed by Marin County.

Miriam Tellis, who owns the Yellow Ferry at Gate 6, last night asked the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District board for permission to tie into district lines. The board referred her request to district engineers for drawings and specifications.

The board also agreed to ask bids for a building on its Fort Baker property to house chlorine and other chemicals. Bids will be opened at the May 26 meeting.

No Complaint In Marijuana Probe

No complaint was issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court pending further investigation by the district attorney's office against George Robert Schoenfield, 18, of San Rafael, who was arrested Saturday.

Schoenfeld had been held on suspicion of possession of dangerous drugs, marijuana and narcotics paraphernalia and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

documents mention another enemy offensive in the summer-autumn months, but intelligence officers have been unable to determine any firm trend. The aim of the stepped up B52 raids is to prevent the North Vietnamese troops from getting organized.

The Communist command's spring offensive, now in its 10th week, has tapered off sharply to about a dozen rocket and mortar attacks each night and only scattered ground assaults. Many of these occur in the Third Military Corps area, the most critical in South Vietnam because it includes the seat of government, Saigon.

The U.S. Command announced that enemy gunners shot down three more American helicopters and an F4 Phantom fighter-bomber yesterday, killing two Americans and wounding five.

Seventeen U.S. helicopters have been reported shot down and destroyed during the past week. Several others have been lost in collisions and in enemy rocket, mortar and ground attacks, but the U.S. Command will not say how many.

Driver Dies In Car-Bus Crash

SACRAMENTO (API) — A Chicago man was killed and eight persons injured yesterday when a car and a city transit bus collided at a downtown intersection.

Richard McCallum, 52, Chicago, driver of the car, was killed. His wife, Vina, 48, was injured but is reported in satisfactory condition.

Air Pollution Curbs Outlined

PASADENA (UPI)—Dr. Sheldon K. Friedlander yesterday suggested several partial solutions which could help curb air pollution through the year 2000.

Included in the suggestions, contained in a lecture given at the California Institute of Technology, were rigid traffic control, efficient rapid mass transit, organized car pools, modification of fuels to change compression ratios and afterburners on auto exhausts.

Friedlander, a professor of chemistry, said an electrically-powered mass transit system would reduce current vehicular pollution by about 2.5 per cent.

Rates Urged For Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon has urged Congress to get out of the city council business and give the nation's capital city home rule and a representative on Capitol Hill.

In asking yesterday for local self-government for 850,000 Washington residents, Nixon said federal responsibility for the city does not require federal rule.

"The rights of the national government must be protected at the same time as the rights of the city's residents are secured," he said.

Sewer Connect Fees Raised

The Homestead Valley Sanitary District board last night voted 4-1 to raise connection fees for one-family homes from $160 to $250. It is the first raise in approximately 12 years, president James G. MacNichols said.

Sole vote against the increase was by Lewis G. Harding, while MacNichols, Gustaf F. Wolf, Kenyon Spalding and Medford J. Schqarz voted for it.

The increase will take effect in approximately 60 days, MacNichols said.

Wine, Liquor Taken

Edgar Ford of 762 Idylberry Road, Marinwood, reported to sheriff's officers Sunday that sometime during the preceding week someone had stolen two cases of wine, a case of whiskey, two bottles of creme de menthe and a bottle of Scotch from his garage, deputies said today.

The forget-me-not is Alaska's state flower.

Antismut Legislation By Clausen

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Legislation to inhibit the distribution of pornography to minors has been introduced by Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District.

The first of the two bills would require the consent of any high school or grammar school student whose name appeared on a mailing list to be sold or exchanged by list brokers. The second bill would prohibit mail order sales or advertising of obscene materials to school-age children.

It also would make the unsolicited mailing of "hard-core pornography" to children under the age of 16 a federal crime punishable by five years imprisonment and $5,000 fine. The penalty would be doubled for second offenders.

Clausen said in a press statement that his bills were based on a Supreme Court ruling last year "which held that the sale of pornography to minors may be much more restricted than to adults." The court ruling upheld a New York decision which prohibited the sale of pornography to persons under 17 years of age, he noted.

Teener Sought In Black Death

BERKELEY (UPI) — Berkeley police have issued a murder warrant for a 17-year-old Black Panther in connection with an April 5 gun battle near the party's national headquarters.

Homicide Inspector Jack Houston identified the suspect as Ronald Stevenson Jr., a former head of the Black Students Union at Berkeley High School. He is being sought for the gunshot death of Ronald Black, 31, two doors from the Panther headquarters.

Though police said they were not linking Black's killing with the militant party, a group of former Panthers charged shortly before the death that Black's "execution" had been ordered by Panther leaders.

Audubon Chief Decries Danger

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—The most dangerous animal on earth is man.

"Man is the only one which has achieved the power to destroy himself and all other life," the newly elected president of the National Audubon Society said yesterday.

Dr. Elvis J. Stahr, former president of Indiana University and secretary of the Army under President John F. Kennedy, told the society man not only has the power to destroy, "he is steadily engaged in doing it.

Alleged Attack Trio Released

No complaints were issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court pending further investigation by the district attorney's office against three men who were arrested Friday in connection with the alleged rape of a 15-year-old Santa Cruza runaway.

Released were Danial Barele Chavez, 21; Michael Joseph Russell, 24, and Henry Gerald Koch, 23, all of San Jose.

Two Men Admit To Weed In Car

Two East Bay men yesterday admitted in Marin Superior Court that they had marijuana in their car when arrested April. 8, 1968, by Novato police.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson set sentencing for Phillip James Butcher, 20, of Berkeley, for May 16 and Jesse Earl Boykin, 19, of Richmond for June 5.

tional defenses were weak, he said.

The Michigan Republican said the proposals perhaps were made in concert. When asked to elaborate on this, he said he had no facts to prove concerted assaults against military programs and "such was not the case."

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, of Illinois, was asked if he agreed with Ford's assessment.

"I don't agree, I don't disagree," Dirksen replied.

Dirksen said he believes the Senate will approve the ABM program "by a comfortable majority." Ford predicted adoption of the administration plan by a substantial margin in the House.

The leading Republican critic of the President's Safeguard program, Sen. John Sherman of Kentucky, said it is becoming harder to keep politics out of the dispute.

Youths Facing Cannon Charges

PACIFICA (UPI) — Two San Bruno teen-agers opened fire on the Pacific Ocean with a homemade cannon yesterday and got arrested by a startled California Highway Patrol officer.

"You could hear the racket all over," said Officer Milton Stark, who booked Robert Honan and Victor Lombardi, both 18, for illegal possession of a cannon.

The youths rammed a two-inch bore in an auto axle and packed it with black powder to fire molded-lead projectiles half a mile out to sea from Devil's Slide beach along Highway 1.

"It was crudely but effectively made," said Stark, who noted Honan was described as a "mechanical genius." The youth is a student at Capuchino High School. Lombardi is a student at the College of San Mateo.

The youths were taken to San Mateo County Jail on the cannon charge.

Officials of the group said it will incorporate and seek tax exempt status to make gifts for the library more attractive.

He placed the youth on two years' probation.

CAMERAMAN HURT — Stephen Pastzy, televisian cameraman for TV station KPIX-TV (Channel 5) in San Francisco is beaten to the ground by a mob in the Fillmore District where a clash yesterday afternoon between the police tac squad and Black Panthers touched off rioting.

THE UNREST SCENE

Tac Squad, Panther Clash Sparks Riot

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Hundreds of riot-ready police moved into the Fillmore District yesterday to quell a disturbance sparked by a confrontation between a tactical squad unit and members of the Black Panther Party.

Eleven persons were arrested and two were injured before the bottle-throwing crowd of about 600 Negroes began to disperse. Eight rifles, shotguns and pistols were confiscated.

Only two persons were injured — a television cameraman and a police officer. Cameraman Steve Pastzy of KPIX-TV (Channel 5) was hospitalized for head injuries suffered in an attack by a group of youths, and officer Jeremiah O'Brien was released after treatment of a scalp injury caused by a metal milk crate.

Witnesses said the incident began when a group of Panthers outside their headquarters used a loud speaker to yell insults at a passing police tactical squad unit and urged persons in the Negro neighborhood to take up arms against the authorities.

When police approached the group to make arrests for illegal use of the loud speaker, the Panthers went inside the office and reappeared at the doorway with weapons.

The tac unit called for help and several hundred policemen arrived, armed with riot sticks, shotguns and automatic weapons. Under a barrage of bottles and rocks, police blockaded the neighborhood.

Members of the tactical squad fired warning shots, lobbed tear gas into the building and then stormed the Black Panther headquarters. Eleven persons, including five women, were arrested as they attempted to flee through the back door. Nine of them were later released.

At Winston-Salen, N.C., snipers shot at firemen early today as they sought to put out a rash of trash fires set in the Negro section of the city.

No firemen were hurt in the bursts of gunfire about 3 a.m.

Police said the firemen were twice driven from a fire near a public housing development before they decided to let the fire burn out. Damage was minor.

Firemen said the gunshots appeared to come from an apartment complex in the housing development.

The incident occurred as Winston-Salem experienced its second night of unrest.

Police Lt. C. E. Cherry said police have not been able to establish the cause of the unrest but "Black Panthers, some of them from Greensboro, have been holding meetings."

In Cairo, Ill., fire bombings and sporadic gunfire flared in a third straight night of racial disturbance.

Cause of the outbreak of violence was not known. The city of 9,000 had been tense for more than a month since Negroes complained of harassment by a white vigilante group called the White Hats.

Fires broke out last night in two homes, a tavern and a grocery store located near Pyramid Courts, a predominantly Negro housing project which has been the scene of past disturbances.

Within two hours fires were reported in four more buildings and sporadic gunfire was heard from around Pyramid Courts.

U.S. Bond Sales

U.S. Savings Bonds sales totaled $481,997 in Marin for the first three months of this year, as compared to $489,210 during the same period last year, William P. Murray Jr., Marin County chairman, reported today.

ITT Plans Hit By U.S. Trust Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nixon administration trust-busters have made their second move in two weeks to short circuit the trend toward conglomerate mergers by filing suit against the giant International Telephone and Telegraph Co.

ITT was challenged yesterday in Chicago's U.S. District Court on acquisition three days earlier of Canteen Corp., a national food and vending company with 1967 revenue of $322 million.

The Justice Department complaint charged the acquisition might trigger other mergers, a tendency government antitrust chief Richard W. McLaren says he means to stop.

ITT, the country's 12th largest business, thus joined Ling-Temco-Vought Inc., the 14th largest, as a defendant in separate government lawsuits to slow the rate of economic concentration.

Justice filed suit two weeks ago to stop LTV's purchase of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp.

More than a year ago, on Jan. 1, 1968, ITT canceled plans to merge with American Broadcasting Co. because of long delays caused by Justice Department claims that ITT international interests might influence ABC news operations.

The new suit said ITT has 109,000 employes in its plants while Canteen is one of the top companies providing dining services in industrial plants, suggesting the two could increase the benefits if Canteen supplied vending and food services to ITT factories.

Canteen operates in 43 states. Its enterprises also include cigarette machines, concessions at sport facilities and management of restaurants.

ITT acquisitions in 1968 alone included Continental Baking Co., the nation's largest; Sheraton Corp., one of the two largest hotel chain, Levitt and Sons Inc., a major homebuilding firm; Avis Inc., No. 2 in car rentals; and Rayonier, a leading producer of chemical cellulose.

Injuries Minor In Two-Car Accident

Thomas W. Yarish, 25, of 1285 Yukon Way, Novato, suffered a cut lip and a bloody nose at 5:15 p.m. Saturday in a two-car collision on Atherton Avenue, near the Novato Thoroughbred Farm and Board Stables, according to the California Highway Patrol

Yarish's car collided with one driven by Tommie Sue Holt, 17, of 708 Lamont Avenue, who was not hurt, officers reported.

Campus Scenes Run Gamut: Guns To A No-Strike Vote

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Some 75 black militants, armed with rifles, shotguns and knives, held the Voorhees College library-administration building today but the president of the South Carolina school refused to call police or set a time limit for the students to leave.

At Harvard University undergraduates voted not to renew a student strike to eliminate ROTC and win other demands, while at Radcliffe, Harvard's sister college, students twice invaded the administration building and shouted obscenities at President Mary Bunting.

The students at Voorhees appeared to be set for a long siege. They were fortified with an estimated $5,000 worth of food taken from the college cafeteria at gunpoint.

They plastered front windows of the administration building with newspaper pictures of black militant Malcolm X and a sign proclaiming the structure the "Liberated Malcolm X building." They distributed leaflets saying their weapons were "for defensive purposes only."

On other campuses:

Memphis State University—Police arrested 109 persons, mostly black, as they broke up a sit-in at Memphis State University.

St. Louis University—About 25 St. Louis University students led by members of the Association of Black Collegians left the administration building of the Roman Catholic institution today after administrators signed an agreement expressing "regret for any harassment" to which black students have been subject."

Queens College—Demonstrators took over the three top floors of the 12-story administration building in New York City demanding amnesty for 39 arrested in an earlier protest.

Cornell University—President James A. Perkins said his school gave in to demands of armed black students last week to avoid "what seemed at the time to be much too great a risk of bloodshed." He said he was "sickened" by the armed sit-in.

Sausalito School Board Poses Question On Kindergarten Fire

Only one fireman was on duty Sunday night when fire of an unknown origin destroyed the contents of a kindergarten classroom in Marin City, Neighbors had to help carry the hoses, it was reported by Rita Johnson last night to the Sausalito School District board.

She went on to say that the fire was burning 15 minutes before the fire department came. "The police were there. It wasn't the police department's fault but the fire department's fault."

Another resident, Gabe Jackson, said, however, there were other firemen at the $30,000 Manzanita School blaze but added, "This is a good example of what kinds of things go on."

Board president Bruce E. Woelfel commented: "I don't think we can establish too much this evening."

Trustee Nathaniel Johnson told the board the fire had burned for 15 minutes before the fireman got the alarm and Supt. P. W. Schneider said the possibility of arson is being investigated.

Jonathan Alper in the audience suggested the board make inquiry as to why it took so long to answer the fire call and why only one man was on duty. He also suggested use of laser beam type alarms instead of what he termed "bugging windows."

Asst. Supt. Joseph J. Amato, who said that the cement-walled room is covered by insurance, was also asked to find out why Sausalito Fire Department was not called to assist under the interlocking agreement between departments.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said today that it was unusual for only one fireman to be on duty, but that it "happens every once in a while."

(Bloom said that one man had been sick.

("We only have four men at the Marin City station," Bloom said, "During the summer months we always have three men on duty because the station's primary duties are with brush and grass fires. During the winter months, we normally have two men on, but sometimes only one."

(Bloom said he felt the one fireman —Capt. Arthur McKay — did a "tremendous job" in containing the fire to only one classroom.)

The Sausalito School District Board Also:

ARTS LEASE — Leased the old Bayside School building to the Sausalito Arts Association in return for payment of the building's insurance not to exceed $551 annually.

AUDIT — Hired Leader, Jarvis and Keigwin of San Rafael to make the 1968-69 audit not to exceed $1,000 cost.

RESIGNATIONS — Accepted resignations of Hazel M. Lynch, kindergarten teacher at Manzanita School, who is moving from the district; Carol Tucker, district speech therapist, who is getting married and Betty Brandon, psychologist, resigning due to other commitments.

EMPLOYED — Hired Gail Dobie at $8,500 annual salary, kindergarten teacher, and Mary Levinson, $10,400, psychologist.

NEWLY ELECTED — Invited trustee-elect C. Gerald Clear to sit at the table with the board and announced final results in the April 15 election as follows: Nathaniel Johnson, 1,233; Clear, 1,230; David E. Freedheim, 1,097; Kenneth Elkington, 709 and Martha Thomson, 632.

LIBRARY NEEDS — Heard from librarian Virginia Geddes that the proposed 1969-70 budget for the district's libararies is about $7,000, or the same as the current budget.

BURGLARY — Heard that a phonograph, two listening centers and a tape recorder were stolen over the week end by burglars who forced their way into a Bayside School portable classroom.

LITTLE LEAGUE FENCE — Voted unanimously to permit the Little League to install a fence on Bayside School playground provided school district maintenance men assist in its construction, that it be inspected for nails by Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato and that the board meet later to discuss what changes can be made regarding the fence next year.

SENATE BILL 28 — Heard from Marilyn Burns, Senate Bill 28 methematics program director, that, in event her program is not state-funded in 1969-70, the program will cost the district an added $26,256.

TENNIS COURT CENTER — Acknowledged interest in a tennis court center at Martin Luther King School on inquiry from John P. Vetromile, Sausalito Recreation Commission secretary, who said such a center is being investigated.

MEETINGS — Agreed to meet May 12 and 26 at 7:30 p.m. and, after holding a closed session on hiring personnel, agreed to also meet at 7:30 p.m., Monday, to consider hiring personnel. The board will also discuss salary negotiations for 1969-70 on Monday.

Hirohito Greets Well-Wishers

Police guards, on alert because of anti-American demonstrations throughout the weekend, kept close watch on the estimated 30,000 persons who entered the gates around the emperor's new $36 million palace, with its moat and swans.

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Prime Minister John Gorton will leave for the United States Thursday for the talks with President Richard M. Nixon that the death of ex-President Dwight D. Eisenhower postponed.

Gorton will meet with Nixon and leading members of his administration May 6-7. The prime minister will be accompanied by his wife and several officials.

Space Station Plans Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 12-man orbiting space station, supplied by space shuttle and serving as a platform for scientists and engineers, is being sought by the nation's space agency.

A target date of 1975 for development of the station was set yesterday by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration in calling for design and planning studies.

The station would be the first element of a 50-man space base to be made up of modules assembled in earth orbit.

Of the studies submitted by aerospace firms, two will be selected for 11 months of detailed analysis at a cost of $4 million, NASA said.

Rohnert Park To Expand Rec Program

The Rohnert Park Recreation Commission last night approved plans for an expanded summer recreation program for youngsters.

Ronald E. Rasmussen, commission chairman, said the program will get under way at both Alicia and Benecia parks the week after school closes. Programs will include arts, crafts, sports programs and trips to baseball games and the San Francisco Zoo.

A gymnastics program will be offered for the first time in three years and include work on the trampoline, parallel bars, rings and horses. Swimming classes will be offered by the schools and Red Cross in the mornings at both pools with the afternoons open for recreational swimming.

Rasmussen said the commission is negotiating for the use of the Rancho Cotate High School gymnasium for programs in basketball, volleyball and other indoor sports.

Thomas West, recreation director, said sign-ups will begin soon for both adults and youngsters for baseball leagues.

The commission also approved the city's participation in a Boy Scout program to finance county Eagle Scout presentations for the year. Rasmussen said the Boy Scout plan is to have cities rotate sponsorship of the program on a yearly basis. The commission recommended that the city council approve $120 for the program.

Larkspur Teen-ager Denies Marijuana

Robert Andrew Enos, 18, of Larkspur pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to possessing marijuana in a car on April 14. A preliminary hearing was set for May 27.

Larkspur police arrested Enos after noticing a strong odor of marijuana coming from a car in which he was a passenger.

Irrigation Proposed For Lagunitas Field

A Woodacre resident has worked out a plan to irrigate the ballfield at Lagunitas School to enable wider community use in the San Geronimo Valley.

Marshall J. McCunniff, superintendent of the Lagunitas School District, said the district board was interested in the proposal at its meeting last night and asked the man who devised the plan, William E. McConnell, to tabulate annual maintenance costs.

The board said the possibility of obtaining county recreational funds to install the irrigational system should be investigated. According to McCunniff the system would maintain turf that would otherwise be destroyed by heavy nonschool use of the field.

McConnell has children in district schools and is maintenance supervisor for the Dixie School District.

Lagunitas School District Board Also:

WORKSHOP — Scheduled a meeting for 7:30 p.m. Monday at Lagunitas School to continue discussion of added credits to the teachers' salary schedule and to adopt an agreement enabling use of the old classroom building at Lagunitas School for a cultural center.

TEACHERS — After a closed meeting, voted to offer new contracts to all 24 regular classroom teachers. Instructors of educationally handicapped children were not offered contracts because the Legislature has not approved needed funds.

BILL — Took no action on a request from the county superintendent's office for support of AB 2293, which would add health and welfare benefits to the computation of funds spent for teachers by school districts.

STUDENTS — Heard that enrollment is 590.

AID — Voted to provide up to $25 in materials for use by kindergarten teacher Kathleen Dewing and a group of other teachers from around the county supporting passage of legislation to restore benefits for a 180-minute kindergarten session. McCunniff said the board felt the passage of such legislation would benefit the district.

PROGRAMS — Heard reports on the volunteer teacher aide and library programs. McCunniff said the board hoped to develop a stronger volunteer program this summer. Librarian Virginia Thomas said the district library had about 10,000 books after starting from scratch four years ago.

PAYMENT — Voted final payment of $7,230 to contractor E. H. Chapman and Co., builders of the San Geronimo Valley School, on recommendation of district architect J. Martin Rossi.

Envoy Presents His Credentials

LONDON (AP) — Walter H. Annenberg, the new U.S. ambassador to Great Britain, rode to Buckingham Palace in a horse-drawn carriage today and presented his credentials to Queen Elizabeth II.

In a 20-minute ceremony formally marking the start of his ambassadorship to the Court of St. James, Annenberg, former publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, was presented to the queen in the palace's 1844 Room, a white-and-gold decorated reception room looking onto the palace gardens.

The queen wore an aquamarine crepe dress as she received letters of accreditation from the new ambassador, who was dressed in white tie, tails, and top hat. Annenberg, 61, presented his wife, who wore a champagne coat and matching hat.

Marijuana Case Jury Trial Set

A jury trail in the case of Steven Elvin, 26, of San Francisco, accused of selling marijuana to an agent of the Marin County Drug Abuse Bureau, was scheduled to open today in Marin Superior Court.

Elvin, who was arrested in February 1968, in a countywide narcotics roundup, is also charged with possessing marijuana for sale in his yellow truck when it was parked near Gate 5, Sausalito.

The case is being tried by Judge Thomas F. Keating.

Exchanging Of Students To Continue

Mill Valley will continue its student exchange program with Sausalito, the Mill Valley School District board agreed last night.

The board ordered notes sent to parents of children in the fourth through sixth grades outlining the program and notifying them of a meeting at 8 p.m. May 19 in Martin Luther King School library in Sausalito to explain the program in detail. Parents will also be sent permission slips for their children to visit King school on a field trip to see how the exchange of fifth through eighth graders works.

The board also announced a "lend an ear" community relations workshop will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday in Park School auditorium when present board members and trustees-elect will hear comments and questions from the community. A discussion will follow on the June 3 election to raise the district tax limit 75 cents.

The Mill Valley School District board also:

RESIGNATION — Accepted resignation of Lillian Fong, kindergarten teacher at Park School, who is to marry and move from the area.

NEGOTIATIONS — Directed Supt. James A. Collins to meet with the negotiating council of the Mill Valley Teachers Association to discuss next year's teacher employment.

BONDS — Was told the latest installment of the district's $3.5 million bond issue, $415,000, was sold at 4.99 per cent to United Bank of California. The rate was just under the 5 per cent statutory limit on district bonds.

Kentfield School Board Approves Classroom Plan

An application for $195,000 to build the proposed hearing handicapped classrooms at the Adaline E. Kent School was approved last night by the Kentfield School district board.

The application will go to the state allocation board for funding of the project which is being done in cooperation with the Marin County Schools Department, Supt. Anthony G. Bacich said.

The board heard two curriculum presentations last night, by the foreign language and classroom music departments. About 150 students participated in the demonstrations which included a play, "Little Red Riding Hood" in Spanish, use of rhythm instruments and choral work accompanied by guitars. About 300 parents attended.

The board granted in-service credit to teachers who attend the Afro-American history and culture seminar at the Newman Center, sponsored by the Marin Committee for Fair Play, Bacich reported.

The resignation of Mrs. Tobi Rex Rosenstein, currently on maternity leave, was accepted.

Jewelry Stolen

Jewelry valued at $220 was taken from her home by a burglar Friday or Saturday, Helen Palubinskas of 85 Tamalpais Avenue told Mill Valley police. She reported the theft of jade earrings, two cameo brooches, a silver necklace and a turquoise ring.

Zelinsky Wins Nod On Rebuilding Plans

Tiburon City Council last night approved a precise plan for a new building at 7-11 Main Street to replace one destroyed by fire last September.

The plan submitted by property owner Fred G. Zelinsky calls for retail shops on the first floor and a restaurant on the second floor.

There was a prolonged discussion about whether Zelinsky, who owns three parking lots in downtown Tiburon, could meet the parking space requirements for the proposed 146-seat restaurant.

Councilmen approved the plan with the proviso that a building permit wouldn't be issued unless he could provide 73 parking spaces, including 36 for the restaurant, as indicated in the plan.

The vote to approve was 3-1 with Councilman Anne L. Ellinwood dissenting and Councilman Thomas E. Drohan absent.

At the start of the meeting, outgoing Mayor William R. Bremer appointed Albert Sennett of 26 Sutter Court, chairman of the Tiburon Peninsula Advisory Committee, to the city planning commission.

Sennett will succeed Joseph H. Bacheller III, who resigned because he was moving from the city, for the term ending June 24.

On the proposed countywide uniform animal control ordinance, the council recommended three changes.

They said they want the patrol staff increased by two persons rather than three, they want Marin County to bear the legal cost of prosecution and they want a "refined or modified" definition of what is meant by the requirement that a dog must be under direct control at all times.

Councilman Denis T. Rice said the definition on control was vague and Mayor Branwell D. Fanning didn't want it so broad that patrol officers could "take dogs wherever they saw them."

The Tiburon City Council Also:

DISABLED VETERANS — Adopted an ordinance which provides disabled veterans exemption from a business license tax, but prohibits them from door-to-door solicitation.

BICYCLE REGISTRATION — Referred to its public services committee a proposed ordinance requiring registration and licensing of bicycles.

TRESTLE GLEN — On the recommendation of Donald Loomis, parks and recreation commissioner, authorized City Engineer Ray W. Foreaker to include a sidewalk estimated to cost $7,000, in plans for resurfacing Trestle Glen Boulevard, and make it a separate unit when calling for bids.

SUBDIVISION PLAN — Was alerted by Councilman Ellinwood that plans for development of 23.6 acres of ridge land, adjacent to the city, a project known as Reed Ridge Unit 1, will be before the Marin County Planning Commission May 5, and said the city planning commission should study the proposed development.

CABLE WARNING — Received a warning from Mayor Fanning that a cable about six inches in diameter is being installed near the city, and if it is to go through the city all efforts should be made to have it placed underground through Tiburon.

STORAGE — Approved storage of an ark and garage on the parking lot near city hall for 60 days by a 3-1 vote with Councilman Denis T. Rice dissenting.

FILLING — Ask the city staff to investigate the reported filling of the water area near Safeway Market.

NEXT MEETING — Adjourned until 8 p.m. May 12 at City Hall.

Salazar Speaks

LISBON (UPI)—Former Premier Antonio Oliveira Salazar' replaced when he nearly died of a stroke last fall, celebrated his 80th birthday today with his first broadcast to the nation since he was stricken. Salazar thanked those who had sent him messages of sympathy.

B.D. Fanning New Mayor For Tiburon

Branwell D. Fanning, a member of the Tiburon City Council since 1966, was elected mayor of Tiburon last night after Mayor William R. Bremer withdrew himself from consideration for a second term.

Fanning nominated Bremer for a second term, but Bremer said he had to decline because of business requirements.

"I loved being mayor of Tiburon, but I must decline a second term," Bremer said.

He then nominated Fanning for the post, and the councilmen present voted unanimously for Fanning. Councilman Thomas E. Drohan was absent.

Fanning has served as mayor pro tem since last April, and previously served two years as president of the Reedlands Property Owners Association and a year as chairman of the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council.

An executive with Compton Advertising Inc. in San Francisco, Fanning is a specialist in tourism marketing and development. He has been a consultant to the State Department on tourism in developing countries and has been active in development of Central America's tourism industry.

Councilman Drohan and Bremer were named to the council's lands and development committee, Rice and Anne L. Ellinwood to the public services committee, and Fanning and Rice to the administration and finance committee.

Probation For Growing Weed

A former Fairfax couple, who now live in Mill Valley, yesterday were placed on probation by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court for growing marijuana in their home on March 27, 1969.

Mark Emerson Vincent, who pleaded guilty to the cultivation charge, was also ordered to serve 15 days in the Marin County Jail. His wife, Michael Elizabeth, who admitted being in a place where marijuana was used, was fined $150.

Judge Haley stayed the execution of the jail sentence until a probation officer can determine whether it will affect the young man's job with the post office.

Negro Describes Troubles In Presidio's Stockade

FORT ORD (UPI) — The defense called a surprise Negro witness yesterday in thet rial of 14 Army prisoners charged with mutiny for participating in a sit-down strike at the San Francisco Presidio stockade.

The witness, Joe Stephens, 20, of Berkeley, said he is now a civilian but was in the stockade when 27 white soldiers held the demonstration last Oct. 14.

Stephens charged that Negroes suffered from discrimination in the Army prison. He said blacks did the most work and stockade guards broke up any discussion among Negroes with comments like, "What's this? A Black Panther meeting?"

After telling of alleged racial discrimination at the stockade, Stephens was asked why neither he nor any other Negroes participated in the Oct. 14 demonstration.

"They (the Negroes) reasoned that since the demonstration was planned to be peaceful, they wanted it to stay that way," Stephens said. "If black people were involved, the guards might rough them up, might put them in a predicament where they would have to fight or get into violence."

Other witnesses at the court-martial proceedings yesterday were two defendants, Pvts. Richard Duncan, 20, of St. Helena, and Danny R. Seals, 22, Orangeville.

Duncan and Seals gave testimony similar to that of 10 previous defendants concerning alleged crowded and unsanitary conditions in the stockade.

Jury Trial Set

A jury trial for La Pierre Harvey, 21, of Marin City, who is accused of burglarizing a San Anselmo apartment July 29, 1968, was set yesterday for the week of July 21 in Marin Superior Court.

EARTHQUAKE AREA — Newsmap shows sparsely populated Borrego Springs-Salton Sea region in which a Richter magnitude 5.25 to 6 temblor centered. Scientists said yesterday's quake would have been dangerous in a populated area. It was felt in San Diego and Las Vegas. (UPI Telephoto)

Strong Temblor Jolts Southern Californians

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A sharp earthquake that jolted southern California yesterday caused only minor damage in the immediate area of the epicenter, but it swayed tall buildings as far as 200 miles away.

Seismologists said the temblor was centered in the mountains northwest of Borrego Springs, an earthquake-prone region about 40 miles north of the Mexican border and 125 miles southeast of Los Angeles.

Most of the remote area is unpopulated, but P. B. Harrison, manager of the Southern California First National Bank in Borrego Springs, reported large pieces of the ceiling fell and cracks appeared in the brick walls of the building.

About 30 bottles crashed to the floor in a Borrego Springs liquor store and a plate glass window was shattered at the Wood Food Center.

The temblor began at 4:21 p.m. and lasted more than half a minute. Most persons experienced the quake as a "long, rolling, rocking shake."

Estimates of the quake's magnitude ranged from 5.25 up to 6 on the open end Richter scale. The devastating San Francisco earthquake of 1906 had a magnitude of 8.3.

Yesterday's quake was centered in a remote area, but seismologists say if a magnitude 6 quake occurred in a densely populated section, major damage could result.

George Becker, an advertising executive, was on the 23rd floor of the U.S. National Bank Building in San Diego when he felt the structure sway. He said people near him were "very uncomfortable, including myself.

Terra Linda High Team First In Math Contest

A team from Terra Linda High School has placed first among 281 high schools in Northern California and Nevada which participated in the 20th annual Mathematics Association of America contest.

The three-man team — whose marks were highest out of 86 Terra Linda students who took an 80-minute test last month — is made up of seniors Victor Klebanoff and Marc Melon and junior Ed Jestadt.

The three compiled 270.25 points, half a point more than the runner-up team from Henry M. Gunn Junior High School in Palo Alto.

Klebanoff finished fourth in individual competition with 107.50 points, 37.50 points behind winner Quan K. Lum of Sacramento.

Drug Possession Count Dismissed

A marijuana possession charge against Alfred Laurence Rose, 27, of San Francisco, was dismissed yesterday in Marin Superior Court by Judge Harold J. Haley on the grounds that the evidence had been obtained illegally.

Rose was arrested Aug. 27, 1968, by Belvedere police who checked out his parked vehicle because it was a "hippie car" and out of place in Belvedere.

Street Light Planner Urged In Mill Valley

New street lighting for Miller Avenue may be a year away but the time should not be wasted, the Mill Valley Planning Commission said last night.

The commission recommended the council budget $1,500 in the 1969-70 budget to hire an electrical engineer to work out specifics of lighting not only for Miller Avenue but for the entire city.

The preliminary budget shows the city won't have money for new lighting on Miller this year. Hiring an engineer in the meantime could shave eventual costs, and the city would be ready to act when money is available, the commission suggested.

The commission also recommended the council accept a design for lighting on Sycamore Avenue Extension as recommended by the Architectural Advisory Committee, but recommended elimination of special machining on the fixtures to save $40 per pole. The commission also recommended using timers rather than photo-electric cells to save more money. The recommended lighting totals 12 poles, six on each of two traffic islands on Sycamore.

Mill Valley Planning Commission Also:

SIGN — Approved installation of a sign for 18 months at the top of Corte Madera Grade advertising lots for sale in Scott Valley subdivision Unit 5.

STRAWBERRY — Recommended the council back commercial-recreational zoning by Marin County for property owned by L. M. Fleischman on Strawberry Peninsula near Da Silva Island. Fleischman is asking the county for multiple-residential zoning instead of the present agricultural-residential. Commercial-recreational zoning would preserve public views of the bay, the commission said. The property is in an area Mill Valley may annex in the future.

BIKE TRAILS — Set a meeting of a joint subcommittee of the planning and parks and recreation commission for 8 p.m. May 8 to work out a proposal for the joint commission meeting of May 12 on bicycle trail plans. The meeting will be in Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon's office.

Judge To Hear Drug Arguments

The case of Francis Mitchell Orella, charged with selling marijuana to narcotics agents on Nov. 30, 1967, has been submitted to Judge E. Warren McGuire of Marin Superior Court on the basis of the transcript of the preliminary hearing.

Judge McGuire will hear arguments in the case tomorrow.

Teen Booked In Car Theft Probe

John G. Smith, 15, of 5 South Knoll Avenue, Apt. 7, Mill Valley, was booked into Marin Juveniel Hall yesterday on suspicion of car theft after he reportedly stopped near Redwood and Corte Madera Avenues in Larkspur at 11:15 p.m. driving a reportedly stolen car, police said today.

Auditorium Manager Is Selected

A manager for the new Veterans Memorial Auditorium was picked last night by the Fair-Marin board, but the name will not be released until his references are checked and an offer accepted, chairman Harold Stockstad announced today.

The manager will be offered $16,000 per year.

Stockstad explained that the directors agreed on the number one man but personal references have not been checked as yet.

"The reference check will take two or three days, and until then, we can't say anything because we might end up with the number two-man."

Eight finalists were interviewed by an oral board yesterday, and the top three were referred to the Fair-Marin directors last night at Civic Center.

State Requests Bids For 101 Widening

Bids for widening Highway 101 between just south of Irwin Street and just north of Mission Avenue were asked yesterday by the state Department of Public Works.

Bids for the $3.2 million project will be opened June 11 in Sacramento.

$375,059 Pay Cut At Two Colleges

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — State Controller Houston I. Flournoy today reported a total of $375,059 in gross pay for January, February and March has been withheld from state college instructors at San Francisco and San Jose State colleges.

Flournoy said that $340,087 was withheld from San Francisco State and $34,969 from San Jose State College faculty members.

HAVE A FAMLY MEMBER who requires a special diet? Ideas and recipes to meet diabetic and low sodium menu needs will be given at the three-part weekly series sponsored by the Marin County Heart Association. Here nutritionist Frances Dahl, left, tastes the diabetic strawberry cream puff recipe made up by dietitian Shirley Sichel and home economist Peggy Hopkins. The first class will be held tonight at 7:30 at the PG and E auditorium in San Rafael.

Preparing Low Sodium, Diabetic Menus

"One should eat to live . . . " according to Benjamin Franklin. And when the homemaker is faced with special diet requirements to meet diabetic or low sodium needs, she must ensure adequate nutrition for this segment of the family as well as other members of the group.

How to do it will be the subject of the Heart Association's three-part series of instruction starting tonight at 7:30 in the Pacific Gas and Electric Auditorium, San Rafael. Focus is on diabetic diets. The evening of May 6 will feature weight control while preparing foods for the entire family pattern. The final session May 13 will deal with attractive and tasty main dishes as well as desserts for the diabetic.

Among recipes featuring low sodium and to serve as exchange in fats and fruits for diabetics are the following favorites:

DIABETIC CREAM PUFFS

(Set oven for 375 degrees)

In saucepan, melt together: ¼ cup margarine and ½ cup boiling water.

Add, all at once: ½ cup flour. Stir hard until the dough forms a ball in the center of the pan. Remove from heat and let stand 5 minutes. Add one raw egg and beat until well blended. Add one more egg and beat as before. The mixutre should be very stiff. If not, let stand 10 minutes before shaping. Shape into 6 puffs on a cookie sheet. Bake until there are no more beads of moisture on the puffs. About 40 minutes at 375 degrees. Remove from oven and cool. (Each puff: exchange for 1 fruit exchange and 2 fat exchanges. Can be filled with ice cream, as allowed, or with fresh strawberries or raspberries.) Calories per puff: 125.

LOW SODIUM REFRIGERATOR CHEESE CAKE

(Makes 8 portions)

2 tablespoons gelatin
¼ cup milk
2 pounds dry curd cottage cheese
1¼ cups sugar
¼ cup chopped almonds
½ cup pineapple bits
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon almond flavoring

Soak the gelatin in ¼ cup milk until softened, then place over slow heat, stirring until dissolved. Press the cottage cheese through a sieve. Add rest of ingredients and stir until well mixed. Add the dissolved gelatin. Turn into a square pan, place in refrigerator until firm. Mix low sodium bread crumbs with sweet butter or use a portion of the above nut crumb crust to sprinkle over the top. Cut into squares to serve.

2" x 2" square: 400 calories, 23 mg. sodium.

LOW SODIUM SPANISH STEAK

(4 Servings)

1 lb. flank steak or round steak
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons oil
2 onions
1 green pepper
1 bay leaf
2 cups fresh or unsalted canned tomatoes
1 teaspoon sugar

Score steak on both sides, rub well with flour. Brown on both sides in hot fat. Add black pepper, cover with sliced onions, sliced green pepper, tomatoes, sugar and bay leaf. Cover pan and cook over low heat until tender. (About 2 hours).

3 oz. servings: 340 calories, 69 mg sodium.

The series presented by the Marin County Heart Assn. on consecutive Tuesday evenings will be two-hour instruction sessions conducted by Frances Dahl, nutritionist, Marin County Health Department; Peggy Hopkins, home economist, PG&E; and Shirley Sichel, consulting dietitian, Marin County Heart Assn.

Greeting Cards With New Soul

By IRA RIFKIN

BERKELEY (UPI) — A group of Berkeley Negro businessmen has entered the greeting card industry with a line of all-occasion "soul cards."

The venture, now four months old, has proved so successful the businessmen are planning a line of party decorations "to which the black community can relate."

Evans W. Cantrell, executive vice president of Goodie Products, named after Cleven Goodall, a black artist who designed the first "soul card," said the venture began with a line of Christmas cards "that went over so well we decided to come out with cards for all occasions."

Goodie Products began marketing the cards in the San Francisco Bay area but has since obtained outlets in Los Angeles, Philadelphia, New York, and Washington, D.C.

According to Cantrell, a 42-year-old former economic consultant to black-owned businesses, "soul cards" soon will be available in Chicago and Houston as well.

"WE'RE DOING better than $2,000 worth of business a week," he said. "The cards sell particularly well with younger people, who are more black oriented than their parents, and go well in ghetto areas but do not sell as fast in suburban locations."

The company recently received a $14,000 training grant from the Department of Labor's National Alliance of Businessmen and the University of California at Berkeley has agreed to undertake free of charge a market research survey to further enhance the firm's success, Cantrell said.

The market research project came about after some black militants were offended by some of the "soul cards."

"We found that various members of the black community reacted differently to the cards. A card that sells well in one area may disturb people in another," Cantrell said.

Some of the firm's cards, he explained, are no different from greeting cards picturing white persons except the caricatures have black skin. "Some militants thought a white company was making fun of blacks and they became angry," he said.

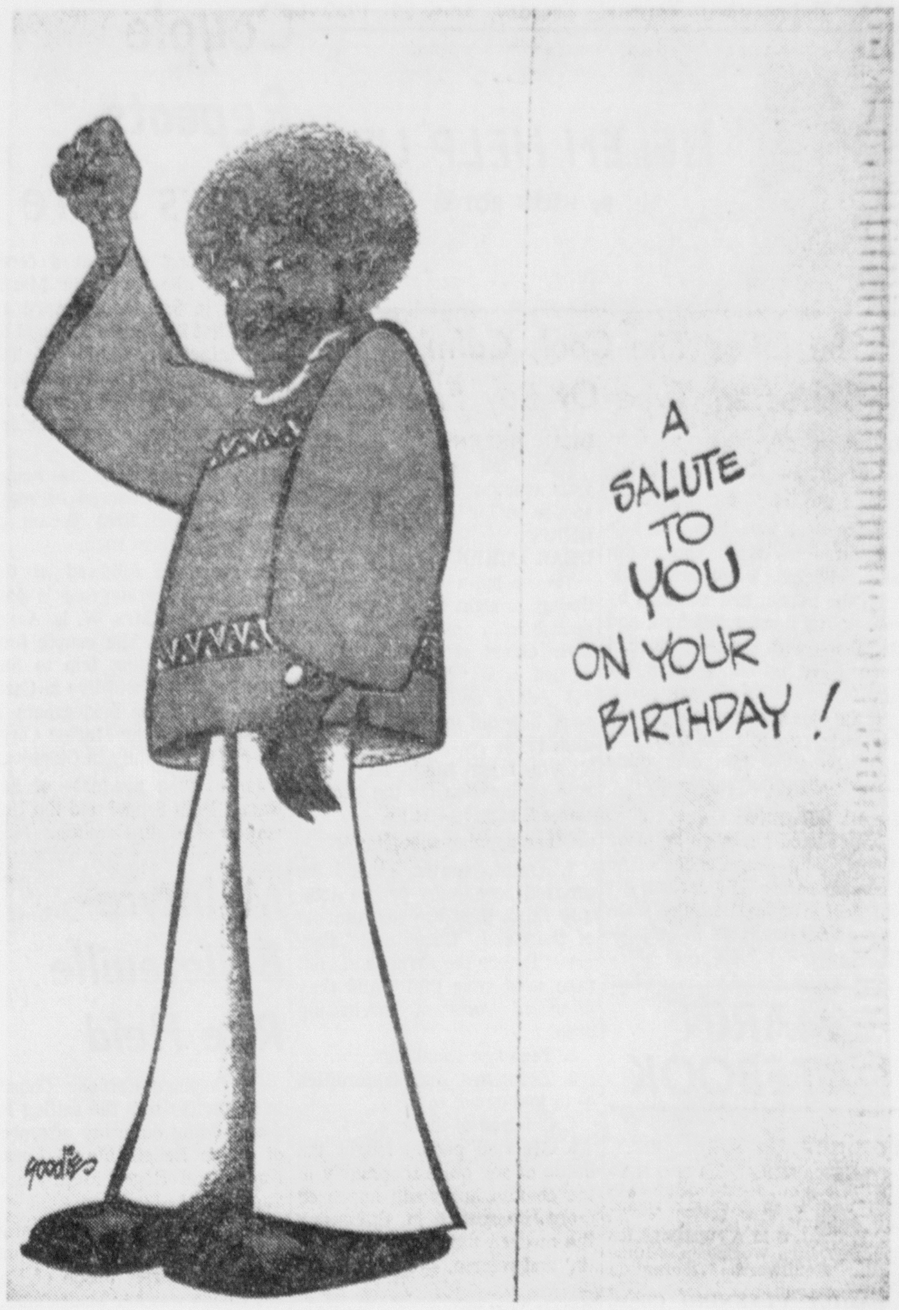
The black power birthday card, which contains the message "a salute to you on your birthday," sold extremely well" with younger persons, according to Cantrell.

"We discovered black communities in different areas think differently," Cantrell said. "As a result, we're pushing the market research project."

Cantrell said the company also has decided to expand advertising "so militants will know the company is black-owned and is not just a bunch of white men trying to capitalize on the emergence of black consciousness." The company's first ads were placed in trade magazines and will soon appear in leading commercial publications aimed at the Negro market.



THIS BLACK POWER birthday card sells well with the younger generation, says the group of Berkeley Negro businessmen who have entered the greeting card industry with a new "soul" line of cards. But it made middle class black uptight, says Evans W. Cantrell, executive vice president of the card firm.

Friendly Town Idea Brings City Children To Visit Marin Families

By JOAN LISETOR

Are you looking for a "Lady Bountiful" program during the summer to salve your conscience?

Or are you interested in a program set up to solve all of the human relations problems of today?

FRIENDLY TOWN is neither of these things; it is a down-to-earth project run by down-to-earth people.

Friendly Town is a program which allows children 8 to 14 years old from San Francisco to visit for 10 days with host families in Marin County. The program began in 1966 in the East Bay with an exchange of children from inner cities such as Oakland and Richmond to the suburban areas of Walnut Creek, Moraga and Orinda.

Last year Mrs. Richard Wilmington of San Anselmo heard about the success of the program in the East Bay and contacted the Rev. William Smith of Concord, project developer for Friendly Town, who is also a member of its board of director.

At his suggestion Sally Wilmington got a group of interested persons together to discuss a pilot program. Reverend Smith told them about the project. Word spread and by the application deadline last May, 45 families from Marin had applied.

The families were screened by volunteers.

EXPLAINS SALLY Wilmington, 'I asked the families why they wanted a child from the city to visit in their homes. Those who replied that they wanted to help a less fortunate child were quickly rejected. We only accepted families who admitted they were doing it for themselves.

"Friendly Town offers a mutual benefit; there is no 'poor kid what can we do for you' attitude."

In last year's Marin-San Francisco exchange the 35 inner city children were all residents of Yerba Buena Plaza. They and their families were screened by Mrs. Peggy Hawkins, who is also head of the recreation committee and a member of the housing authority for Yerba Buena, which has 386 units and approximately 500 children.

Mrs. Hawkins' main concern was placing the right child with the right host family. She was also responsible for arranging visits between the host family and the guest's family prior to the child's stay. Picnics have been the most successful meetings, she feels.

Mrs. Hawkins had the opportunity to talk to the city children after they have returned home from their suburban visits.

"THE CHILDREN didn't want to go home," she says. "They are all anxious to go back this summer and some want to go to the same families as last year."

Skeptics have expressed some doubt about Happy Town's effect on the city children. A black woman who lives in Marin and was reared in a ghetto in the East has described it as a cruel hoax — taking a child from a poor neighborhood, showing him a little affluence and then throwing him back into his old environment.

Mrs. Wilmington feels differnetly.

"The children all have television sets and they know a better life exists. They see television shows like Dick Van Dyke's, and they think every home looks like Rob Petrie's," she says.

"They know the life exists, but through Friendly Town they have actual contact with the people and see how they really live."

The children expressed surprise that every home did not have a swimming pool, but says Peggy Hawkins everyone has told his friends, "I had a good time, and you should have gone."

ONE BOY who told Mrs. Hawkins he had a good time was the thirteen-year-old guest of the James Drapers of Fairfax. The boy, who according to Mrs. Draper, was a tough product of the ghetto caused some problems during his visit.

During the city boy's visit the Drapers' 10-year-old nephew also stayed with them.

"The inter-action between my nephew, who is quiet, and our guest, who would fight first and then ask questions, was interesting," she says.

"The boy fought to survive because he didn't know how to handle situations or cope with problems or emotions. His strength was all he had, and he could not show his fears."

STEPHANIE DRAPER feels her family benefited from the experience. Her five-year-old son and three-year-old daughter have since commented that he was mean but they like him and have threatened their friends if they don't behave our friend will come and beat you up.

Despite the problems, the parties on both sides of the exchange felt it was a good expe-

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

DEAR HELEN:

I'm 19 and have been going with a guy of 24 for two years. He knows I love him but he's the three c's type: cool, calm and collected. I got in trouble with the police, and he stood by me. So his fiancee left him, and he's been with me ever since. I even gave up other guys for him.

If he doesn't want to marry her, why doesn't he marry a girl who gives him everything —Me?—WILLING

DEAR WILLING:

Why should he, when he plays it cool, calm — and collects? As I've said before, if a rat can get the cheese outside of the trap, only a very dumb rat . . . etc. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Please tell us which letters in your column brought most response so far this year. — CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS:

The column on inter-racial dating brought greatest response from young people while their elders seemed most concerned with "Tim's" question: "If Adam and Eve had only sons, how did the world get populated?"

(Which just might be a capsule explanation for the generatio gap, right? — H.)

Other popular subejcts:

1. Ouija boards. (You'd be amazed how many people actually think they are instruments of the devil "Burn 'em!" they cry, "Before the demons of Hell take over your life!" And they offer all sorts of fascinating proof.
2. Teen-age spankings.
3. Sororities and fraternities — to join or not to join.
4. Children of divorce.
5. Married people fought the battle of sex quite thoroughly in the column but youth appeared more interested in discussing the modern three r's: race, riotin' and reform. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I am a teen-ager without any problems. What's wrong with me? — NORMAL NORMAN

DEAR NORM:

Unless you're unconscious — nothing. And congratulations. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

This is in response to Anne who wants to decide what to do about Bob and the big brother-sister friendship they share.

Well Helen, I had the same thing happen to me. His name was Larry; we went to grade and high school together, dated because it was convenient, and we were very good friends. I was his girl-type buddy, nothing more.

Then one day I tried what you suggested to Anne — a bit of unsisterly flirting. It worked.

You see, the brother-sister act had disguised our true feelings. We were in love all the time, but too naive to realize it.

Through our earlier relationship we learned to respect and trust one another. Shortly after our discovery we became engaged. I know we'll be very happy. Our pal days are marriage insurance. — FORMER "SISTER"

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

BOXHOLDERS NO LONGER LOCKED OUT

After a mixup, boxholders at the new Mission branch of the San Rafael Post Office again will be able to pick up their mail between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m. daily.

The remodeled building, which now houses other federal offices and is run by the General Services Administration, was shut most of the weekend to the dismay of boxholders.

Postmaster Hugh Cassidy complained to GSA and the old hours went back into effect today.

"The customers have room to complain," Cassidy said. "The post office must be open for their convenience."

BART Asked To Halt Building

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco supervisors unanimously asked Bay Area Rapid Transit District yesterday to delay all "non-essential construction" until its commitments to the city are met.

The board specifically named BART'S new $2.5 million administration building in Oakland as one of the non-essentials.

10 YEARS LATER

Marinite's Bottled Message Turns Up

Ten years ago, Terry J. Forsyth, then 16, wrote a note, sealed it in a big champagne bottle and threw it into the Pacific from the steamship Lurline.

On April 17, the bottle, with note intact, was found on a beach near Saipan in the Marinana Islands.

Forsyth, of 515 Pinewood Drive, San Rafael, was amazed that the bottle was found. "You're kidding," he said with delight as learned of the discovery.

C. B. Sturgell, father of the finder, Samila Sturgwll, 11, wrote of the discovery, addressing the letter to Forsyth's old address, 108 Coleman Drive, San Rafael, and also sent a copy to the Independent-Journal.

Forsyth said he never dreamed the bottle would be found, but had never forgotten tossing it overboard.

Sturgell, director of property and supply for the government of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, a U.N. Trusteeship administered by the United States, reported his daughter found the bottle on a beach called Old Man by the Sea.

"We found it extremely interesting that it took almost 10 years for this bottle to float the 4,000-odd miles, perhaps even more considering it probably came by a circuitous route, from Hawaii to Saipan," Sturgell commented.

A copy of the note was enclosed. It gave the location of the toss as "one-day from Honolulu." The note merely asked "Whoever finds this bottle please write to" and was signed with Forsyth's name, address, age and phone number.

Forsyth has since graduated from high school and college and served in the Army. A computer programmer for Standard Oil, he is married and has two sons. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Forsyth live at 2514 Mar East, Tiburon.

Bus Fare Hike

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The board of supervisors yesterday approved a nickel hike in the basic fare on the Municipal Railway. The increase will go into effect June 30 if signed by Mayor Joseph Alioto.

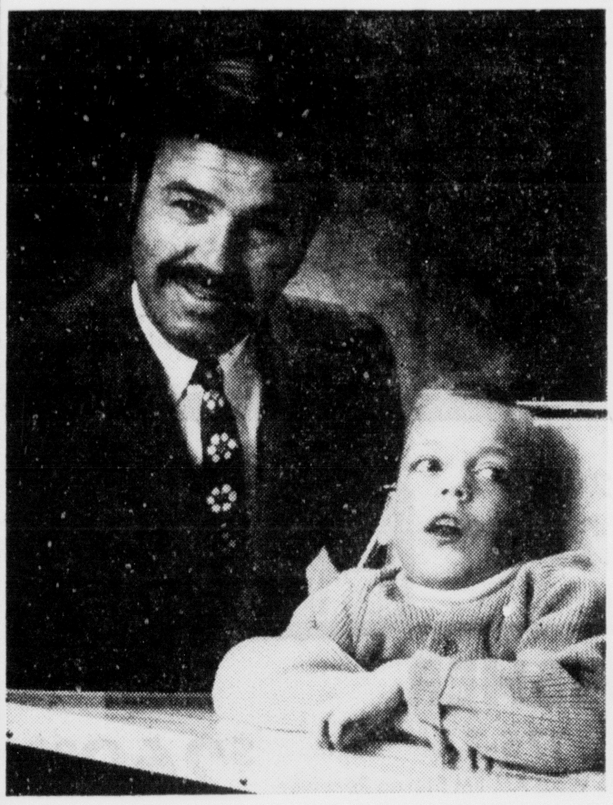
For the drawing of 100,000 Blue Chip Stamps

Yes, 100,000 Blue Chip Stamps will be awarded at 8 P.M., at United Market, Third and Grand, San Rafael, on Thursday, May 1, 1969. You do not have to be present to win but you will be most welcome to attend the drawing.



JIM LANGE, 1969 Honorary Chairman and popular star of TV's "Dating Game" and "Oh! My Word" greets LARRY LLOYD, Marin's Theme Child of 1969. Larry is six years old and is a quadriplegia C.P. He is a very happy fellow with that ever-present smile. Hopefully, our research will help to reduce, if not prevent, the incidence of brain damage.

Cerebral Palsy Results from Brain Damage
The effect is generally a permanent handicap (mental and/or physical) and often a life-long financial and psychological burden to the cerebral palsied person and his or her family. In California, about 3,000 infants per year are born with, or develop cerebral palsy.

United Cerebral Palsy of Marin
- Receives no assistance from other charity drives
- Has an entirely volunteer staff
- Is alert to coordinate with other charitable agencies and public services

Your Contributed Dollars

(Approximately 28% of receipts)
To alleviate brain damage
To help people with cerebral palsy become as productive and happy in our society as possible.

JIM LANGE of TV's "Dating Game" and "Oh! My Word," will be master of ceremonies. The Red Garter's calliope will fill the air with sound; P.G.&E. will provide a proper platform for the festivities.

REMEMBER

100,000 Blue Chip Stamps will be awarded. This means 10,000 to each of ten lucky persons. If you have not mailed in your Special Cerebral Palsy envelope yet, please do so tonight. If you have lost or mislaid your CP envelope, any old envelope will do. Just send it to: United Cerebral Palsy of Marin, P.O. Box 3011, San Rafael, Calif. 94902. Be sure your name and return address is shown.

Services in Marin (Approximately 72% of Receipts)
The work of VOLUNTEERS in United Cerebral Palsy of Marin — the very reason for our existence — is to help eliminate the problems of Cerebral Palsy. The ultimate conquest of this cruelest of all cripplers which leaves so many with a lifetime handicap, is the goal of our research. Until this day of discovery comes, we have the equally challenging responsibility to be here — right here in Marin — when they need us. This is our goal in Marin County. We are striving in every possible way to provide physical, social, psychological and educational help. Your tax-free contribution will give expression to our own enthusiasm.

Five Flee Blaze In Novato Home

A Novato couple and their three infant children escaped without injury from their flaming home, early today, two days after they moved into it.

Fire Chief Jack Kidder said the fire, which started in a storage box in the kitchen, caused $25,000 damage to the house at 739 Rowland Boulevard and $5,000 damage to its contents. The house is owned by Robert Stingle of Lakewood, N.J.

James Gillespie, who just moved into the house with his family, told firemen he was aroused by smoke about 1:33 a.m. The fire was already climbing the kitchen wall into the attic and eventually completely gutted the kitchen and burned the roof off most of the house.

Gillespie and his wife carried their two daughters, aged 3 and 2, and son, aged 8 months, to safety before the fire spread, Kidder said. It took Novato firemen about 20 minutes to put the fire out, he said.

Gillespie is employed by the Bechtel Corp. in San Francisco.

Hike In Water Rates Seen For Expansion

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Sonoma County supervisors agreed yesterday that increases in water rates will be necessary to finance future expansion of the aqueduct system, but spared users in the Petaluma and North Marin areas any boost.

Gordon W. Miller, chief engineer, said that rates charged to users of the Petaulma Aqueduct already reflects a charge for maintenance, depreciation and expansion. He said the Petaluma Aqueduct now has $124,000 available in capital reserves and an additional $225,000 in sold but unexpended bonds.

Miller said the aqueduct, however, will be the first to require expansion. He said the system is committed to supply 10.5 million gallons per day to Petaluma and North Marin and is already supplying 11.2 million gallons per day on peak days.

The board generally agreed to increases of $5.50 per acre-foot of water to other prime users in the county to build reserve funds for expansion.

Concerned that present users will be financing the water requirements of future users, the board agreed that the districts will receive credit for reserves when construction plans are made.

The Sonoma Board Of Supervisors Also:

BRIDGES — Approved plans for the construction of two bridges on Petaluma Hill Road, two miles north of East Cotati Avenue. Bids on the construction will be opened at 3 p.m. on May 27.

BOND SALE — Set June 3 at 3 p.m. for the sale of $50,000 in bonds for the Old Adobe School District, Petaluma.

DATA CENTER — Named Supervisors Ignazio A. Vella and Arthur R. Rounavaara to a joint committee with the Sonoma County Board of Education to study the possibility of constructing a mutual building for data processing.

Reed Choral Groups Win Top Honors

Each of the three choruses from the Reed Union School District was given a unanimous 1 (superior) rating by the three judges at the annual Bay Area Choral Festival held by the California Music Education Association Saturday at Sebastopol.

The 125-voice Reed District Elementary Chorus, directed by Mrs. Rosalind Wong and accompanied by Mrs. Louise Weirick was judged superior for the sixth year. For the Del Mar Choral Ensemble, directed by Dr. Hyman I. Krongard and accompanied by Mrs. Rowena Stokes, it was the fourth superior.

The 60-voice Del Mar chorus, also directed by Dr. Krongard and accompanied by Mrs. Stokes, was additionally honored by being invited by the judges to sing with other selected choruses from Northern California at a command performance concert on May 10.

A Whereas for ATTORNEYS

Whereas: 45,000 families read the I-J daily, attorneys with great perception will see that their names within legal notices within the I-J will be read by 45,000 families!
Whereas this is good for the old shingle. Public recognition! County-wide notice! Beautiful exposure to people who (wouldn't you know it?) often need an attorney but often don't know which one to pick.
Whereas this gives more exposure of the firm name than can be given by all other publications combined in Marin County!

GUS GOOSE HELPS DEDICATE

A Humane Society goose that prefers people or calves to other geese approves the new bronze plaque which marks the site of the first Humane Society animal shelter, Third Street and Grand Avenue, San Rafael. The plaque was dedicated today — in commemoration of the first shelter built in 1931 — by Mayor C. Paul Bettini and other city officials, along with the goose and other Humane Society representatives. Gus has been at the new animal shelter in Ignacio since being abandoned about six months ago, and has made friends with a calf which lies down when Gus nudges so Gus can sit on its head. Logging Picketed On Bolinas Ridge

About 25 conservationists showed up yesterday and today at the Righetti ranch on Bolinas Ridge to protest logging of redwood trees.

About 11 a.m. yesterday the sheriff's department was called by the logging foreman, Lynn A. (Jake) Flipcroft, who said that a stalled Volkswagen van was blocking the exit of logging trucks.

Pickets had removed a wheel from the van, which was up on a jack. Sgt. Robert F. Bertrand of the Marin sehriff's office helped change the tire and said picketing would be allowed if the protestors stayed off the ranch property.

Four persons who, Flipcroft said, were trespassing and "might get hurt" by the logging equipment left after being asked to do so.

The pickets continued their protest along the shoulder of Highway 1, and resumed picketing today.

The Marin Conservation League has asked the state department of parks and recreation to buy trees less than two feet in diameter on a 300-foot wide, two-mile-long strip across the ranch. The cost would be $35,000, according to Harold Gregg, president of the league.

Youths Win Draft Delay For Teacher

David Dwight, 24 ,psychology teacher and assistant track coach, will not have to report for the draft until the end of the semester, his Ingleside draft board has ruled on the heels of massive support from students, teachers and administrators.

Students learned last month that Dwight had passed his physical and probably would be inducted in April.

They launched a campaign to keep the teacher and collected more than 1,000 signatures on a petition. Twenty-five teachers also signed. Principal Frank Stocking and Supt. John F. Plank wrote letters urging that the teacher be deferred until the end of the year.

One student, worried the petition wouldn't be enough, sent telegrams to senators and representatives and at least one senator replied favorably.

Dwight, who is in charge of an Explorer Scout Troop and chaperones most school functions, will be officially inducted in May, but his actual reporting date will be after the semester ends in June.

Light Fixtures Design Approved

Design of light fixtures and poles for the underground street lighting project along Bolinas Road was agreed upon yesterday by the Fairfax Design Review Board.

Norman T. Gilroy, chairman of the board, described the appearance of the lights as "traditional" in character. The board viewed designs at the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. building in San Rafael.

Hub Parks Session Postponed To Today

A meeting of the San Anselmo Parks and Recreation Commission scheduled for last night was postponed until 7:45 p.m. today due to lack of a quorum.

The meeting at the Robson-Harrington Park mansion, will include a discussion of furnishings for the mansion and an irrigation system for Memorial Park.

ROBERT D. GOWAN
Ross superintendent resigns

Gowan Gives Resignation On Ross Job

Gowan, 41, of 74 Stanford Court, Novato, had been superintendent for the past three years after serving one year as vice principal of Ross School. Previously he was with the Reed School District.

Gowan said he had been offered an additional three-year contract in the Ross district but decided it was "time to make a change."

Gowan said he has not yet accepted another position.

The board accepted the resignation effective June 30, and agreed to set up a screening committee to interview applicants for the post.

Petaluma Woman Injured In Crash

Linda G. Afentakis, 20, of 51 Straub Lane, Petaluma, was injured at 12:25 a.m. yesterday in a one-car accident on Petaluma Boulevard North, near Gossage Avenue, north of Petaluma.

Mrs. Afentakis was reported in good condition today at Petaluma General Hospital with cuts of the face and hands. The California Highway Patrol said he car left the roadway on a curve and struck the center divider.

Raises Requested By Ross Teachers

Ross School District teachers last night asked for raises averaging $1,000 each in addition to automatic step increases. The board agree it did not have the money to pay such increases.

Supt. Robert D. Gowan said the salary package, raises and step increases, would cost the district $34,000 a year more. There are 25 teachers in the district.

The board did not indicate what it felt it could pay, but held the matter to the next meeting which will be at 7:30 p.m. May 12, when the budget will be discussed, instead of the regular time of May 19, Gowan said.

In other business last night, Gowan reported he presented plans for continuing the school's foreign language program on an expanded basis.

His recommendations included teaching French and Spanish to smaller groups in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades; making foreign language mandatory rather than elective, and, if the expanded program is desired, hiring an additional part-time Spanish teacher.

If the board approves the recommendations the hiring of the additional teacher will be considered in budget discussions.

A survey of parents and audience reaction last night was favorable to continuing on an expanded basis, Gowan said.

The Ross School District Board Also:

SURVEY — Approved a staff satisfaction survey to determine feelings on policy. The cost will be shared by the teachers organization and the district.

RETIREMENT — Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Dorothy Murphy, second grade teacher who is retiring. The board gave special commendation to Mrs. Murphy who has been with the district for 20 years.

PERSONNEL — Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Deborah Golitz of Tiburon, a second grade teacher, and hired Miss Joyce Ramacciotti as a primary teacher at a salary to be determined.

Novatan Injured In One-Car Wreck

A Novato girl was injured at 9:45 a.m. yesterday in a one-car accident on I Street extension, four miles west of Petaluma.

Kathleen T. Fleming, 18, of 1415 West Court Street, was reported in good condition at Hillcrest Hospital with cuts of the scalp and face. The California Highway Patrol said the car rolled over and pinned Miss Fleming inside for a short time.

Talks Tonight On Animal Ordinance

League Storage Shed Is Looted

Novato police today were investigating the burglary of a storage shed at the Little League Baseball Field near Marion School in which several youths apparently were involved.

One 16-year-old, who was seen climbing into the shed, already has admitted taking baseballs and other items from the shed at 10 Tiden Drive, police said. Several other youngsters, all under 16, also apparently participated in the theft, police said.

Police said $55 in baseballs, gum, candy and cigarettes were taken.

Guilty Plea To Credit Card Use

Jesse Jackson, 28, of Vallejo pleaded guilty Friday in Marin Superior Court to using another person's credit card at the Emporium to charge purchases totaling $54.59.

He was told to return to court May 15 for sentencing.

Car Wash Use Permit Hit Again

The Novato Planning Commission, splitting 3 to 3, last night declined to take further action on a use permit request from Cloudburst Car Wash, Inc., to build an automatic car wash and gas station in Novato.

The commission already has recommended denial of the request but the Novato City Council had returned the application to see if the commission would change its mind if the proposed gasoline pumps were eliminated.

By splitting on the application last night, the commission automatically returned the request to the council with no recommendation.

The Cloudburst company wants to build the car wash next to the Tijuana Taco restaurant now under constrcution on the east side of Seventh Street between Novato Creek and Grand Avenue.

Commissioners Lee C. Wise, Robert Lagle and Frank Valim voted for the permit last night while Eugene D. McGillicuddy, George S. Quesada and Wayne Sartain voted against. The Novato Planning Commission also:

ZONING — Approved amendments to the zoning ordinance to require use permits for residential uses in commercial districts and to limit commercial uses and eliminate residential uses in industrial districts.

PERMIT — Continued until May 26 consideration of a use permit request from Jack D. Kinney to construct a boarding home on a portion of a four-acre site to be used in conjunction with a convalescent home to be built at 1679 Hill Road.

VARIANCE — Granted a variance request to Robert E. Spratling to permit construction of a family room addition to his home at 28 Washington Street. The variance will allow the construction within 15 feet of the rear property line instead of the required 22 feet.

SHELL — Recommended that the board of supervisors grant a use permit application from Shell Oil Co. to build a service station at the southwest corner of Nave Drive and Bel Marin Keys Boulevard in Ignacio.

PETITIONS — Approved a request from Harold Fish to withdraw his petition to amend the zoning ordinance on property located at 1100 Olive Avenue and a request from Lloyd and Jocelyn Benson to withdraw a tentative map of the Benson subdivision located at the corner of Center Road and Eucalyptus Avenue.

UTILITIES — Continued consideration of an underground utilities ordinance for two weeks to give the commission and power companies more time to study it.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS — Approved curb and gutter widening projects near San Marin High School, Sinaloa Junior High and Pioneer Memorial Park.

Stolen Car Found

A 1965 Volkswagen reported stolen Sunday from Wayne C. Byrd of 262 Cecelia Way, Tiburon, was recovered at 1:30 a.m. today at Cole Drive and Drake Avenue in Marin City, sheriff's deputies reported.

Patrolman's Shadow Nets Loot Suspects

Two San Rafael youths — one of whom is already spending weekends in jail on a previous burglary conviction — were arrested early this morning on suspicion of burglary after a San Rafael policeman shadowed their car for nearly an hour.

Booked into Marin County Jail were Robert Charles Baldi, 19, of 11 B Taylor Street and Ricky Craig Rosser, 20, of Bermuda Palms Motel.

The two were arrested about 4 a.m. this morning after they drove up in front of Baldi's residence with their car's lights off.

In the trunk of Baldi's car — being driven by Rosser — the arresting officer found an auto stereo, a portable radio, several stereo tapes and a tachometer, police reported.

The arresting officer said that he first spotted the car about 3 a.m. on Grand Avenue but lost track of it. He said he spotted it again about 3:30 a.m., driving without lights, but lost it a second time.

Believing he recognized the car, the officer parked near Baldi's home about 3:50 a.m. and made the arrest 10 minutes later, police reports indicated.

The officer said that when he turned his spotlight on the car, both occupants appeared to be putting things hastily on the floorboard of the car. The officer reported finding two screwdrivers and a pair of pliers in the car and two pen flashlights on the youths.

Baldi was recently alleged to be a member of a gang which police linked to nearly 100 Marin County burglaries, but was released when witnesses failed to identify him.

He is now serving weekends in jail for another burglary conviction. No bail has been set for the two youths in the latest arrest.

Panel To Study 'Team Approach'

The Corte Madera Town Council will discuss emergency services proposals for the town at an adjourned meeting at 7:30 p.m., Thursday.

Under consideration is the proposed police and fire "team approach" recommended by Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher and a proposal by the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce. Urging a vastly-upgraded fire protection service based along the lines of a traditional department.

Other proposals will also be solicited, according to Mayor Edward W. Colthurst.

Youth Panel Sets Session

Organizers of the Marin County Youth Commission will meet at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center to begin working on a list of persons who will serve.

A spokesman for the organizers said representatives of all Marin high schools are being asked to attend to begin determining interest and qualifications.

The spokesman said younger students are needed because most of the persons now involved are seniors.

3-Year-Old Boy Runs Into Auto

A 3-year-old Marinwood boy escaped with multiple scrapes Sunday when he ran into the side of a moving car near his home, the California Highway Patrol said yesterday.

Alan Laurlund, 3, of 1280 Idylberry Road, was treated at Marin General Hospital. The patrol said the accident occurred at 1:10 p.m. on Idylberry Road when he ran into a car driven by Gordon B. Fraser, 46, of 200 Emerystone Terrace, Marinwood.

Benefit Set Sunday At Hub Church

Marin members of the San Francisco alumnae chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, international music sorority, will present a public concert Sunday at 3 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo as a benefit for the California League of the Handicapped.

Special feature will be a performance by the blind San Francisco pianist Rose Resnick, executive director of the league.

Schubert's "Auf Dem Strom" will be performed by Meg Broughton, soprano; Philip Parker, French horn, and Trudi Sorensen, piano. "Der Hirt Auf Dem Felsen" by the same composer will be performed by Meg Broughton, Trudi Sorensen and Douglas Delaney, clarinet.

Miss Resnick will play works by Brahms, Schumann-Liszt, Casella, Griffes, Debussy and Gershwin.

Concluding the program will be Mendelssohn's Quartet in D Minor, Opus 1, for piano and strings, performed by the Trubedon Trio, consisting of Trudi Sorensen, violinist Donna Lee Salarpi and cellist Betty Musser, and assisted by violist Ruth Jacobson.

Crash Victim's Condition Better

Hospital officials said that Paul Duane Hedemark, 30 Corrillo Drive, has been removed from the intensive care unit.

Hedemark was injured last Friday when he was riding in a car which crashed into a tree on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley, killing the driver of the vehicle, Elie Antoinne Olson, 23, of Mill Valley.

Home Looted Of Hi-Fi Equipment

Novato police today reported the theft of $310 worth of hi-fi equipment from the home of Norman M. Bertelsen at 86 Buena Vista, Novato.

Police said the burglary occurred sometime in the last two weeks while Bertelsen was away. The Burglars gained entry by cutting a screen and climbing through a window, police said.

Denial Made To Drug Possession

John Conners Apostoli, 28, of San Rafael yesterday denied in Marin Superior Court that he possessed marijuana Feb. 9 in Sausalito. A jury trial was set for the week of June 16.

Apostoli was arrested when he refused to identify himself to police who questioned him while he was hitchpiking on Bridgeway.

Motorcycle Victim's Condition Improving

A 25-year-old San Francisco woman injured Saturday in a motorcycle accident on Highway 101 near Corte Madera was reported in satisfactory condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Hospital officials said that Duane Wanda Brunell was removed from the intensive care unit late yesterday. She sustained a fractured skull in the accident Saturday when the motorcycle on which she was a passenger overturned.

Today is Tuesday, April 29th, the 119th day of 1969 with 246 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn. The evening stars are Mercury and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1862 Union forces took New Orleans, gateway to the Mississippi and once a Confederate stronghold.

In 1945 the body of Italian dictator Benito Mussolini, executed by partisans, was hanged in a public square in Milan.

In 1965 an earthquake in the Pacific Northwest killed six persons and caused more than $12 million in damages.

Wrist Wrestle Tourney Friday

Petaluma will again assume its role as the "wrist wrestling capital of the world" at 7 p.m. Friday as contenders gather at the Petaluma Veterans Memorial Building to test their strength and courage.

One contestant will stand out in the crowd because of his long ears and wet nose. Snoopy, the pride of Petaluma, is scheduled to give the tournament national publicity again with his entry.

Never Expect Good Results From An Unorthodox Bid

South didn't have the correct values for his opening bid in today's hand, played in the recent national team championship in Cleveland. South needed an unusually good result to pull the match out of the fire, but the actual result was just what you should expect when a player steps out of line against good opposition.

LEADS DEUCE

Dick Walsh, of the young Los Angeles team that won the championship, led the deuce of hearts from the West hand. South won with the queen of hearts and led the three of diamonds, hoping to conceal his strength in the red suits and thus somehow stall off a shift to clubs.

Walsh played the nine of diamonds without a flicker, and declarer tried a finesse with dummy's ten. It was an unfortunate guess on South's part, but he couldn't have gone wrong if Walsh had stepped up with the king of diamonds.

John Swanson won with the jack of diamonds and returned the deuce of clubs. West won with the queen of clubs and could comfortably return the three of clubs because an expert East would not lead a deuce (or any other very low card) in this position unless he could support a return lead.

TAKE FOUR CLUBS

The defenders rattled off their four clubs tricks, defeating the contract. So far, so good, but more was to come.

East won the fourth club trick and shifted back to hearts. South stepped up with the ace of hearts and led a spade to dummy's queen to resume the diamonds, still convinced that East had the king of diamonds.

CASHES KING

West won a trick with his unguarded king of diamonds and cashed the king of hearts. Since declarer had discarded a heart on the clubs, West's nine of hearts was now good and the defenders collected a penalty of 400 points for winning two hearts, two diamonds and four clubs.

ANSWER: Bid one heart.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Memory, like money, does not grow on trees; we must work hard to retain it. Many of our most successful people do not have excellent retentive powers.

They have learned to select relevant things and do not waste time on or clutter their minds with trivia. The absent-minded professor who is brilliant and an authority in his field may have difficulty once he leaves the classroom, laboratory or study.

CAN MEMORY be improved? Yes, but the individual must discover the medium through which he learns best. Is it easier to recall what has been seen, heard, or read? For the majority, sight is the best medium. Most of us remember faces but not names.

Recently, several reports have appeared linking RNA (ribonucleic acid) to memory. Some investigators believe that information is coded and stored in the RNA molecule. Most of this work has been done on laboratory animals.

Injections of an RNA extract are said to improve the learning ability and memory of rats. Vitamin B12 also increased the RNA of neurons within the brain.

THE MAIN OBJECTION to this research is that it is difficult to measure the retentive power of an animal.

Stuides have also been conducted on whether RNA improves the memory of oldsters with impairment of this faculty. Sex hormones also have been used. These people tend to perk up a bit and seem more interested in their surroundings when hormones are taken.

Again, we do not know what brain structures are involved in learning.

SOME PERSONS have amazing recall for trivia. They rattle off telephone numbers, zip codes, meaning of words, or ball players and their averages since the days of Ty Cobb. These incredible feats are not always related to intelligence; some of the dumbest people are able to recall the darndest things (idiot savant).

Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

FOOD RICH IN VITAMINS

I. B. writes: I know that the body needs vitamins. I also realize that some foods are better sources of these than are others. Please tell me where this information may be found.

REPLY

Yes. If you have time on your hands, you might consult the nutrition books in the local library. However, our leaflet on vitamins in foods will provide the information you want. It can be obtained by sending stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request.

CORONARY THROMBOSIS

C.O. writes: Why are some heart attacks fatal and other not?

REPLY

Most heart attacks are due to obstruction of the coronary artery. The risk of death is greater when the occlusion is in the main artery, rather than in a smaller branch.

When Spring Comes, It's Cleanup Time In Novato

COLLECTION CENTER—Trash bins were filled rapidly when Novato opened its spring cleanup drive, continuing through Sunday. Bill Olsen, 15, and Ken Wrosch, 16 (right), deposit a box of trimmings at one of the big trash bins located throughout the city. The campaign is sponsored by the Novato Beautification Committee. (Independent-Journal Photos by Roger Bockrath)

EVERYBODY WORKING — Philip Dickinson got into the spirit of spring cleanup by mowing the lawn at the Bethel Baptist Church at 1929 Novato Boulevard.

NEW FIRE TRUCK—Fireman William R. Tomrose of the Novato Fire Department invites Mayor Harley A. McAskill to take a ride in the department's new snorkel truck, in the parade to kick off the cleanup campaign.

TELEVISION IN REVIEW

Is There Really Too Much Violence?

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Is there really too much violent entertainment on television?

Or is it just possible that the basic problem is that there isn't enough real violence shown at all in the weekly melodramas?

What I mean is this:

When somebody is shot or stabbed or otherwise done in on a television show, it is usually such a neat and clean job of killing that the viewer feels little or no pain at seeing a death.

How can there be horror when the process of killing and dying is not merely repetitive — but virtually palatable in terms of real ugliness?

I think perhaps the numerous deaths on television have been no more responsible for killing feeling in viewers than the more pertinent fact that the slayings have not been particularly unpleasant.

My own feeling is that if you really want to generate a fear, a hatred and a horror of death on television —that is, take a positive instead of negative approach —then you should show killing as it genuinely is.

And I think there would be such a feeling of revulsion by the public that its requests for less violence would be steeped in much more real feeling —so much, in fact, that viewers would understand the correlation between the genuine deaths in the Vietnam news and the phoney ones in melodramas.

For example, what if a fellow on "Gunsmoke" — instead of merely getting shot in the arm or leg —was plugged in the groin? You don't see that sort of thing happen very often on television.

What if somebody on "The High Chaparral" —instead of getting a scalp wound or dying neatly —were shot right square in the eye, for all viewers to see?

What if a villain or a good guy in "Hawaii Five-O" had half his head blown off, in full view, before a nation of watchers settling down to watch some nice clean killing?

What if a woman in a melodrama had a breast shot to pieces? What if someone's mouth or ears were ripped off by a knife or gun wound?

Oh, you say, too horrible. Oh, you cringe, that's not the sort of stuff one should see on television. Oh, says a network executive, that would be tasteless.

I disagree. What is horrible and what is tasteless is to see antiseptic death, the way it hardly ever really happens. That is dishonest. That is immoral. That is the worst possible kind of lie. It glamorizes killing. It glamorizes the so-called romance of dying in a melodrama.

The truth could set a lot of people in television free.

Sentencing for Ross on an earlier burglary charge was continued yesterday by Judge Harold J. Haley until May 12. Teens Elated By Response To Park Plea

A bake sale to raise money toward purchase of additional land for the Point Reyes National Seashore and to alert the public to the possibility the needed land being subdivided was a "fantastic success," according to co-organizer Tami Patterson of Inverness.

Miss Patterson and Newtza Cornelius of San Rafael, both juniors at San Rafael High School, head a group that wants to show how it feels about expansion of the national seashore.

Sunday, they held a bake sale in Inverness and made $141.62. Miss Patterson reported. She said they asked baked donations from friends, neighbors and complete strangers they thought would be interested and had an 80 per cent turnout.

Besides the money, the group got 400 signatures on a petition addressed to President Richard M. Nixon to let him know how strongly Marinites want the park expanded to its original projected size.

Phase two of the group's campaign will be Saturday — a second bake sale from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Co-op of Marin in Corte Madera, Miss Patterson said.

Money from the bake sales will go to the National Park Service to be used, if possible, toward adding to Point Reyes National Seashore.

Miss Patterson has also suggested that Marinites write Interior Secretary Wallace Hickel, urging that the Bureau of Land Management exchange land it owns in Northern California or Oregon for Lake Ranch, the area in West Marin that is up for sale to be subdivided.

Collection Of Taxes Up Slightly

The percentage of tax collection in Marin is slightly better this year than last, Tax Collector-Treasurer Stanley J. Fontez announced today.

A total of $53,061,161 was collected in 1968-69 taxes by the April 10 deadline. The total charge for the year is $55,489,904.

Those who did not pay their taxes by the April 10 deadline will be assessed a 6 per cent penalty plus $3 handling cost. The list of delinquencies will be published later this year.

Delinquent taxpayers have until the end of June to pay up before their properties are advertised and sold to the state, said Fontez. The property owner then has five years during which he may redeem the property by paying taxes plus penalty.

Bolivians Honor Dead President

Thousands of Bolivians and the nation's civil and military leaders turned out in the streets here yesterday to give one of the biggest public tributes ever accorded a Bolivian president.

An armored car carried the flower-decked casket from the airport to the cathedral in a procession that lasted nearly five hours. Then a requiem mass was said for the 49-year old president and the two officers who died with him in the helicopter.

Child Expert Claims Boys Need Protection

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Little boys have a hard life, a female psychologist declared while urging the Boys' Clubs of America not to admit little girls.

Not only do little girls mature mentally faster than little boys, but the young males have to put up with a he-man concept on the part of their parents, she said.

They are told that they cannot be afraid of the dark, she continued, when they have a right to be afraid.

Urging that boys and girls be separated in school during the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, Dr. Ryan asserted the boys are severely handicapped there and not just because of the maturity gap.

"Most of the teachers are women and having been little girls, they understand little girls (or should). Not having been little boys, they are prone to think of them as little monsters," she continued.

The Boys' Clubs "provide an environment where a boy can be a boy without female dominence and interference," she concluded.

Planning Budget Is Due Discussion

The Marin County Planning Department budget will be discussed at a meeting of the Marin City-County Planning Council at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Civic Center.

The council will also review balanced transportation plans and elect officers.

Peninsula Bomb Plot Trial Put Off To June 30

REDWOOD CITY (UPI)—The trial of nine persons, arrested after a series of terrorist bombings on the San Francisco peninsula, was postponed yesterday because of a federal court order and the need for more time to argue pretrial motions.

Superior Court Judge Conrad Reisch granted the continuance until June 30 at the request of the prosecutor and with the agreement of eight defendants. Joseph Cooney, 49, a Menlo Park engineer who wanted to go on trial immediately, was overruled.

The suspects from the Palo Alto and Menlo Park areas were charged with 11 specific crimes in a 38-count grand jury indictment, including conspiracy and possession of explosives and weapons.

Dist. Atty. Walter Harrington said the delay was needed because of a federal court restraining order blocking prosecution for criminal syndicalism, one of the charges against the eight men and one woman.

The Twenty-second Amendment to the Constitution limits a president to two full terms or a total of 10 years, if he served part of another president's term.

Marin's Losing Quite A Swell Guy

I don't know about you guys, but I've got the feeling that we're running out of good guys around here. The white hatters seem to be getting fewer and fewer. The beads and the long hair and the sandals and all that garbage are becoming more and more prominent. Read the papers and you see words like pot and speed and grass more than homer or touchdown or basket. A picture of a broad in a double-breasted birthday suit gets an eight-column spread in staid ye olde I-J.

CAL RIEMCKE

And, looking at some of our schools I get the creepy feeling that the monkeys are taking over the zoo; the inmates are running the prisons.

Calvin Riemcke, as straight a shooter morally as you can find in the athletic world, has quit as head basketball coach at College of Marin to take a job at Spokane, Wash. Marin can't afford to lose men of his caliber. It's like Liberace losing a front tooth, a politician losing his larynx, a deflated Carol Doda. Imagine Willie Shoemaker without a horse, Willie McCovey sans bat.

'There Are Three Reasons'

"Well, there are three reasan," he said. "First, I have been offered this job at Whitworth which really interests me. It's a new and exciting challenge. I guess I have always harbored the desire to coach at a four-year school, to see how I could do with boys over four years rather than just two in junior college.

"My second reason is . . . well . . . I'd rather not make any comment for publication.

"Third, my family feels this is the right time for a move to a different environment. You know, the college atmosphere here isn't what it was four or five years ago. I wouldn't even consider the move I'm making now five years ago. Things have . . . well . . . they've just changed a lot. Heck, I'm no politician; I can't change the world. I'm a coach and I just want to teach young men the values of athletics."

Conditioned Like Marines

Riemcke will do well at Whitworth. Every inch of his angular frame is a winner. A strict disciplinarian, his teams are conditioned like combat Marines and often win games they should lose through sheer stamina.

In 12 years at Marin he has been through some brutal emotional gymnastics in championship competition yet has always retained his cool. In a profession that thinks composure is a song writer and where emotions run as wild as an Italian family reunion, Mr. Riemcke is Mr. Iceman. While some coaches chew towels, scream and do the Ghandi Dance along the sidelines, Riemcke sits there like he's watching the consolation semifinals of a Sausalito Patty-Cake Tournament. Yet, he admits to "dying inside."

Recalls His 'Best' Teams

Looking back over his 12 years here, Cal rates his first team of 1957-58 and the 1964-65 unit as perhaps his best quintets. That 57-58 team featured Stan Wells, Don and Dick Johnson, Larry Fulton and Claude Curley. The headliners in 1964-65 were Jay Johnson, Brad Busch, Jim Halm, Fred Arnold and Bill Brody.

"The team that did the most with the least," he recalled, "was the 1961 team that placed third in the state tournament. Our tallest player at 6-1 was Ron Blum."

Riemcke refused to single out any individual player as "best" because, he said, "I've had just too many."

I know his many friends and admirers here will sorely miss this truly outstanding coach. He is one of the few men in his profession I know who would rather send a young man to church than to the winner's circle, who places morals and ethics and good old-fashioned sportsmanship above almighty victory . . . yet has achieved all of those goals in a magnificent fulfillment of a coach's dream.

And so, the white hatters are getting scarcer and scarcer.

But then, there's always the monkeys . . . the inmates . . .

Riemcke Leaving College Of Marin

Cal Riemcke, head basketball coach at College of Marin for the past 12 years, has submitted his resignation to accept a similar position at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., it was announced today.

One of the most successful junior college coaches in California, Riemcke said he will assume his duties at Whitworth, a Presbyterian college, in September. Besides basketball, he will coach golf in the spring and serve as assistant professor in the physical education department.

WISH HIM WELL

Harry Pieper, director of athletics at Marin, said: "We accept Cal's resignation with reluctance because he has done an outstanding job of teaching the skills of basketball but, more important, has been a tremendous builder of fine young men. Marin County is losing a fine person and we wish him well at Whitworth." (For Reimcke's comments, see Jim Gilmartin's column.)

Pieper also announced the promotion of assistant basketball coach John Panagakis, 32, to succeed Riemcke. Panagakis, former Novato High School coach, has been Riemcke's assistant for the past three years.

At Whitworth, Riemcke will succeed Dick Kamm who has retired from coaching. Whitworth is a four-year school and a member of the Evergreen Conference.

199-136 RECORD

At Marin, Riemcke's teams won 199 games and lost 136 in competition against the toughest teams in the state. In 12 years Riemcke's Tars won seven Golden Valley Conference championships, winning two divisional titles and competing in the state playoffs six times. His 1961 team placed third in the state tournament.

He is currently president of the California Junior College Coaches Association. A graduate of University of California at Berkeley, Riemcke starred in basketball for the Bears and later for the Oakland Bittners in top-flight Amateur Athletic Union competition.

FROM OXNARD

Riemcke came to Marin in 1957 from a coachig job at Oxnard High in Ventura County where he had established that school as a basketball power.

Coming to Marin he succeeded Irwin "Red" Diamond who in 10 years as head of Tar cagers won one national junior college championship in 1948 (his first season), and five conference titles.

Big shoes to fill, but Riemcke was up to the task as his conference records indicate. The total of 136 losses is deceiving because Riemcke always scheduled the toughest non-conference foes possible to get his teams ready for league competition. None of his teams ever finished lower than third place in conference play.

Riemcke, 42, his wife, Eileen and their three daughters, Robin, 16, Karen, 12, and Sandra, 8, will remain at their San Anselmo home until they move to Spokane in August.

Tar Nine Defeats Leaders

College of Marin's baseball team moved to within a game of first place in the Camino Norte Conference by knocking off front-running DeAnza of Cupertino 11-9 at Albert Field in San Rafael yesterday.

The win gave the Tars a 12-5 record with three games left. They'll go after win No. 13 against Contra Costa of Richmond at Albert Field 8 o'clock tonight.

Mike Terry, who pitched out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam in the first inning, gave up just six hits but a seven-run DeAnza outburst, helped by four Tars' errors very nearly derailed him in the fourth inning.

4-0 LEAD

The Tars jumped off to a 4-0 lead in the first inning, with Dan Obrantz providing the big blow, a three-run double.

With DeAnza leading 8-7 in the sixth inning, Marin put it away with a four-run inning. Jeff Paquette and Steve Lebeck with run-scoring singles and Obrantz with a two-run single did the damage. Obrantz had five runs batted in for the game.

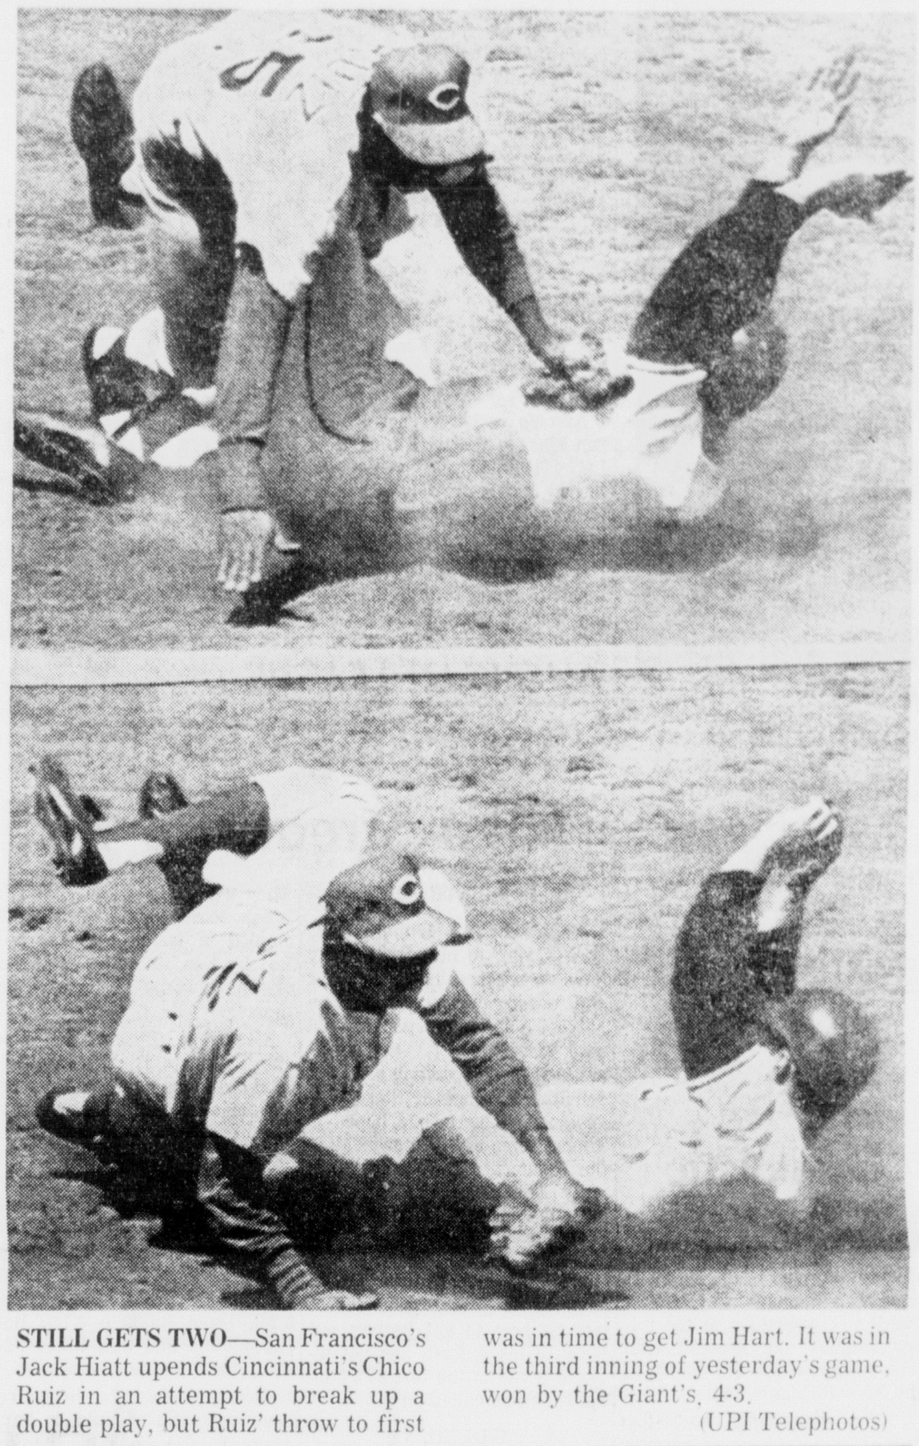
On Disabled List

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Southpaw Billy McCool's sore shoulder has forced the San Diego Padres' hurler to the disabled list.



STILL GETS TWO—San Francisco's Jack Hiatt upends Cincinnati's Chico Ruiz in an attempt to break up a double play, but Ruiz' throw to first was in time to get Jim Hart. It was in the third inning of yesterday's game, won by the Giant's, 4-3. (UPI Telephotos)

LEADOFF STAR

Bonds Hits, Runs In Giant Victory

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Willie Mays no longer is batting in the leadoff spot, but the San Francisco Giants don't mind it a bit — thanks to the run-scoring prowess of Bobby Bonds.

As a leadoff batter, Mays has reached first 14 times in 26 tries. Yesterday, however, Bonds opened the game with a leadoff homer and scored two other runs as the Giants nipped Cincinnati, 4-3, for their seventh straight victory.

BOLIN'S TURN

Bonds' base running binge gave him 17 runs in 19 games. He also stole his seventh base in as many attempts. Bonds' run-scoring ability is no fluke. He scored 55 times in 81 games as a rookie last year .

And Mays doesn't seem to mind batting in his customary No. 3 spot. His run-scoring single in the second inning gave him the distinction of hitting safely in all 15 games he has started.

HART HURT

On the bright side, however, Hart's replacement, Dave Marshall, cracked an eighth-inning single to keep his average among the National League leaders at .367.

After Bonds' 430-foot leadoff blast, the Giants added a first-inning run on Ron Hunt's single and Jim Davenport's walk with the bases loaded off loser Tony Cloninger, 0-3.

BONDS SCORES

Bonds walked and moved to third on an abortive pickoff play, scoring on Mays' single in the second. Bonds was safe on an error in the fourth and scored on Hunt's single.

Winner Gaylord Perry, 4-2, had a two-hit shutout entering the seventh. Tony Perez belted a leadoff homer, John Bench singled and Darrell Chaney hit a run-scoring double.

Perry struck out six and was aided by two doubleplays.

Celtics-Lakers Series Resumes

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, tested pressure cooker playoff veterans, rule a slight favorite to defeat the Los Angeles Lakers and square their best-of-7 series for the National Basketball Association championship tonight.

The Celtics, bidding for their 11th NBA title in 13 years since player-Coach Bill Russell joined the team as a rookie, are determined to make their home court advantage stand up and even the series at two games apiece.

NFL ROOKIE AT 27

Staubach With Cowboys

DALLAS (AP) — Maybe 27 isn't the ideal age to start out as a National Football League rookie. But Roger Staubach says he's stronger than he was at the Naval Academy when he was running defensive backs crazy.

Staubach signed an option contract with the Dallas Cowboys in 1965 shortly after graduation. He served in Vietnam and currently is at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla. He gets his release from the Navy in July.

Staubach worked out with Dallas last summer and Coach Tom Landry noted at the time, "He has NFL ability."

"I'm just thankful for a chance to compete," he said. "Dallas has fine quarterbacking. My big problem is just making the football team."

There seems little doubt Staubach will make the team. The Cowboys are expected to trade their third quarterback—Jerry Rhome.

Staubach said he didn't think he would have any trouble learning to be a drop-back passer although he had to do a good deal of scrambling and rolling out in college.

AT CAMP

The rifle-armed former Heisman Trophy winner is spending two weeks of leave at the Cowboys' quarterback camp with veterans Don Meredith and Craig Morton.

"I honestly feel in better shape right now than I did when I was in college," said Staubach after the day of drills.

"I feel I'm throwing stronger.

Horses Get Last Test For Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The money value was a mere $16,200, a pittance in the sport of thoroughbred racing, but the prize was more—much more.

Eight 3-year-olds were to go to the post today in the Derby Trial Stakes, last of the major tests for Saturday's 95th running of the Kentucky Derby. One, two or three of them might earn a stake in America's most famous race.

Heading the field was the Cain Hoy Stable entry of Ack Ack and Never Bow, with Fleet Allied, Polar Traffic, Jim's Gold C., Rae Jet, Shiek of Bagdad and Indian Emerald completing the field for the one-mile trial.

Five Trial winners have gone on to wear the roses that signify the champion of the 1¼-mile Derby four days later, but it has been 11 years since a single horse won both races.

Willie Mays Is Really Student Of The Game

Willie Mays stood beside the batting cage watching the Dodgers in pre-game practice. It was the first visit of the season by the Giants to Dodger Stadium. The captain of the Giants was the only member of his team watching the Dodgers.

Mays paid particular attention whenever one of the new Dodger rookies stepped into the batting cage. There was Bill Russell, a rookie rightfielder; Bill Sudakis, a rookie third baseman, and Ted Sizemore, a rookie shortstop. A fourth rookie, Bill Grabarkewitz, had just been summoned from the Spokane farm team of the Dodgers and would join them for the second game of the two-game series against the Giants.

"I'VE NEVER seen any of these fellows hit before,' said Mays. "I'm just getting a line on them. You know, to see how and where they hit."

It was typical of Mays, a man of many baseball skills. The fans are well aware of Mays' own batting ability and his defensive talent in covering vast areas of centerfield. But Mays seldom is portrayed as the baseball student he is, constantly acquiring all the knowledge he can about every major league ball players.

"IT'S MY JOB," said Mays who later directed Bobby Bonds in right field and Jim Ray Hart in left field how to defense the Dodger rookies when they came to bat.

Mays also studied Dodger Stadium and commented: "I thought they moved the fences in 10 feet. They still look the same to me."

The captain of the Giants knew very well that the fences had not been moved. He knew home run distances had been trimmed by 10 feet when the Dodgers moved home plate 10 feet closer to the fences.

MAYS WAS JUST testing the background knowledge of baseball writers to whom he was talking. One of the veteran writers knew what Willie was doing and said:

"They moved home plate out 10 feet. It's only 80 feet to first base now."

Mays roared at that. He enjoys baseball jokes but is very serious when studying rookie batters of the opposition. It's the same way Mays studies a rookie pitcher he will have to face.

"I'm still learning," said Willie who will celebrate his 38th birthday next week — May 6.

By MARION LADEWIG

A deliberate and coordinated pushaway pays off in a smooth delivery. In the four-step delivery, the bowler should push the ball away from her body as the first step, with the right foot, is taken. They both move in unison and set up the entire action.

Aaron Moves Up On Homer List

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Hank Aaron is two up on Babe Ruth this season but he's still 202 behind the Babe in lifetime homers.

Aaron cracked his third homer of the season last night in Atlanta's 12-1 victory over the Houston Astros to pass former teammate Eddie Mathews and move into sixth place on the all-time homer list with 513.

Ruth holds the lifetime mark but the Babe gained ont this season, increasing his lifetime total from the long recognized figure of 714 to 715. A special committee studying old statistics recently uncovered another homer which Ruth previously hadn't been given credit for and the record will be officially changed at the end of the season.

OTHER ACTION

Elsewhere in the National League, Chicago nipped Philadelphia, 2-1 in 10 innings, St. Louis drubbed Pittsburgh, 6-2, Los Angeles edged San Diego, 4-3, and San Francisco topped Cincinnati, 4-3.

Aaron's homer was a three-run blast in the third inning off Larry Dierker and he doubled to cap a four-run fourth inning. George Stone, 4-0, went seven innings to gain the victory.

Ron Santo Singled in a run in the 10th inning to give the Cubs the win over the Phils but the drama was packed into the last of the 10th when the Phils loaded the bases against Ted Abernathy with the help of a throwing error by Randy preserve the win.

BASES-LOADED SINGLE

Joe Torre's bases-loaded single highlighted a three-run first inning that sparked the erratic Cardinals past the Pirates. Abernathy then retired the side on three straight grounders to Steve Carlton pitched a four-hitter for the Cards. The Cards had 11 hits off loser Bob Moose and three other pitchers with Lou Brock, Curt Flood, Vada Pinson and Tim McCarver each collecting two. If they keep that kind of hitting up, the Cards won't have many problems in the future.

MISTAKE

Surprising Senators Hike Streak To Five

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Whatever Ted Williams has been saying to his hitters, they have been repeating loudly over and over again the past five games, but how do you explain how Washington's relief pitchers have been sounding off?

Williams, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, had hoped to impart some of his knowledge to the Senators' hitters and apparently has succeeded as they have spoken up by hammering 39 runs for five consecutive victories.

But Manager Williams must have some pretty good ideas, too, on how to get batters out because his bullpen has not allowed a run in the last 35 2-3 innings he has called on it.

WIN NO. 5

The lessons worked well again last night as the Senators rolled up No. 5 by pasting Detroit 6-1 with Hank Alien driving in three runs and Dick Bosman posting fourr scoreless innings in relief of winner Camilo Pascual.

While the Senators were sounding off again, the Boston Red Sox finally were silenced when Fritz Peterson of the New York Yankees stopped them on three hits for a 1-0 victory, the first time in 11 games the Sox haven't hit a homer.

Minnesota blanked Kansas City 4-0 as Jim Perry scattered seven hits in the only afternoon game in a schedule curtailed by rain. Baltimore's game at Cleveland and the California contest at Seattle were washed out at night.

TWO IN FIRST

The Senators, who had managed only 25 runs in 12 games before their victory streak, jumped on Earl Wilson for two runs in the first inning on Allen's run-scoring hit and a throwing error by Al Kaline. They waited until the eighth to break loose again when Allen singled in two more runs and hits by Ken McMullen and Paul Casanova brought home two more.

Meanwhile, Pascual had held the Tigers to Dick McAuliffe's lead-off homer in the first before leaving after five innings in the 43 degree weather. That's when Bosman took over and blanked Detroit the final four innings, giving him 8⅔ shutout innings in the bullpen spree.

Dennis Higgins has nien scoreless innings of the streak that began April 19, Casey Cox 8 2-3, Dave Baldwin 4 1-3, Bob Humphreys and Jim Miles two each and Joe Coleman one.

Twenty-three of those resounding 35 2-3 innings have come in the last five games, which have, lo and behold, lifted Washington's once shy violets of the American League over the .500 mark and ahead of the mighty Tigers into fourth place in the East Division, only 3½ games behind leading Baltimore.

RECORDS

The Red Sox had broken records with 26 homers in 10 consecutive games and 27 in 11 before running into Peterson, 3-2, who pitched the first complete game victory and the first shutout against them all season.

The run he needed came in the sixth with one out when Bobby Murcer lined the third hit off rookie Ray Jarvis, 1-1, making his first major league start, and Roy White doubled him home. The victory boosted the Yankees into second place, ahead of Boston and 2½ lengths back of the Orioles.

Perry, starting only because rookie Tom Hall was delayed returning from military reserve duty in North Carolina, also coasted in after Killebrew's sacrifice fly in the first inning and Rich Reese's three-run homer in the fourth. The victory gave the Twins a one game lead over Oakland in the West Division.

Esposito Wins Top NHL Honor

MONTREAL (UPI) — Phil Esposito of the Boston Bruins yesterday was duly rewarded for the most prolific season ever in the National Hockey League by being named winner of the Hart Trophy as the league's outstanding player.

Esposito, who successfully escaped the tag as Bobby Hull's helper after coming to the Bruins two season ago, was one of four NHL stars honored yesterday for outstanding effort during the 1968-69 season.

NORRIS TROPHY

Bobby Orr, a teammate of Esposito's, was awarded the James Norris Trophy as the league's outstanding defenseman, Danny Grant of the Minnesota North Stars received the Calder Trophy as Rookie of the Year and Alex Delvecchio of the Detroit Red Wings won the Lady Byng Trophy for best combining sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct with a high standard of playing ability.

ONE POLL

The winners were selected by a vote of the NHL Writers Association, and it marked the first time since the 1952-53 season that the winners were selected in only one poll at the end of the regular schedule. In the past 16 years, selections were made at both mid-season and at the end of the regular season.

Jaycees Back To Losing Ways

The San Rafael Jaycees sunk back into their losing groove yesterday as the bowed to Cal's Steakhouse, 9-0, in a San Rafael Parks and Recreation 16-inch slow pitch softball game at Albert Field.

In other games Cliff's Chevron topped Wrights Richfield, 8-0, on John Reichard's two-hitter and three runs batted in. In a C-II game, it was Hiller's Men's Store, 10, Marin Supply 3, as Speedy Griggs had two triples and a single for the winners.

FISH AND GAME

By AL GIDDINGS

$10 Reward Offered For Capture Of Fish

The Department of Fish and Game has started the biggest striped bass tagging program ever undertaken in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, during the spawning runs there from April 1 through mid-June.

The primary purpose is to estimate size of the adult bass population and the total catch. Anglers who catch a tagged fish should tell the Department of Fish and Game where they caught the fish and whether they were fishing from a party boat, private boat or shore.

To help stimulate returns, the Department of Fish and Game is offering rewards from $2 to $10 for the return of 3,000 of these tags. Reward is $10 on 1,000 of the tags.

THE OTHER DAY Joe Mello caught a three-pound bass that was tagged so he gave me the tag. He didn't see the $2 reward sign. Easiest two bucks I ever made. Neither of us read the tag carefully and now 10 days later, I notice it reads $2 reward.

In court not long ago, two young fellows dressed with beads, ear rings, etc., were given their choice of $50 fines or five days working their sentences off for attempting to spear fish. As they came out of the court, they asked me if they could get eight other friends who they were living with to help them work it out, thereby finishing off their sentences in one day. This may be the meaning of true love from the hippie code.

THE CLAM quarantine is effective May 1 this year. I remember going clamming with a friend and we each dug a limit and took them home. I ate mine the first day, but my friend called me three days later and asked me over. I went and upon arrival, he wanted me to fix up his clams and fry them for lunch . Clams three days old didn't sound so good, but I fixed them and when he said they were fine, I ate some too.

A little later we drove to San Rafael. He went up to the court house and I went down to the Western Sport Shop. About a half hour later a deputy sheriff came running in and said that may friend had been taken to the hospital for clam poisoning. He asked if I felt sick? I began turning green remembering how much I had eaten and I knew I could also feel the pains. He rushed me to the hospital.

They were pumping my friends stomach, but the nurse gave me a box of salt and put me in the back room to drink warm water mixed with salt. This causes a cleansing action! After two hours I felt I would make it. About this time the nurse came over and said my friends had something else the matter; it wasn't the clams after all! So—eat fresh clams from an unpolluted area. Don't eat any black parts after cleaning and washing. Don't eat cockles. And you won't have to worry!

SCOTTY MENDOZA of Point Reyes came by today and said that she had caught two "great big" salmon. I asked her how big they were and she said they were both 22 inches long. I hope so! (The minimum size limit is 22 inches.)

Bill Christiansen of Point Reyes Station, Bill Marshall of Inverness and I were talking about black bass fishing. Christiansen was telling about his tackle box which contained about 20 black bass lures. A casual listener at the coffee shop came over and introduced himself as Larry Mayer the outdoor editor of the Asheville Citizen, a newspaper in North Carolina. He said he lived over 500 miles from salt water, so had to write most of his columns on black bass. To prove his point, he took us out to his car and showed us his tackle box. It had 390 compartments, each one with a black bass lure.

OVER THE WEEKEND at San Pablo Bay out of Bucks Landing, 16 boats had seven sturgeon. Manny and Maizie Martin have the new boat taking two of the prizes. One weighed 58 pounds and the other 45.

A few small bass and flounders were taken also. A few people have been fooled thinking they have a big sturegon on, and it turns out to be a stinger that weighs nearly 100 pounds. So don't get too happy until you've seen the whites of its eyes.

Down at the Marin Rod and Gun Club pier , nine bass or more were landed last week. Most were caught by trolling.

How does one troll a pier? You hike up and down with a bugeye or a spoon hung over the side of the pier in the water below along the pilings. Boy, when you get a hit here you know it!

Frank Spence of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, keeper of the pier, says to, "come down, it's not even crowded yet." Early in the mornings are best times.

Nicasio Lake good for bass or bluegill. I saw four women catch blue gills at the rate of one per minute. Salmon fishing in Sausalito perking along great if it's not windy.

Narco Is Good Buy At Present

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I am in a position to speculate with a few thousand dollars, the loss of which would be harmless. Have you any suggestions? — C.R.

A. Under these conditions, speculation is justified so long as it is based on knowledge. Jumping into a stock on a rumor is always poor business, and the odds are heavily stacked against you. Narco Scientific Industries is a particularly interesting situation with excellent upside potential. While these shares are perhaps less of a specualtion than you had in mind, they are backed by good earnings and a solid product line.

The company, formerly National Aeronautical Corp., has branched out from its original concentration on avionic products into medical electronics, marine electronics and controlled environment. Acquisitions have been largely responsible for Narco's expanded product base. The most recent acquisition, McKesson Co., manufactures a well-respected line of dental and hospital anesthetic and analgesic equipment and compressors.

Prior to this take-over, medical products accounted for 26 per cent of sales but may now increase to about 32 per cent. The company's Air Shields subsidiary is known throughout the world as the maker of Isolettes, miniature regulated environments for infants. A line of intensive-care equipment and systems for use in handling premature infants and cardiac patients has been introduced.

Narco Avionics marketed four major new products last year and an important navigational aid for the private airplane will soon be available at one-fourth the cost of an existing competitive product.

GIANT CRANES MAKE OCEAN TRIP

These two giant floating cranes have been shipped from Hamburg, Germany, on a transatlantic voyage with destination Rio de la Plata in South America. They'll be used for salvage operations of two shipwrecked tankers—one a 14,000-ton vessel and the other, a 9,000-ton craft.

Wall Street Chalks Up Solid Advances

The UPI stock market indicator was up 0.58 per cent. Of the 1,577 issues on the tape, 876 advanced and 473 declined.

The news background lacked outstanding developments. The steady flow of generally improved first quarter corporate reports still was a major bright spot for traders.

Electonics showed scattered strength, with RCA, General Electric, Burroughs, IBM, Control Data, and Scientific Data among the point-plus gainers. Xerox, which hiked its dividend, also firmed.

General Motors was on the uptrack in its group although strikes at several GM assembly plants were expected to last for some time and possibly cut production schedules.

American Motors, which announced plans to add about 200 new dealerships over the next 12 months, also gained.

Pennzoil and Amerada were firmer oil issues, while a few airlines and aircrafts racked up point-sized advances for no new apparent reason.

Deadline Reset On Securities

The California Commissioner of Corporations has extended the deadline for qualifying securities for over-the-counter trading by securities brokers from May 1 to June 10.

Securities of foreign issuers (those organized outside the United States) are exempt from qualification until Aug. 28.

The new California securities law effective Jan. 2 requires that securities which are to be traded over-the-counter in California be qualified with the commissioner's office. The responsibility for qualifying is primarily that of the company issuing the securities but any securities broker or securities holder may qualify them by filing the required form.

ICC Declines Ruling In Goodyear Appeal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Interstate Commerce Commission has ruled itself out of the battle by B. F. Goodrich Co. to prevent a takeover by Northwest Industries Inc., a holding company which owns the Chicago and North Western Railway. The ICC said it had no power to rule on a petition by Goodrich that the commission approve any securities issued by Northwest in its tender offer for Goodrich. The ICC said Goodrich hadn't shown the securities would affect the ability of Northwest to keep up transportation service.

'Black Power' Success Creating New Schisms

It was bound to happen.

When black students began demanding separate departments of black studies, and black citizens insisted on special treatment based on race, humorists soon got into the act suggesting that there be separate departments of Irish studies, urging' 'Italian power," etc. This was satire. But white minority groups have now begun in earnest to imitate the "black power" tactics, according to a story last Thursday in the Wall Street Journal.

"Naturally, there's bitter feeling on the part of white ethnics toward Negroes. But perhaps if the ethnics begin to speak as one voice, maybe somebody will pay attention to us as well as them."

PANKUCH AND OTHERS who think the same way are seeking to amalgamate the efforts of the host of organizations of Americans of various national backgrounds, to win special representation — and federal money. According to the Wall Street Journal, the drive is being directed by the National Confederation of American Ethnic Groups, which claims 18.6 million members in 67 loosely affiliated organizations.

America, the "melting pot," has always had plenty of such organizations. Their members are good Americans, but also proud of their ancestral lands.

Twenty-five such associations are listed in the World Almanac, ranging from the Order of Ahepa through the Sons of Norway, the Order of Scottish Clans, and the Steuben Society.

Neither the 25 listed in the almanac nor the 67 affiliated with the national confederation make up a complete list. There are hundreds of clubs based on ancestral nationality. Locally we have the Sons of Italy and the Uniao Portuguesa en Estado da California, among others.

ALTHOUGH IT IS common for political candidates to seek endorsements from these groups, in the belief (probably mistaken) that the members vote as a bloc, seldom have Greek-Americans, Portuguese-Americans, Swedish-Americans or whatever attempted to win any special treatment based on ethnic background. They have considered themselves Americans. The ties to "the old country" have been ties of sentiment only.

That many of them would now seriously consider agitating for special treatment on the basis of their foreign backgrounds indicates how deeply and sadly the American nation has been wounded by the separatist black agitation and the well-intentioned but dangerous yielding to it by a conscience-nagged "establishment," particularly in the colleges and universities.

WE HAVE POINTED before in this column to the violation of American principles involved in separatism.

All such movements create schisms within our society which can be fatal to participatory democracy. And, according to the Wall Street Journal report, the current "ethnic" movements are being supported and promoted by the same leaders responsible for much of the current strife between blacks and whites: sociologists at university-supported research centers.

The Legislator As Lawyer: Interest Conflict For Bagley?

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

Legislators naturally give a broad interpretation to what would constitute a conflict of interest between their legislative and business roles, and Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is no exception.

According to information furnished us, Bagley attempted to influence several members of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission to approve an application for a fill permit that was filed by a firm represented by his law firm.

BAGLEY READILY acknowledged the information was correct, but said he saw no conflict of interest in his attempts. "I didn't lean on them or try to pressure them — I just said we were representing a client before them, and that we would be interested in a favorable action," he told us.

Of the five votes that were cast for the permit application, three appeared to have some possible relationship to Bagley. Asked how many commissioners he contacted, Bagley said three.

But the only one he was willing to identify was Edward J. Slevin of San Rafael, an appointee to the commission by the Senate Rules Committee. Slevin's proxy, Edward J. Charbonneau of Greenbrae, voted for the permit.

Asked who the other two were, Bagley said he would "hate to use the names of state guys." The two state officials who voted for tht permit were F. J. Hortig, executive officer of the State Lands Commission and proxy for Bagley's close friend Houston I. Flournoy, and Edmond C. Baume, proxy for State Planning Officer Robert L. Harkness.

IN ADDITION to the three commissioners Bagley conceded he had talked to, he said he also asked Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, for some help. The help almost came when McCarthy's legislative aide made a virtually unprecedented appearance at the commission's hearing on the permit the week before last, but only then did he find out that the legislative members of the commission have no vote.

"There was nothing untoward," Bagley said of his efforts. "All I did was represent a client."

But he conceded that "practically speaking" there was a difference between a state official being asked to do something by a legislator and being asked by an ordinary attorney who does not have the privilege of using his influence for personal benefit.

AS IT HAPPENED, Bagley's efforts were utterly futile, since the commission voted overwhelmingly to reject the permit, which was sought by Sausalito Associates for a $25 million high-rise development in Richardson Bay.

This all serves to demonstrate the ineffectiveness of the legislature's conflict of interest rule. And since the present meaningless rules prove so convenient to the legislators, the prospect of making it significantly tougher is more than remote.

Poisons Compound Own Problems

The picture of tent caterpillars in Tuesday's (April 22) I-J had below it, a caption, quite in tune with the stupidity of our times. Birds, which used to control such outbreaks, have been reduced in numbers by the use of sprays, and the unthinking man answers the unbalance which he has created by further damaging his environment.

Fortunately, the time is not too far off when we will eliminate ourselves, so any life that can survive our intentional and unintentional fouling of our planet, air, land and water may find living easy again in a few thousands years after the poisons all decay.

Unitarians Shun Dogmatic Belief

I am delighted that you publish articles on the different religious faiths on your Saturday church page, including the one on Unitarianism last Saturday. These articles can help, to some extent, to create more understanding between the different churches.

There is one statement in your article on Unitarianism, however, which is incorrect. It states that about two thirds of its members are atheists. This is not true. It is true that Unitarians have complete freedom of belief, and thus one has the freedom as a Unitarian to be an atheist, and some indeed are. The majority of the two thirds, however, would be better described as agnostics. An atheist denies the existence of God, which can be a pretty dogmatic belief. Most Unitarians shun any dogmatic belief, and thus they prefer to take the agnostic position which leaves the possibility of the existence of God open without claiming to have the final answer or understanding. This is what is characteristic of Unitarians; to seek the truth in freedom, but never to presume that the truths we know are necessarily the final or ultimate truths.

Teacher Takes Pessimistic View

Dear Student of 1970 in the Public Schools: You wonder why there are all new teachers this year? You wonder why you can no longer work at your own rate and level? You say it is boring sitting in these straight, crowded rows hour after hour? You say you think its like being in the army marching to and from the room? You are wondering why you have to sit and wait until everyone is finished before you can go on to the next lesson?

You think it isn't fair never to have a chance to share your ideas or feelings? You miss being treated like a human being? You don't know what the "F" means on your paper? Why that means that you have failed. But you tried to do your very best? Sorry, it is forbidden not to get all the test questions answered correctly. There must be a grade for the report card. It is forbidden not to know exactly where you are in your school work.

Letters to "What Our Readers Say" are welcomed. Only letters with signatures and addresses will be considered. Please keep them under 200 words. We reserve the right to cut letters.

You wonder why the whole class of 35 is reading from the same basic reader at the same time? Why it is forbidden to read any other book because we must hurry and cover all the books from the planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum this year.

You are wondering why you have to work five pages of long division when you know how to divide when you tried it last year? Why, it is forbidden not to finish all the problems on all the pages in the planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum.

You are wondering why you cannot watch the experiment on television or see the film on the discovery of California? Sorry, they might be cartoons and cartoons are forbidden.

You don't see why we don't take any study tours anymore? Sorry, a study tour is not in the three R's curriculum.

You say you had an argument with your friend and you think you can solve the problem if you could only talk to him with the help of a teacher? Sorry, that's called sensitivity training and that is forbidden.

You wonder why there aren't any live animals in the school this year? Why, I heard that last year the fish had babies and that's called sex education and that is forbidden.

You wonder why you cannot use the tape recorder to practice on your reading and speech? Sorry, that is frivolius experimenting with education and it cannot be evaluated. It is forbidden.

You wonder why Lou Ann is 12 years old and still in the second grade? Well, she can't pass all the tests from the planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum and she must stay until she does.

You say you think the world is round? Be careful in that kind of thinking. You know it is forbidden. We may be allowed to learn about the automobile age if we are good this year. And just think, after a full week of our planned, guided, scheduled, graded curriculum you won't have to ask any more questions. See you tomorrow, little robot.

Bouquet Due For Students' Aid

I want to propose that you award one of the Independent-Journal's finest "bouquets" to the students of Edna Maguire School for their selfless response to the need of the starving children of Biafra.

They put in much effort and many of their after-school hours selling enough candy bars to earn $12.00.

For others who may want to follow this good lead of the teen-agers, one minor correction should be noted if you will: the name of the relief agency for which I received half of the amount raised is Church World Service.

TVA, The Grand Experiment, Has Become Model For World

DECATUR, Ala. — A big piece of the excitement at the start of a new administration 33 years ago was the Tennessee Valley Authority, which under the tutelage of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Sen. George Norris began the rehabilitation of a region plagued by all the ills of poverty.

Today most Americans take TVA for granted as a piece of political archaeology out of the New Deal age, a job finished that can be put away in the files.

A tour of the region shows TVA to be very much alive and expanding, performing services for the seven states, with beneficial consequences for most of the rest of the country and with an impact on every part of the world. It is America's outstanding example of what can be done in a partnership between government and private enterprise, which is why each year some 600 foreign visitors come to study this successful adventure in planning for a whole region and its river system.

TVA, at its inception as a New Deal agency, was regarded by Republicans as a diabolical device to inflict socialism on the nation. They fought it tooth and toenail in Congress and the courts.

When Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower became President in 1953 he cherished the conviction that this experiment in socialism, as he saw it, must somehow be restrained. He appointed another retired general, Herbert D. Vogel, to be one of TVA's three directors. But Vogel, after a thorough examination of the authority and its works, became more Catholic than the pope — that is, more pro-TVA than some of the Democratic appointees to the board.

Now TVA is subject to the ministrations of a second Republican president. In the interval, however, a lot has changed. That was evident during Richard M. Nixon's campaign in Tennessee last September.

Nixon asked chairman A. J. Wagner of TVA's board this question:

"Do you think that TVA could be helpful in furthering the effort to control air and water pollution?"

WITH MORE extensive practical work as well as research on water pollution than any other agency in the country, and with extensive studies in air pollution growing out of TVA's own steam plants, this is just what TVA is doing today.

At the National Fertilizer Development Center in nearby Muscle Shoals the partnership between government and private enterprise is seen in its most flourishing form. Growing out of the original commitment to create nitrates for soil improvement, the center has developed new and far more potent fertilizers. Each new development is patented by TVA and then the process is made available to commercial companies free of charge.

TVA WOULD not be TVA without a lusty scrap in Congress relating to progress. The latest has been touched off by conservationists — preservationists might be a more accurate word — accusing the authority of spoiling the landscape for yet another dam.

No less an old-time New Dealer than Justice William O. Douglas has ridden into the lists to charge that, by building a dam on the Little Tennessee, TVA is ruining one of the nation's finest trout streams, desecrating the former hunting grounds of the Cherokee Indians, and blotting out a fine piece of scenery.

Chairman Wagner replies that the lake created will have its own beauty and, for more important, the development will provide employment and an attractive way of life for several thousand families who now have a marginal life.

"The work of TVA will never be over," John F. Kennedy said in a speech on TVA's 30th anniversary, only a few months before his assassination. "There will always be new frontiers for it to conquer in the minds of men the world over."

SEATO, Beset By Failure, Appears Headed For Doom

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization may be heading toward an early demise after 15 ineffective years.

SEATO had its birth on Sept. 8, 1954, in Manila, another link in a global chain being forged by the late Secy. of State John Foster Dulles to contain aggressive communism.

THE YEARS preceding had been turbulent ones.

Mao Tse-tung had taken over the Chinese mainland. There had been the war in Korea, the French defeat at Dien Bien Phu and a rising tide of Communist terrorism in the Philippines and Malaysia.

In the wake of these events the United States, Britain, France, Pakistan, the Philippines, New Zealand, Thailand and Australia joined in a defensive pact which was to extend the umbrella of its protection over the whole of Southeast Asia.

France never did participate actively in the pact and for the past two years has been boycotting the ministerial meetings. Pakistan has been sending an ambassador instead of its foreign minister as evidence of its displeasure over lack of support from its partners in its border war with India in 1966.

Britain is in the process of withdrawing its forces from east of Suez and can no longer be an effective member.

THIS YEAR'S council meeting, which Philippine Foreign Minister Carlos P. Romulo has described as "crucial" to its future is to be held in Bangkok May 20 and 21.

Next year's meeting is slated to be held in a western capital but none yet has offered to be host.

"Perhaps none wants to be the site of the funeral of SEATO," remarked one diplomat, more than half seriously.

The "unanimity" clause prevented SEATO action in Vietnam and the United States, Thailand, New Zealand, Australia and the Philippines went into it on their own.

MOST CONCERNED over SEATO's future and worried by increasing anti-war sentiment in the United States is Thailand.

UPI Correspondent Kim Willenson in Bangkok reports that when Secretary of State William P. Rogers arrives for the May meeting he will be greeted by what appears to be a twoheaded Thailand foreign policy.

The Thais did not favor the cessation of bombing over North Vietnam and will urge that it be resumed in a search for military victory.

The Thais never did believe in the workability of Laotian neutrality and have seen their fears amply justified in the flow of communist men and supplies down the Ho Chi Minh trail.

They fully believe they are the next Communist target.

BUT FEARS of the future course to be taken by the United States also have led them to look for alternatives.

Therefore Rogers may be told the Thais are thinking of increasing their relations and especially their trade with Russia and the East European Communist nations and also of exploring the possibilities of negotiating with Red China.

These are among the conflicts of interest which could or it could just fade away.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BONNIE BARD

Generation Gap Short But Deep When You Visit Alma Mater

The idea that the so-called "generation gap" applies only to those past middle age is clearly a myth, most young adults would report after returning to their alma mater as shortly as four years after graduation.

Perhaps the old administration building stands as rigid and pigeon-splattered as usual and the kindly old dean who was your confidant still religiously keeps his office hours, but both the building and your favorite dean may well be under siege.

FOND MEMORIES of college years that involved such important matters as football games, fraternity parties and grade point averages cannot be rekindled by a return visit. Certainly, football games are still played and fraternities still go through the motions of rush and hell week, but the spirit that prevailed on campus not that long ago has all but vanished.

The new students, perhaps with good reason, contend that they are more concerned with problems of society and relevant matters than with self-centered activities.

Members of the Black Students Union roam the campus selling the latest edition of the Black Panther newspaper. "Buy a paper and help support the Panther free breakfast program," they say, in a manner which conveys the threat that if you don't come up with 25 cents you'll be labeled as a bigot.

In the old cafeteria, where something called microbiotic rice has replace the hamburger as the most popular menu item, students no longer care who is sitting with whom, but instead hear a poet dramatically recite his latest work.

The shiny new sports cars that were once the optimum in status symbols have been replaced by the grubbiest of buses. The expensive coats with labels that had to pass sorority standards have been replaced with army surplus stock. "No one cares what you look like — we just care what kind of person you are," they say piously.

THE PROUD alumnus returning to the campus to give the kids a look at where old dad went to school has vanished from the scene, along with the usual contribution to the alumni association. "Why should I donate my hard-earned money to support those good-for-nothings?" he says, totally unconvinced they have any worth.

One of the few characteristics shared by both present and former students is inflexibility. Neither will bend enough to understand the other.

Larkspur Police Chief Position Is Now Filled

Corte Madera police inspector Harold N. Hockett announced today that he has accepted the post of Lakeport police chief and will take over his new duties May 15.

Hockett has been with the Corte Madera police since 1956. He first worked as deputy chief of San Francisco City College campus police and, during that time, had a part-time job for seven months with the Larkspur police.

From there he started at Corte Madera as patrolman, became investigator in 1957 and was appointed inspector about two years later. Hockett is married and he and his wife, Loretta, have a duaghter, Nathalie, who is a student at San Jose State College.

Hockett will be in charge of a force of one sergeant and four patrolmen in the Lake County community. Presently earning $884 monthly, he would not disclose his new salary.

Driving Course To Begin Monday

A defensive driving course for older drivers will start next Monday at 10 a.m. at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael, 9 Ross Valley Drive.

The course to run for four consecutive Mondays is open to all persons 55 years of age and older and will be conducted by instructors certified by the National Safety Council.

The course is sponsored by San Rafael Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons. Those interested in enrolling may notify John C. Uhte of 51 Bothin Road, Fairfax.

To Study Budget

The Bolinas-Stinson School District board will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. today at Bolinas School to discuss the 1969-70 budget and use of school buildings. The district last week canceled a proposed bond election for expanding Bolinas School because of current high bond interest rates.

Innocent Plea On Drug Count

Leonard Gilbert Nathan, 25, of Berkeley pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court to a charge of possessing marijuana for sale. A jury trial was set for the week of Aug. 18.

Nathan was stopped Dec. 14 when a California Highway Patrol officer noticed his car going too slowly on Highway 101.

Nathan was arrested when he gave false information about his birthdate, and a search of the car allegedly turned up hashish, marijuana and papers indicating Nathan was in the process of making deliveries of the narcotics.

What If Revolution Arrives And Nobody Comes To Party?

WASHINGTON — There is some question as to what role the communications media are playing in student unrest. Most of us like to think we're just reporting the events on college campuses, but there is a gnawing suspicion that our role may be one of participant rather than observer.

Have you ever wondered what might happen if the press and TV didn't show up at a student demonstration?

"Who was supposed to alert the TV stations?"

"I did alert them. I said we were going to lock ourselves in at noon. They said they were covering the flower show at the coliseum and they didn't have any cameras available."

"THAT'S A HELL of a note. It's just like the bourgeois, racist, capitalistic TV media to ignore the revolution. What do we do now?"

"Let's take the building anyway."

"What good will it do? There are no press photographers or newspapermen here either."

"Where are they?"

"I called up the papers and told them what we were going to do and they said they were too busy to cover another student takeover of a building. They said it wasn't news any more."

"DID YOU tell them we were going to tar and feather the dean of the law school?"

"Yeah, and they said to send them a press release on it."

"Where's the reporter from the school newspaper?"

"The school newspaper said they didn't have any student to spare for our demonstration, but they'd get a fill-in later from one of us."

"I beg your pardon?"

"WHO ARE YOU shooting the film for, man?"

"My cinema class. Would you mind doing that again?"

"Get out of here."

"Somebody's got to come. What about the radio stations?"

"No dice. They said we could call in on their telephone talk show if we wanted to, but they're not sending anyone over."

"There's got to be some law that the press has to cover a student riot."

"If I had known nobody was going to be here, I wouldn't have missed my lunch hour."

"I want to read my speech telling why we are taking over the law building."

"Who cares? You write it for the press. As long as they're not showing up, spare us."

"I SAY we should take over the law building anyway."

"What good will it do? Nobody will know we did it."

"It could keep us in practice."

"Why are you combing your hair?"

"Well, if nobody's going to take my picture, I might as well go to English class."

"Wait. Don't go. Let's make new demands to the administration."

"Such as?"

"It's the administration's responsibility to see that our student demonstrations are covered by the press and TV media, and if they don't provide adequate coverage the university has three hours to live."

"Let's hurry. I promised my parents I'd be on the Cronkite show tonight."

HOOKS SUITCASE IN BOMB SCARE

A member of the Toronto, Canada, bomb squad hooks a suitcase thought to contain a bomb at the Toronto-Dominion Center—a 54-story twin-tower unit in the downtown area. The suitcase, which weighed over 40 pounds, was found to contain only old clothes. The bomb scare began yesterday when a security guard picked it up and said he thought it was ticking. 14 Inmates Isolated As Stabbing Suspects

Fourteen San Quentin convicts have been placed in isolated segregation cells today as suspects in the three stabbing incidents at the prison in the last week.

Prison officials said that two whites are being held in connection with the fatal stabbing of a Negro, Jeff Cooper, 49, last Wednesday, that two Negroes are being held in connection with the stabbing of four white convicts last Friday and 10 whites are being held in connection with yesterday's fatal stabbing of two blacks, Calvin Bonner, 44, and Floyd Neal, 39.

Prison officials declined to release the names of the suspects.

At 8 a.m. this morning, prison officials, utilizing all available manpower, began an intensive cell-by-cell search for weapons. Prison officials said they hoped to have the search completed by late today.

In addition to security guards, personnel who usually work in the hospital, dental clinic and industrial areas are aiding the search.

"If they don't have any programs to run, they might as well be helping the guards," Associate Warden James L. Park said today.

Guards yesterday found more than half a dozen prison-made knives near the area where the two latest stabbing victims were found.

Park said that the 10 persons being held in connection with the latest stabbings "included anyone remotely connected to the case," noting that probably several would be released later as having nothing to do with the actual killings.

Planning Council Sets Election Of Officers

The City-County Planning Council of Marin will elect new officers Thursday night at its regular meeting at the Civic Center.

Chairman Douglas M. Merrill announced that the meeting is set for 8 o'clock in Room 426.

The council will try to determine how much pressure, if any, the county should exert in encouraging properties to be annexed to adjoining cities. The Novato City Council wants adjoining areas annexed before development plans are processed so that the city will have a voice in the planning of areas just outside the city limits.

Also on the agenda are a discussion of the planning department budget for 1969-70, the balanced transportation program, a committee to study tourism, the planning of housing programs for low-income and minority groups.

The city-county planning council is composed of representatives from the county board of supervisors, the county planning commission, and delegates from each city.

Innocent Plea To Cashing Of Checks

A jury trial was set for the week of Aug. 18 for Zola Mae Van Dolah, who was arrested Feb. 7 after she reportedly cashed a check stolen from the Atlas Paper Co. in San Francisco at the Emporium in Northgate.

Horse Care Class To Begin May 10
